WSB Calls For End To Copper Strike

Union Wants Government Assurances

58,000 Workers Are Reported Idle

DENVER, Aug. 27 (AP)—The president of striking union workers who stopped the production of defense-vital copper said tonight the strike would not be called off "unless and until" the government presses the companies to accept a government-proposed settlement.

John Clark, president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, made the statement pending receipt of a request from the Wage Stabilization Board that the men return to work.

The WSB was asked today by President Truman to attempt to settle the dispute.

The union said about 58,000 workers in the copper, lead, zinc and silver industries, walked off their jobs today in a wage dispute.Charles E. Wilson, defense mobilization director, told President Truman the strike would "drastically curtail the production of tanks, guns, planes and other military items for the defense program as well as items required from the civilian economy."

Hearing On Wednesday

Clark said his union would send representatives to Washington for a hearing scheduled for 1 p. m. (EST) Wednesday at the wage board's headquarters. But Clark's statement added:

"We cannot, of course, agree to call off our strike unless and until we receive assurances from the government that it will press for acceptance by the companies of its own proposal for settlement of the dispute."

The union said federal mediators had proposed to the strike-bound companies a wage settlement proposing wage increase averaging 16 cents an hour and a pension plan to cost an additional four and one-half cents. The union said this proposal was acceptable to it.

Clark said that when his union representatives appear before the WSB in Washington they will "urge acceptance of the proposal made yesterday by Cyrus Ching, director of the U. S. Conciliation Service for settlement of the dispute between this union and the non-ferrous metals operators."

Union Expelled From CIO

Clark added "we will remind the board that this union has already called upon President Truman to "use his good offices' to obtain acceptance by the metal companies of the Ching proposal, which we accepted almost imediately after it was made.

The mine-mill union was expelled from the CIO last year when the executive board sustained findings that the IMMSWU had Communist leanings. The union once was a

Corporate Tax Hike Softened By Senate Unit

House Figure Cut To $2,280,000,000

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee voted late today to boost corporation taxes by $2,280,000,000 a year. Committee experts figured this would chop $760,000,000 from new corporation levies voted by the House.

It was the biggest cut the senators have made in the $7,200,000,000 House tax bill. Senate committee reductions now total $1,640,000,000 and the committee is far from through with the measure.

Even without further pruning, the committee version as it now stands would raise only $5,560,000,000 more annually. That's just a little over half the ten billion dollar increase urged by President Truman and Treasury Secretary Snyder to fight inflation and pay-as-you-go for defense.

No Effective Date Set

Chairman George (D-Ga:) said the committee hasn't agreed yet on an effective date for its corporate taxes. The House bill would make new corporate taxes effective last Jan. 1. There is some sentiment in the Senate to pick a later date.

Senate committee comparisons with the House bill are based on an estimate the House plan would raise corporate taxes $3,040,000,000. This was the House figure before adjustments which House experts estimated would make the net gain in their bill only $2,855,000,000. Using the House experts' figures, the Senate committee reduction would amount to $575,000,000 instead of the $760,000,000 announced by Senate calculators.

Decisions Subject To Change

The Senate committee figured its corporate levies would slice $610,000,000 from excess profits taxes and $150,000,000 from corporation income taxes as passed by the House.

Biggest previous reduction voted by the Finance Committee was $438,000,000 from the House plan for hiking personal income taxes, putting the increase at $2,409,000,000. All the decisions are subject to later change when the committee reviews the tax bill as a whole.

Dragging Out West Europe Arms Buildup Could 'Break' U. S., Eisenhower Believes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has told a congressional committee studying the rearming of Western Europe that "the one thing that can break the United Staes and give us nothing in return is to drag this thing out."

"We must go to the limit of our producing capacity and of the power of Europe to absorb our military assistance, and get it done now," the commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization said at his base in Europe.

Senators Release Report

His statement was in a report which a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee released today, after censoring, on its day-to-day hearings in Europe in July. A report on the group's findings was released Aug. 12.

At that time, Eisenhower was quoted as saying that the free world's strength is so great "it is almost ridiculous for us to be talking in terms of fright and hysteria."

Today's hearings report quoted him:

"The struggle going on in the world is for the minds and hearts of men. It is an ideological struggle. There is every possible way of going about the thing, and open warfare is only one method.

"I honestly believe that if you make Western Europe strong enough, the Russians will just turn somewhere else where the picking is easier because they have got the world over to choose from. x x x

United Europe Called Key

"I believe that—and this may be a bit on the naive side—but I believe that France and Germany are going to continue to grow closer and closer together."

Eisenhower spoke hopefully of the day when all Western Europe might be joined together in a federal union, saying:

"I realize that a lot of my professional associates are going to think that I am completely crazy, but I will tell you that joining Europe together is the key to the whole thing. And if you can help do it with a European army, I am ready to put a lot of work in it."

Demand Allies Admit Neutral Area Bombing

Reinvestigation Of Incident Asked

TOKYO, Tuesday, Aug. 28. (AP)—The Reds today offered to resume the Korean truce talks if the Allied command would admit that one of its warplanes last Wednesday bombed the neutral conference site of Kaesong.

The Reds broke off the stalled talks early Thursday. They charged that an Allied plane tried to "murder" the Communist delegates by dropping explosive bombs and fiery jellied gasoline near their quarters and then strafing the area.

The Communists broadcast their new offer. An Allied liaison officer was scheduled to pick up a message, presumably the offer, at 11:40 a. m. today (8:40 p. m., EST, Monday) at Panmunjom, near Kaesong.

A spokesman at Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters in Tokyo said the Allied commander was ready for any eventuality.

"The Communists can either continue or break off the talks," he said.

"We are ready for anything they choose to do."

The Reds in their offer demanded that the Allies reinvestigate the Kaesong bombing incident.

Ridgway already had rejected their charge as a fake and a fraud.

There was no direct comment from Ridgway on the new offer.

Ridgway's spokesman, Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, said he had no statement because "we want to see what the message actually says before saying anything at all."

U. N. command headquarters, however, was familiar with the version broadcast by Communist radio. Official communications between the Reds and Allies usually are exchanged by liaison officers at Panmunjom, six miles east of the truce town of Kaesong.

A high officer at Ridgway's headquarters pointed out:

"If Gen. Ridgway accedes to enemy demand to reinvestigate that bombing incident, he will have to eat his own words, for he has already declared the whole affair absolutely false. I don't think Ridgway will do it—unless he receives definite instruction from higher up."

Another military authority said "I feel sure now that the Reds began this armistice talk business for the sole purpose of building up their army for a big attack. They were buying time, I think and by now they have had just about all they need."

The statement by North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and Chinese Red Gen. Peng Teh-Huai was broadcast early today by the Peiping radio.

The Red conditions were so harsh that it appeared the future of the truce talks remained critically imperiled, but that the Communists were not yet ready to take responsibility for cancelling them finally.

The message, which portrayed the Red side as totally in the right and the Allies as totally in the wrong, made no mention of two new alleged violations of Kaesong's neutrality on Aug. 23 and Aug. 25 by United Nations planes and "plain-clothesmen."

British Brush Off Idea Of American As Iran Oil Boss

Harriman Attends London Conferences

LONDON, Aug. 27 (AP) — British officials today coldly brushed off an idea to settle the Iranian oil dispute by appointing an American to manage the great Abadan refinery.

The suggestion, contained in British news dispatches from Washington, received some prominence here as Presidential Envoy W. Averell Harriman plunged into a round of talks with British leaders on the prospects of a British-Iranian settlement.

There was no evidence to suggest, however, that the idea of having an American take charge at Abadan came up during Harriman's conversations with Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet colleagues.

British officials said they have had no official word from Washington that the United States is thinking of offering such a suggestion as a way out of the deadlock the British and Iranians have developed.

One government official said: "Clearly it's an American kite. But it's a kite which won't fly."

Britain's official policy right now is to keep her foot in the Iranian door.

About 350 picked oilmen are staying on in Abadan—an island off the Iranian mainland where the world's biggest refinery is located — and they will be ready to resume operations as soon as the Tehran government gives the word.

With a big stick behind their back in the form of nearby naval and air forces, the British clearly feel they can out-wait the Iranians.

The immediate cause of the breakdown in the Tehran talks last week was the failure of the British and Iranians to agree on who should manage the Abadan refinery operations.

India's Boycott Of Jap Pact May Hit Aid Program

"Repercussions" Feared By Lehman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — India's boycott of the Japanese peace treaty conference may bring about a tougher U. S. policy towards her, and backfire on the U. S. foreign aid programs.

Sen. Lehman (D-Lib-NY),' a backer of the air programs, said today he fears there will be "a lot of repercussions."

Key State Department officials said India's denunciation of the proposed treaty seemed to follow the Soviet line and gave support to a Moscow propaganda drive apparently aimed at wrecking the treaty negotiations.

A 32-man delegation, led by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, arrived in New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth today en route to the peace conference. The parley opens Sept. 4 in San Francisco.

No Clue To Soviet Plans

Scowling, Gromyko gave newsmen no clue of Russia's intentions.

In Moscow, the Soviet government newspaper denounced the proposed treaty as an American attempt to make Japan into a U. S. colony and set the Japanese aginst other Asiatic peoples.

American diplomats were bitter in expressing their disappointment at India's attitude. One official attributed it to what he termed a misguided effort by India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru to chart a middle-of-the-road course in the East-West conflict in the hope of emerging as leader of the Asiatic democracies.

India Received U. S. Help

Sen. Lehman's fears about the effect the Indian developments will have on foreign aid were expressed against a background of fund cuts the $8,500,000,000 program already has suffered, and the prospects of more. Debate is to start in the Senate tomorrow on how much money to grant.

Sen. Wherry (R-Neb), Republican floor leader, said in the Senate today that India's actions prove that U. S. shipments abroad do not necessarily win friends.

Kidnaped Clerk Is Found Slain

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 27 (AP)—The body of an attractive young woman night clerk kidnaped from a "Gold Coast" hotel five days ago was found on a lonely dairy farm road today, her skull shattered by a bullet.

Mrs. Lewana Newman, 23, was last seen alive at 3 a. m. Wednesday behind the desk of the Gould Hotel near Sunny Isles, on the ocean front north of Miami Beach. Missing from the cash drawer was $925.

O. D. Henderson, sheriff's chief deputy, declared she was kidnaped by a bandit and slain. Mute evidence of her struggle with the killer were bloodstains, one shoe, a broken belt buckle and one earring found outside the hotel entrance.

The other shoe and earring were on the body when found. She carried a key to a strong box containing $7,100 in cash and jewels left untouched at the hotel.

A former boy friend of Mrs. Newman, arrested yesterday, was released today after questioning.

Senate Resumes Battle Over Aid Curb Bill Today

Placed On Calendar After Torrid Debate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—What looked like a prospective filibuster was broken up tonight when the Senate formally agreed to take up tomorrow a hotly-disputed bill aimed at choking off the flow of arms to Russia and her satellites.

After several hours of talk over whether it should put the measure on its calendar for immediate consideration, the Senate agreed by a roll-call vote of 32 to 29 to take it up Tuesday.

The Senate then recessed until noon tomorrow, putting an end to what had appeared likely to be a prolonged night session.

The bill which aroused the storm of debate is designed to suspend all American aid for any nation engaging in prohibited trade with iron curtain countries. However the administration would have some discretion in enforcing it.

Malone Talks 92 Minutes

Before the Senate quit for the night, Sen. Malone (R-Nev) had made one 92-minute speech to a handful of senators.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) then demanded a quorum call. After 25 minutes, 49 senators out of the total membership of 90 straggled in.

Malone then began a second speech under Senate rules which permit each member to make two talks on the same subject.

Finally the Democratic and Republican leaders in the Senate reached an agreement to vote tonight on whether the aid bill should be put on the calendar.

That brought an end to tonight's speech making.

GOP Backs Rival Bill

The fight over the bill will be resumed when the Senate meets again.

Its Republican opponents, led by Sens. Gem (R-Mo) and Malone contend the measure is too weak.

The Republicans are rallying behind a rival measure sponsored by Kem and Sen. Wherry (Neb), the Republican floor leader.

What the Republicans are shooting at is a House-passed bill, sponsored by Rep. Battle (D-Ala).

Earlier Malone denounced the bill as a "war bill," asserting it would let Great Britain ship strategic goods to China and Russia "until in a few years, maybe in a few months they have built up to fight a war against us."

War Games End In U. S. Victory

FORT BRAGG, N. C., Aug. 27 (AP) —Exercise Southern Pine, like all good war games, ended today with a complete victory for U. S. defending forces.

They even "killed" the imaginary dictator of the enemy aggressor, Gen. Arturo Aguinaldo.

The two-week Army-Air Force mock war involving more than 100,000 soldiers and airmen, ended at 7:20 a. m. (EST) after an enemy aggressor force had been crushed by the three divisions of the U. S. Seventh Corps. The divisions were the 28th and 43rd Infantry Divisions and the 82nd Airborne Division.

News of the end of the war games spread rapidly through the ranks. There was some shouting among the third ground troops, who had trudged many a mile over the rolling, pine-covered Carolina sandhills.

To many of the troops, the end of the war games meant special passes to their homes. To all of them, it meant a return to their home stations, scattered across the nation, for normal training under more comfortable conditions.

Police Fear Missing Girl Kidnap Victim

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27 (AP)—"Someone has taken her and is holding her," a grieving mother cried today as fear rose for the safety of her little girl.

While Mrs. Elizabeth Potts sobbed softly, more than 1,000 Cleveland park workers and police kept hunting for her daughter, blonde Beverely Potts, 10. Beverely has been missing since 9 o'clock Friday night.

"I haven't given up hope," said Mrs. Potts, glancing again and again at Beverely's doll house on the dining room table in their west side home.

"But I can't help thinking someone might have pushed her in a culvert or thrown her in the lake."

From the beginning, police had operated on the theory that a sex pervert seized Beverly.

Deputy Inspector James E. McArthur, who assigned half the detective force exclusively to the search for Beverly, said today: "It looks bad."

Beverly's father, Robert Potts, who like his wife is 51, is a stagehand at the Allen Theater.

Holohan Is Buried

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Maj. William V. Holohan, slain behind enemy lines in wartime Italy, was buried today, after nearly seven years.

The Defense Department has accused two fellow-soldiers in the Office of Strategic Services of slaying Holohan for political reasons.

The two, former Lt. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh, and former Sgt. Carlo G. Lodolce of Rochester, N. Y., have denied the slaying.

Heavy Fighting Erupts In Korea

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Tuesday, Aug. 28 (AP) — Heavy fighting erupted Monday on the East-Central Korean warfront. It coincided with a new crisis in the suspended truce talks.

Reds in battalion strength shoved Allied forces back nearly two miles northwest of Yanggu, at the eastern end of strategic Hwachon reservoir. Yanggu is seven miles north of parallel 38.

The battle raged throughout the day. By nightfall, United Nations troops counterattacked to restore their positions.

Northwest of that area, sharp patrol clashes were reported in the Pyonggang region of the erstwhile "iron triangle" of Central Korea. An Allied patrol took a hill in the see-saw fighting and then was forced to pull out by dark.

Stubborn Red resistance was reported south and southeast of Kumsong, in the same general area. The Reds made limited assaults with mortar support. They were driven back.

Eighth Army headquarters reported the Communists attacked in regimental strength on the eastern front, but were hurled back by Allied artillery and fighter bombers. This was in the area west of Kansong.

Offshore, Allied warships blasted Red positions on the hills northwest of Kansong. Other U. N. naval vessels shelled highways along the Northeast Korean coast.

"Human Chain" Pulls Two Men From Flooded Cavern

ABERCRAVE, Wales, Aug. 27 (AP) —A chain of 85 men pulled two explorers to safety tonight from a flooded underground Welsh cave where they had been trapped for three days. The explorers were unhurt.

The two men had been prisoners since Saturday morning deep inside the cavern of Ogof Ffyddu, under the Welsh Mountains near here. A sudden rainstorm sent tons of water down the underground Byfyre River and blocked all exits from the cave, situated in Glamorganshire about 25 miles northeast of Swansea.

A team of deep-sea divers plunged through the stream to reach the explorers. They were spurred on by faint sounds echoing through the cave which indicated the explorers were still alive.

When the explorers—Lewis Railton, 40, and William Little, 30—had been located, the human chain was formed through the swift underground waters. The rescuers grasped the pair and yanked them to safety. They came out dirty and hungry.

Railton and iLttle are speleologists, or cave researchers.

Mrs. Railton had waited outside the cave during the whole rescue operation. Her husband came out first. Several minutes later the rescue crew brought out Little.

The men had found safety in a high chamber deep inside the cavern.

Agar Given Jail Term For Drunken Driving

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27 (AP)—Actor John Agar, divorced husband of Shirley Temple, was sentenced today to five months in jail for drunken driving. His ex-wife's name figured in the proceedings.

Agar was convicted on one count recently, then pleaded guilty to a second and applied for probation.

A psychiatrist told the court that Agar's drinking was "a neurotic reaction to a series of unhappy experiences in his first marraige." Attorney Llewellyn Moses asked for leniency because his clinent was emotionally upset.

M'Arthur Reportedly Rejected Baseball Job

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Chicago Tribune says tonight it has been informed that Gen. Douglas MacArthur has politely but firmly turned down the job of baseball commissioner.

In a dispatch from Washington, the Tribune quoted a baseball club owner as saying that a committee had spent three hours with MacArthur in his New York hotel suite last week.

The newspaper said its informant asked that his name not be made public but quoted him as reporting that the committee had told MacArthur that he would be elected by an unanimous vote if he would accept.

MacArthur is reported to have told the committee that the "offer was a great honor," but that he "could not accept the job."

Giant Strides In Producing New Weapons Reported

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — American science, Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said today, is opening "a new doorway of scientific warfare" to reach weapons far more terrible than those employed in World War II.

He reported the United States has made giant strides in the development of guided missiles, pilotless plnes and atomic weapons, declaring, they "are already here."

"Scientific and technological advances, particularly in the field of electronics, are opening a new door of scientific warfare not even imagined in World War II," O'Mahoney said.

He spoke to reporters after a closed door meeting of a Senate Appropriations subcommittee which is studying the Armed Services' $56,000,000,000 money bill. O'Mahoney heads the subcommittee. Details of the new weapons, he said, must remain secret for security reasons.

As O'Mahoney made his report, Sen. McCarran (D-Nev) said he considers war with Russia inevitable.

He made the prediction in commenting on the Senate Judiciary Committee's decision to seek an additional $195,000 to continue its investigation of the nation's internal security through December, 1952.

After several hours of talk over whether it should put the measure on its calendar for immediate consideration, the Senate agreed by a roll-call vote of 32 to 29 to take it up Tuesday.

The Senate then recessed until noon tomorrow, putting an end to what had appeared likely to be a prolonged night session.

The bill which aroused the storm of debate is designed to suspend all American aid for any nation engaging in prohibited trade with iron curtain countries. However the administration would have some discretion in enforcing it.

Malone Talks 92 Minutes

Before the Senate quit for the night, Sen. Malone (R-Nev) had made one 92-minute speech to a handful of senators.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) then demanded a quorum call. After 25 minutes, 49 senators out of the total membership of 90 straggled in.

Malone then began a second speech under Senate rules which permit each member to make two talks on the same subject.

Finally the Democratic and Republican leaders in the Senate reached an agreement to vote tonight on whether the aid bill should be put on the calendar.

That brought an end to tonight's speech making.

GOP Backs Rival Bill

The fight over the bill will be resumed when the Senate meets again.

Its Republican opponents, led by Sens. Gem (R-Mo) and Malone contend the measure is too weak.

The Republicans are rallying behind a rival measure sponsored by Kem and Sen. Wherry (Neb), the Republican floor leader.

What the Republicans are shooting at is a House-passed bill, sponsored by Rep. Battle (D-Ala).

Earlier Malone denounced the bill as a "war bill," asserting it would let Great Britain ship strategic goods to China and Russia "until in a few years, maybe in a few months they have built up to fight a war against us."

Agar Given Jail Term For Drunken Driving

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27 (AP)—Actor John Agar, divorced husband of Shirley Temple, was sentenced today to five months in jail for drunken driving. His ex-wife's name figured in the proceedings.

Agar was convicted on one count recently, then pleaded guilty to a second and applied for probation.

A psychiatrist told the court that Agar's drinking was "a neurotic reaction to a series of unhappy experiences in his first marraige." Attorney Llewellyn Moses asked for leniency because his clinent was emotionally upset.

Corporate Tax Hike Softened By Senate Unit

House Figure Cut To $2,280,000,000

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee voted late today to boost corporation taxes by $2,280,000,000 a year. Committee experts figured this would chop $760,000,000 from new corporation levies voted by the House.

It was the biggest cut the senators have made in the $7,200,000,000 House tax bill. Senate committee reductions now total $1,640,000,000 and the committee is far from through with the measure.

Even without further pruning, the committee version as it now stands would raise only $5,560,000,000 more annually. That's just a little over half the ten billion dollar increase urged by President Truman and Treasury Secretary Snyder to fight inflation and pay-as-you-go for defense.

No Effective Date Set

Chairman George (D-Ga:) said the committee hasn't agreed yet on an effective date for its corporate taxes. The House bill would make new corporate taxes effective last Jan. 1. There is some sentiment in the Senate to pick a later date.

Senate committee comparisons with the House bill are based on an estimate the House plan would raise corporate taxes $3,040,000,000. This was the House figure before adjustments which House experts estimated would make the net gain in their bill only $2,855,000,000. Using the House experts' figures, the Senate committee reduction would amount to $575,000,000 instead of the $760,000,000 announced by Senate calculators.

Decisions Subject To Change

The Senate committee figured its corporate levies would slice $610,000,000 from excess profits taxes and $150,000,000 from corporation income taxes as passed by the House.

Biggest previous reduction voted by the Finance Committee was $438,000,000 from the House plan for hiking personal income taxes, putting the increase at $2,409,000,000. All the decisions are subject to later change when the committee reviews the tax bill as a whole.

War Games End In U. S. Victory

FORT BRAGG, N. C., Aug. 27 (AP) —Exercise Southern Pine, like all good war games, ended today with a complete victory for U. S. defending forces.

They even "killed" the imaginary dictator of the enemy aggressor, Gen. Arturo Aguinaldo.

The two-week Army-Air Force mock war involving more than 100,000 soldiers and airmen, ended at 7:20 a. m. (EST) after an enemy aggressor force had been crushed by the three divisions of the U. S. Seventh Corps. The divisions were the 28th and 43rd Infantry Divisions and the 82nd Airborne Division.

News of the end of the war games spread rapidly through the ranks. There was some shouting among the third ground troops, who had trudged many a mile over the rolling, pine-covered Carolina sandhills.

To many of the troops, the end of the war games meant special passes to their homes. To all of them, it meant a return to their home stations, scattered across the nation, for normal training under more comfortable conditions.

M'Arthur Reportedly Rejected Baseball Job

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Chicago Tribune says tonight it has been informed that Gen. Douglas MacArthur has politely but firmly turned down the job of baseball commissioner.

In a dispatch from Washington, the Tribune quoted a baseball club owner as saying that a committee had spent three hours with MacArthur in his New York hotel suite last week.

The newspaper said its informant asked that his name not be made public but quoted him as reporting that the committee had told MacArthur that he would be elected by an unanimous vote if he would accept.

MacArthur is reported to have told the committee that the "offer was a great honor," but that he "could not accept the job."

Dragging Out West Europe Arms Buildup Could 'Break' U. S., Eisenhower Believes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has told a congressional committee studying the rearming of Western Europe that "the one thing that can break the United Staes and give us nothing in return is to drag this thing out."

"We must go to the limit of our producing capacity and of the power of Europe to absorb our military assistance, and get it done now," the commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization said at his base in Europe.

Senators Release Report

His statement was in a report which a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee released today, after censoring, on its day-to-day hearings in Europe in July. A report on the group's findings was released Aug. 12.

At that time, Eisenhower was quoted as saying that the free world's strength is so great "it is almost ridiculous for us to be talking in terms of fright and hysteria."

Today's hearings report quoted him:

"The struggle going on in the world is for the minds and hearts of men. It is an ideological struggle. There is every possible way of going about the thing, and open warfare is only one method.

"I honestly believe that if you make Western Europe strong enough, the Russians will just turn somewhere else where the picking is easier because they have got the world over to choose from. x x x

United Europe Called Key

"I believe that—and this may be a bit on the naive side—but I believe that France and Germany are going to continue to grow closer and closer together."

Eisenhower spoke hopefully of the day when all Western Europe might be joined together in a federal union, saying:

"I realize that a lot of my professional associates are going to think that I am completely crazy, but I will tell you that joining Europe together is the key to the whole thing. And if you can help do it with a European army, I am ready to put a lot of work in it."

Police Fear Missing Girl Kidnap Victim

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27 (AP)—"Someone has taken her and is holding her," a grieving mother cried today as fear rose for the safety of her little girl.

While Mrs. Elizabeth Potts sobbed softly, more than 1,000 Cleveland park workers and police kept hunting for her daughter, blonde Beverely Potts, 10. Beverely has been missing since 9 o'clock Friday night.

"I haven't given up hope," said Mrs. Potts, glancing again and again at Beverely's doll house on the dining room table in their west side home.

"But I can't help thinking someone might have pushed her in a culvert or thrown her in the lake."

From the beginning, police had operated on the theory that a sex pervert seized Beverly.

Deputy Inspector James E. McArthur, who assigned half the detective force exclusively to the search for Beverly, said today: "It looks bad."

Beverly's father, Robert Potts, who like his wife is 51, is a stagehand at the Allen Theater.

Holohan Is Buried

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Maj. William V. Holohan, slain behind enemy lines in wartime Italy, was buried today, after nearly seven years.

The Defense Department has accused two fellow-soldiers in the Office of Strategic Services of slaying Holohan for political reasons.

The two, former Lt. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh, and former Sgt. Carlo G. Lodolce of Rochester, N. Y., have denied the slaying.

Demand Allies Admit Neutral Area Bombing

Reinvestigation Of Incident Asked

TOKYO, Tuesday, Aug. 28. (AP)—The Reds today offered to resume the Korean truce talks if the Allied command would admit that one of its warplanes last Wednesday bombed the neutral conference site of Kaesong.

The Reds broke off the stalled talks early Thursday. They charged that an Allied plane tried to "murder" the Communist delegates by dropping explosive bombs and fiery jellied gasoline near their quarters and then strafing the area.

The Communists broadcast their new offer. An Allied liaison officer was scheduled to pick up a message, presumably the offer, at 11:40 a. m. today (8:40 p. m., EST, Monday) at Panmunjom, near Kaesong.

A spokesman at Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters in Tokyo said the Allied commander was ready for any eventuality.

"The Communists can either continue or break off the talks," he said.

"We are ready for anything they choose to do."

The Reds in their offer demanded that the Allies reinvestigate the Kaesong bombing incident.

Ridgway already had rejected their charge as a fake and a fraud.

There was no direct comment from Ridgway on the new offer.

Ridgway's spokesman, Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, said he had no statement because "we want to see what the message actually says before saying anything at all."

U. N. command headquarters, however, was familiar with the version broadcast by Communist radio. Official communications between the Reds and Allies usually are exchanged by liaison officers at Panmunjom, six miles east of the truce town of Kaesong.

A high officer at Ridgway's headquarters pointed out:

"If Gen. Ridgway accedes to enemy demand to reinvestigate that bombing incident, he will have to eat his own words, for he has already declared the whole affair absolutely false. I don't think Ridgway will do it—unless he receives definite instruction from higher up."

Another military authority said "I feel sure now that the Reds began this armistice talk business for the sole purpose of building up their army for a big attack. They were buying time, I think and by now they have had just about all they need."

The statement by North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and Chinese Red Gen. Peng Teh-Huai was broadcast early today by the Peiping radio.

The Red conditions were so harsh that it appeared the future of the truce talks remained critically imperiled, but that the Communists were not yet ready to take responsibility for cancelling them finally.

The message, which portrayed the Red side as totally in the right and the Allies as totally in the wrong, made no mention of two new alleged violations of Kaesong's neutrality on Aug. 23 and Aug. 25 by United Nations planes and "plain-clothesmen."

KIDNAPED, SLAIN—The body of Mrs. Lewana Newman (above), 23, night clerk at a "Gold Coast" hotel at Miami, was found yesterday on a dairy farm road, her skull shattered by a bullet. A sheriff's deputy declared she was kidnaped by a bandit and slain. (AP Wirephoto)

British Brush Off Idea Of American As Iran Oil Boss

Harriman Attends London Conferences

LONDON, Aug. 27 (AP) — British officials today coldly brushed off an idea to settle the Iranian oil dispute by appointing an American to manage the great Abadan refinery.

The suggestion, contained in British news dispatches from Washington, received some prominence here as Presidential Envoy W. Averell Harriman plunged into a round of talks with British leaders on the prospects of a British-Iranian settlement.

There was no evidence to suggest, however, that the idea of having an American take charge at Abadan came up during Harriman's conversations with Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet colleagues.

British officials said they have had no official word from Washington that the United States is thinking of offering such a suggestion as a way out of the deadlock the British and Iranians have developed.

One government official said:

"Clearly it's an American kite. But it's a kite which won't fly."

Britain's official policy right now is to keep her foot in the Iranian door.

About 350 picked oilmen are staying on in Abadan—an island off the Iranian mainland where the world's biggest refinery is located — and they will be ready to resume operations as soon as the Tehran government gives the word.

With a big stick behind their back in the form of nearby naval and air forces, the British clearly feel they can out-wait the Iranians.

The immediate cause of the breakdown in the Tehran talks last week was the failure of the British and Iranians to agree on who should manage the Abadan refinery operations.

Rita To File Suit

Heavy Fighting Erupts In Korea

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Tuesday, Aug. 28 (AP) — Heavy fighting erupted Monday on the East-Central Korean warfront. It coincided with a new crisis in the suspended truce talks.

Reds in battalion strength shoved Allied forces back nearly two miles northwest of Yanggu, at the eastern end of strategic Hwachon reservoir. Yanggu is seven miles north of parallel 38.

The battle raged throughout the day. By nightfall, United Nations troops counterattacked to restore their positions.

Northwest of that area, sharp patrol clashes were reported in the Pyonggang region of the erstwhile "iron triangle" of Central Korea. An Allied patrol took a hill in the see-saw fighting and then was forced to pull out by dark.

Stubborn Red resistance was reported south and southeast of Kumsong, in the same general area. The Reds made limited assaults with mortar support. They were driven back.

Eighth Army headquarters reported the Communists attacked in regimental strength on the eastern front, but were hurled back by Allied artillery and fighter bombers. This was in the area west of Kansong.

Offshore, Allied warships blasted Red positions on the hills northwest of Kansong. Other U. N. naval vessels shelled highways along the Northeast Korean coast.

"Human Chain" Pulls Two Men From Flooded Cavern

ABERCRAVE, Wales, Aug. 27 (AP) —A chain of 85 men pulled two explorers to safety tonight from a flooded underground Welsh cave where they had been trapped for three days. The explorers were unhurt.

The two men had been prisoners since Saturday morning deep inside the cavern of Ogof Ffyddu, under the Welsh Mountains near here. A sudden rainstorm sent tons of water down the underground Byfyre River and blocked all exits from the cave, situated in Glamorganshire about 25 miles northeast of Swansea.

A team of deep-sea divers plunged through the stream to reach the explorers. They were spurred on by faint sounds echoing through the cave which indicated the explorers were still alive.

When the explorers—Lewis Railton, 40, and William Little, 30—had been located, the human chain was formed through the swift underground waters. The rescuers grasped the pair and yanked them to safety. They came out dirty and hungry.

Railton and iLttle are speleologists, or cave researchers.

Mrs. Railton had waited outside the cave during the whole rescue operation. Her husband came out first. Several minutes later the rescue crew brought out Little.

The men had found safety in a high chamber deep inside the cavern.

Giant Strides In Producing New Weapons Reported

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — American science, Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said today, is opening "a new doorway of scientific warfare" to reach weapons far more terrible than those employed in World War II.

He reported the United States has made giant strides in the development of guided missiles, pilotless pines and atomic weapons, declaring, they "are already here."

"Scientific and technological advances, particularly in the field of electronics, are opening a new door of scientific warfare not even imagined in World War II," O'Mahoney said.

He spoke to reporters after a closed door meeting of a Senate Appropriations subcommittee which is studying the Armed Services' $56,000,000,000 money bill. O'Mahoney heads the subcommittee. Details of the new weapons, he said, must remain secret for security reasons.

As O'Mahoney made his report, Sen. McCarran (D-Nev) said he considers war with Russia inevitable.

He made the prediction in commenting on the Senate Judiciary Committee's decision to seek an additional $195,000 to continue its investigation of the nation's internal security through December, 1952.

Miss Shoemaker To Resign From Secretary Post

To Be Succeeded By John R. Wilson

Miss Inez Shoemaker, secretary in the office of the commissioner of Streets and Public Property, offered her resignation yesterday effective September 15.

Miss Shoemaker, 816 Hilltop Drive, will be married in the near future, her letter of resignation to the Mayor and Council said.

Mrs. Lucile W. Roeder, commissioner of streets and public property, said "the resignation is accepted with regret," and the council approved her motion to send Miss Shoemaker a letter expressing appreciation for her years of service.

Miss Shoemaker has held the secretarial post or similar position in the department for 19 years. She was employed in April, 1932.

At the same time, the council approved an order abolishing the position of secretary to the department and city engineer and that of warehouse clerk.

John R. Wilson, who has been warehouse clerk, will be transferred to the department office in City Hall as clerk effective September 1, and will assume most of the duties formerly performed by Miss Shoemaker. His salary will be $228 a month, including all salaries and bonuses previously awarded.

The date of Miss Shoemaker's resignation was based on the fact she has two weeks' vacation due her.

In other action today the council confirmed James F. Twigg, who has completed his probationary period, as billing clerk and secretary in the Water Department office at a salary of $219.50 a month effective September 1.

A proclamation naming the first week of September as "Chemistry Week" was adopted in commemoration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the American Chemical Society.

Water consumption for the week ending Sunday averaged 13,565,000 gallons daily as compared to 12,487,000 a year ago. The water level at Lake Gordon is ten inches below the crest of the spillway and at Lake Koon four feet below.

Aunts Ask That Missing Soldier Be Declared Dead

An unusual equity suit has been docketed in Allegany County Circuit Court in which two aunts of a World War II soldier are seeking to have him declared officially dead as no word has been received from him since October 31, 1943, while he was serving with the U. S. Army in Italy.

The suit was filed by D. Lindley Sloan, attorney for Caroline Dye and Myrtle May Buchholtz, of Lonaconing, aunts of William Frederick Jones, who enlisted in the Army at the beginning of World War II and was a private in Company H, 141st Infantry.

Associate Judge George Henderson signed an order of publication giving notice to Jones, or whom it may concern, to appear in Circuit Court in person or by solicitor on or before October 15 to show cause why a decree should not be passed as requested by the two complainants.

The order of publication states that Jones was stationed a few miles north of Naples, Italy, on October 31, 1943 and that on that day along with some other soldiers, he was granted a few hours leave. He and the others went to Naples by truck, but when the trucks assembled to take the soldiers back to camp Jones was not there and up to this time his whereabouts have been unknown.

It was further stated that none of his friends, fellow soldiers or family have heard anything from or about him.

The plaintiffs declared they have made diligent inquiry about him and searched for information about him among his fellow soldiers. They have also written him many times at the address given them at the time of his induction into the Army, and at which they were accustomed to finding him.

The aunts say that after his enlistment he took out National Service Life Insurance with his aunt, Myrtle May Buckholtz as beneficiary, and later another policy for $5,000 with his aunt, Caroline Dye, as beneficiary.

The two beneficiaries have been advised by the Adjutant General's Office of the U. S. Army that their claims for insurance could not be considered until at least seven years after Jones had been missing, or had disappeared, and until proceedings had been carried to a civil court and he was officially declared dead by court order.

The suit was filed by D. Lindley Sloan, attorney for Caroline Dye and Myrtle May Buchholtz, of Lonaconing, aunts of William Frederick Jones, who enlisted in the Army at the beginning of World War II and was a private in Company H, 141st Infantry.

Associate Judge George Henderson signed an order of publication giving notice to Jones, or whom it may concern, to appear in Circuit Court in person or by solicitor on or before October 15 to show cause why a decree should not be passed as requested by the two complainants.

The order of publication states that Jones was stationed a few miles north of Naples, Italy, on October 31, 1943 and that on that day along with some other soldiers, he was granted a few hours leave. He and the others went to Naples by truck, but when the trucks assembled to take the soldiers back to camp Jones was not there and up to this time his whereabouts have been unknown.

It was further stated that none of his friends, fellow soldiers or family have heard anything from or about him.

The plaintiffs declared they have made diligent inquiry about him and searched for information about him among his fellow soldiers. They have also written him many times at the address given them at the time of his induction into the Army, and at which they were accustomed to finding him.

The aunts say that after his enlistment he took out National Service Life Insurance with his aunt, Myrtle May Buckholtz as beneficiary, and later another policy for $5,000 with his aunt, Caroline Dye, as beneficiary.

The two beneficiaries have been advised by the Adjutant General's Office of the U. S. Army that their claims for insurance could not be considered until at least seven years after Jones had been missing, or had disappeared, and until proceedings had been carried to a civil court and he was officially declared dead by court order.

West Side Group Renews Complaint Over Fly Ash

Urges City Council To Seek Report

The West Side Civic Improvement Association, noting that the fly ash condition on the West Side is "no better", urged the Mayor and Council yesterday to get from the Potomac Edison Company as speedily as possible a report on the operation of its River Plant.

Attorney James Alfred Avirett, representing the group, said a request for the report was made six weeks ago to George M. Hitchcock, smoke abatement engineer.

Details were to be furnished by the company, he said, and Hitchcock was to report.

Mayor Thomas S. Post told Avirett the city is "working on it", and that the report could be expected in "the near future."

Avirett said the "condition on the West Side is no better. Porches and grass are covered with fly ash. On Braddock Road, residents had to close their windows at 1 o'clock in the morning", he said, adding that "tons of dirt" are dropped daily on the area.

The West Side group is one of the leaders in the drive for stricter enforcement of the smoke abatement ordinance.

In detail, Avirett said the association is interested in the following about operation of the River Plant: (1) Average amount of coal burned in each 24 hours; (2) the dry ash content of the coal which is being burned; and (3) the amount of dry fly ash which is captured and hauled away during the 24-hour period.

The council referred to the fire chief, police chief and city engineer for investigation and report an application by the Garland-Norton Petroleum Company to install an underground gasoline storage tank at 208 Cole Street.

Because of the Labor Day holiday, next week's council meeting will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m.

The council approved an order to close offices at 5 p. m. Friday until 9 a. m. Tuesday.

Fall Results In $25,000 Suit

Suit for $25,000 was docketed in Circuit Court yesterday by William E. Coleman against Raymond Parker, Margaret Catherine Radcliffe, Joseph H. Conway, John L. Conway and Ruth Ellen Moore for injuries allegedly received in a fall on a pair of steps leading to the basement of premises at 217 Virginia Avenue.

The declaration, filed by William R. Carscaden attorney for Coleman, states that Parker leased the premises from the other defendants listed in the suit and that Coleman was an employe of Parker at the time of the mishap.

Coleman charges that the steps were unsafe and in a dangerous condition and that his foot caught in a loose metal strip causing him to fall violently down the steps. He states he suffered a fractured skull and injuries about the body.

Coleman also claims he is disabled for life, has suffered much pain and had to undergo hospital and medical expenses due to his injuries.

Police, Firemen Get Only $12 Pay Boost

Police and firemen are not included in the recent $12 a month cost-of-living bonus granted salaried city employes.

The Mayor and Council today rescinded a previous order on the pay boost and approved another to clarify the situation.

Police and firemen received a $12 boost at the 1951 session of the General Assembly. The new order also exempts those whose salaries are fixed by contract, temporary, part-time and seasonal or probationary employes.

The bonus amounts to seven cents an hour for all hourly-paid employes.

The council also approved an order increasing the salary of Mrs. Marguerite T. Findlay, park commissioner, to $135 a month, which represents the cost-of-living bonus.

Purge Of A Memory

After the last of the old bolsheviks still alive had been purged in Stalin's Russia some wag remarked: "If Lenin were alive today, he would be dead." Lenin died on January 22, 1924, but he is still too much alive to suit Stalin. So now, it appears, a way has been found to make him deader.

A casual announcement by the Moscow radio, as heard in London, stated that January 22 will no longer be celebrated as a holiday in the Soviet Union. It has been cancelled, according to the Red radio, because of public demand. To loaf and enjoy oneself, Soviet workers have suddenly realized in large numbers, is not the appropriate way to honor the anniversary of the father of the workers' fatherland.

The Moscow radio did not say (though some may infer it) that visits to Lenin's tomb facing Red Square in Moscow will hardly be encouraged from now on, that the repeated embalmings used to keep Lenin's body presentable to the throngs that viewed it through its glass case will be discontinued, or that the term "Marxism-Leninism," now used to describe all Soviet policies, will at the appropriate time be replaced by "Marxism-Stalinism."

But it is safe to deduce that the memory of Lenin is to be permitted to fade, that Communists sensitive to the chill winds that blow under the high ceilings of the Kremlin and down the cell blocks reserved for political offenders will begin to avoid the name of Lenin, and that presently in Russia there is to be no god but Stalin.

The process of Stalin's deification, as many writers have pointed out, has gone to unbelievable lengths in Russia. Small school children memorize verses thanking him as the author of all their blessings. Grownup writers and scientists and artists testify publicly that their work could not have been completed without the ever-present inspiration of Stalin. His gargantuan pictures stare down every street and peer around every corner. Lenin is only a recumbent figure in a tomb.

But that is not good enough. Lenin was not purged. He was never forced to confess that he conspired with Stalin only knows what foul foreign factions to destroy the sacred achievements of Stalin the big father. It would be too risky at the moment to try to blacken his name to rewrite history once more to deny his role as revolutionary leader.

But it is at least possible to secularize a holiday. On each future January 22, those Russians who loafed to honor Lenin will now sweat to anoint Stalin.

Battling Cattle Disease

Hopes that the U. S. import ban on Mexican beef might soon be lifted were dashed by a new outbreak of hoof-and-mouth disease along the gulf coast in Mexico. More than 1,500 diseased steers have been shot and more than 300 workers have been rushed to the area to enforce a quarantine on the infected area.

The new flareup came when U. S. and Mexican officials were confident the dread disease had been stamped out. The disease, first discovered in 1946, has been fought by American and Mexican experts, with this country supplying the funds.

Progress in combatting the disease was slow and laborious because of the opposition of the Mexican cattle owners who objected to the killing of infected animals and frequently clashed with authorities. A strict quarantine has been in effect to prevent importation of Mexican cattle into the U.S. Prompt action by U. S. authorities prevented the epidemic from spreading to large U. S. cattle ranches in the Southwest.

The new outbreak is attributed to lack of cooperation of some Mexican ranchers, and it is feared final success in the drive against the epidemic has been set back for months or years.

Tightening The Guard

The State Department has now begun a belated campaign to protect United States embassies throughout the world from Communist espionage.

Security measures taken, or about to be taken, include the use of additional Marine guards, the assignment to diplomatic posts of full-time, professional security officers, replacement of alien employes abroad by American citizens, and a thorough screening and constant surveillance of persons employed by embassies as servants and chauffeurs.

These precautions are of such an elementary character a special recommendation for their adoption would seem to have been unnecessary. Yet they are the by-product of a report which a Senate subcommittee made after a tour last year of U. S. embassies in Europe.

Apparently, if these Senators had not gone to Europe, looked the situation over at American embassies and recommended such elementary security measures, the State Department would have taken no action along this line. There's something rotten, and not in Denmark.

13 Inches Off The Floor

A great sigh of relief will go up—from both sexes—in response to the news from Paris that Dior was misrepresented, or misunderstood, or perhaps just mistaken.

Word got abroad that the noted couturier had dictated that skirts would be longer this fall. The heart of many a woman fell even further than the anticipated drop of the hemline. It is a simple matter to shorten a dress when fashion takes an upward trend, but lengthening it is a different matter.

Naturally, the news was of concern to men, too. Not alone because of the prospective change in the scenery. When skirts go down like that, family expenses rise.

Now Dior asserts he never said any such thing. All the daytime and afternoon dresses in his collection are still 13 inches off the floor.

All that worry for nothing. Or was it? If Dior doesn't think of something to turn the little wife's thoughts to a new outfit, who's to guarantee that Manguin, or Dache or some other designing designer won't?

What Draws Mosquitoes?

No one likes mosquitoes and we are grateful to scientists for trying to help us out on this problem. One entomologist permitted himself to be bitten by more than 1,000 mosquitoes to find out what organ the insect used to detect his prey.

Apparently the weapon depends upon the type of mosquito. In the kind that carries yellow fever, for example, if both the antennae and the palpi (the small feelers on either side of the mosquito's probe) are removed, the mosquito seldom bites. The Anopheles, or malaria laden variety, is different. She does things backward—the hind legs serve as the sense organs that direct the insect to her meal ticket.

A Canadian zoologist from the University of Western Ontario had a summer of fun in a Canadian forest with two robot dummies. They were dressed to resemble men and placed 6 feet apart. In the first portion of the experiment they were draped with various types of clothing to find out which colors and fabrics were the least and the most attractive. Only one-tenth to one-fourth as many mosquitoes alighted on the dummy dressed in white as on the one dressed in black. The insects also liked dark red. Trousers made of drill enticed mosquitoes like flies to honey. Next in order were cotton shirts, nylon, crepe, and broadcloth. Satin was the least seductive, particularly the luminescent kind.

The insects preferred the dummy that was moistened with human perspiration; it had twice as much drawing power as the one with clothing that was dry or dampened with water. Garments soaked with water saturated with carbon dioxide had no more effect than the use of plain water. On the other hand, when carbon dioxide was passed thru the dummy's head at a rate and concentration similar to normal expirations, a 50 per cent increase in mosquito pull was recorded. This is interesting because in 1947 we reported on research work done by a few scientists in Jerusalem. They had studied the mosquito problem thoroly and decided that we exhale certain substances which charm the insects. Could it be that carbon dioxide is the material that helps direct mosquitoes to their bait? It must be something because whenever I sit in a boat at dusk in the middle of a lake the skeeters make a beeline for my blood.

Experiments such as those described are done in an attempt to make the world a more comfortable place in which to live. We owe a debt of gratitude to the discoverers of DDT and to those who perfected repellents. Northerners find out of door life more pleasant thru the use of these preparations. This applies also to southerners and inhabitants of the tropics but in addition, life is safer in hot climates. In a certain section of Mexico, for example, where the houses have been sprayed with DDT the incidence of malaria has been reduced 75 to 90 per cent. In other parts of the world this method might not be adequate unless combined with the old plans of draining swamps, spraying water surfaces with oil, and the extensive use of screens and mosquito netting.

VITAMIN B HELPS

G. A. writes: Is there a cure for alcoholic paralysis?

REPLY

Large doses of vitamin B may be beneficial but the outcome depends upon the extent of the nerve damage. If the nerve cells are destroyed completely the condition is beyond help, except that further progress of the paralysis may be stopped if the patient eats good food, takes ample vitamins, and becomes a teetotaler.

DISEASE FROM TICKS

F. W. writes: What is meant by tick fever?

REPLY

Tick fever embraces several diseases, including Rocky mountain spotted fever, tularemia, and relapsing fever. These maladies are acquired through the bite of an infected tick and symptoms may be mistaken for influenza. In Rocky mountain spotted fever the temperature is elevated and the victim encounters chills, headache, a measles-like eruption, and pain in the bones and muscles. There are various forms of tularemia but in the most common variety a sore appears on a finger or hand, followed by swelling of the glands in the armpit as well as chills and fever. Relapsing fever is rare in this country. It also is accompanied by rash and flu-like symptoms. The condition is so-named because of the tendency of the fever to come and go.

Washington Contradictions Make Heads Spin; Important Issues Tell The Story; Beware Of Ready-Made Labels For Political Parties

(Ed Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being by Honorable Alexander Wiley, senior senator from Wisconsin.)

WASHINGTON — Sometimes the actual Washington Merry-Go-Round whirls so fast and reverses directions so often that observers get pretty dizzy and confused just trying to follow it. In fact, the contradictions of certain high-up folks in Washington can really make even an expert's head spin. These contradictions remind you of a lot of Alices in a fantastic blunderland.

Do you think, for example, that the present Democratic Administration is "liberal" and that its Republican opposition is "reactionary"? If so, consider these items which tell a revealing story:

Gas Gouge. You, the consumer, are soon going to have to pay still more for natural gas fuel. How come? Well, you can thank the great "liberal" Democratic party for those high rates. A Democratic president Harry Truman, had soundly vetoed a bill (backed by leading Democrats) which would have indirectly resulted in increasing natural gas rates. Many Republicans like myself supported and applauded the Democratic Presidents' veto.

Later, however, as reported by Drew Pearson and others, the Federal Power Commission (appointed by the same President) completely reversed the President's action and a Democratic-appointed Supreme Court, by exempting independent gas producers from federal rate control. But do you suppose that the President criticized the Federal Power Commission for its dangerous action? No, definitely not. The President said the FPC decision had "no connection" with his previous veto even though it completely reversed the veto).

So here we have a good Democrat, Harry Truman, patting on the back by implication other good Democrats who have completely stabbed one of his own policies in the back. Does that make sense? Of course not! Moreover, the Republicans whom the President has repeatedly attacked as allegedly not being interested in you, the consumer, have been the principal ones who have fought to protect the consumer from these gas rate increases . . . .

Seaway Sabotage. Take another instance. In his recent speech in Detroit, President Truman rightly praised the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway as the most important single project facing this country. Yet, this very same project which would incidentally be self-paying and which has been endorsed by Herbert Hoover, Franklin Roosevelt, George Marshall, etc., has been blocked by some of the President's best friends in the Democratic-Controlled Senate and House of Representatives. On the other hand, many of the leading advocates of the seaway are Republicans. So, here again we have Republicans supporting the President, while Democrats (with some notable and praiseworthy exceptions) are trying to sabotage the President and are working hand-in-glove with selfish, backward-looking railroad, and port, lobbies . . . .

Southwest Steal. The President says he opposes favors for special privilege groups. Yet, some of his leading supporters in the Senate have succeeded once again in passing (over Republicans and some Democratic votes) a fantastic bill, the Central Arizona project, which would pour three-quarters of a billion dollars down the rathole for the benefit of a few Arizona landowners . . . . Some monkey-business . . .!

Tidal Till. In another interesting issue, the President rightly says he will veto any bill which quitclaims federal titled to the oil-rich marginal sea. Many Republicans like myself will support the President in such a veto. Why? because we think (although a good many Republicans disagree) that all Americans are entitled to ownership of the tideland treasures. But who do you suppose is spearheading the effort to destroy federal title? Why, principally, the very same Democratic leadership in the Senate and House which is usually, amazingly enough, trying not to decrease but to increase and expand federal power! Is that contradictory? It certainly is . . . . But, as the old saying goes, "It all depends on whose ox is gored . . . ."

Conclusions. What do these examples prove? Just this:

1. Beware of ready-made labels for any political party. Neither party, be it Republican or Democratic, has a monopoly on virtue. But, certainly, the Republican party (and not just its so-called "liberal wing") has a lot more virtue than its critics have attributed to it.

2. The term "liberal" itself is often a misnomer. It's easy for many Democrats to be "liberal" in spending other people's money and taking other people's rights away. I am against such "liberalism," just as I would be against a "conservatism" or "reactionism" which would try to turn the hands of the clock backward or which would attempt to deny certain progressive steps which the American people insist on in this modern age.

O. K., Drew, thanks for the ride on the Merry-Go-Round. You might call it "the carousel of contradictions."

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

The Japanese Treaty

It would be most unfortunate if, at this time, anything were to happen to lessen public support for the Japanese peace treaty. If American policy in Asia is to be effective, this treaty, together with the various treaties by which the Pacific union is being formed, will not only be a symbol of strength but an indication that the policy of appeasement, continuous since 1943, has really come to an end.

There is a growing sentiment that General Douglas MacArthur, whose labors made such a treaty possible, should attend this conference and speak ot it. This could have been accomplished in one of two ways:

1. To make him a member of the American delegation;

2. To have the conference invite him to speak to it.

The first door has been closed. The President has not invited him to be a member of the American delegation, although he spent several years working on the basis for this treaty.

As for the second method, the Russians surely, and the British probably, will reject him. At any rate, it would surprise everyone, including General MacArthur, if such an invitation were issued.

The State Department went about it in the wrong way. They sounded out the General and and let it leak to the press that they were sounding him out. To do what? To make a speech?

But why make a speech? For whom would he speak? For his country? For his government? For himself?

In a word, they would like to have the advantage of General MacArthur's support of the treaty without giving him credit for his labors or recognizing him in any official capacity.

This kind of indirect dealing he correctly rejected as not fitting and that ended that.

Also, the absence of China, which had fought Japan since 1931, is an error. So far as the United States and the United Nations are concerned, there is only one legally recognized China, namely, Nationalist China situated on Formosa. Failure of this China to be present raises issues that will long plague us. It creates a quarrelsome public opinion in this country.

Yet, it is of the utmost importance, from a strictly American standpoint, that public opinion in the United States should support and uphold the State Department of this treaty. Without it, forces may be let loose in Japan that may imperil our position in the east of Asia even more than it is today, because Japanese public opinion has been keyed to great expectations. Another letdown, after the MacArthur dismissal, might be very damaging. The absence of both MacArthur and China gives the impression that the State Department is still under the British thumb.

The treaty itself could perhaps be improved here and there, but so could many other documents. I think it is just about as good as we can at this moment arrange, and further delay would not be advantageous.

For what is at stake is not only Japan, but the bastion, Japan-Okinawa - Philippines - Formosa-Australia-New Zealand. That line must be held if we are to be in a defensible position. That is one fact that came out of the long 2,000,000-word palaver in the Russell Committee hearings into the dismissal of General MacArthur.

No matter how objectionable it may be to many persons in many countries, the fact remains that because of geography, propinquity and history, Japan must be the pivot of the Pacific union and Japan must be armed.

The fear of an armed Japan is real; so is the fear of an armed Germany. But Russia has made it inevitable that both should be armed and that the United States should make herself responsible for arming her former enemies. Great Britain is equally responsible in Asia because of the ill-conceived British policy of a deal with the Chinese Communists.

Russia might have averted all this had the Kremlin not decided upon empire-building at Yalta. But Stalin's lust for world dominance is unslackable and the United States cannot wait until it stands alone, an island in a Soviet world.

The policy of appeasement (1943-51) was based on the assumption that, in time, the Russians would be smart enough to realize that another general war could undo all their gains achieved since 1938. But that assumption has proved to be an error and a new, positive policy had to be designed and accepted. The Japanese treaty is a central factor in that policy.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — At a time of great delicacy — when the "cease fire" talks are, it is hoped, only temporarily suspended — the United States Bomber Command in Korea has finally been given permission to bomb Rashin which is just 17 miles from the Soviet border.

This is a turn of events so significant that it raises the question as to why General MacArthur was denied this authority originally and why, indeed, fear of Russia's entry into the war, if maximum force were used in Korea, has suddenly disappeared as a reason for bombing the northern bases.

Many people have been under the impression that the row over dismissing General MacArthur had to do only with bombing bases in Manchuria. Rashin is inside Korea.

Many people have assumed also that the military men were running our field operations and not Secretary Acheson of the Department of State. Here is Mr. Acheson's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on June 9 last:

"The question of bombing Racin (Rashin) came up, I believe, in the summer of 1950, or August, 1950, and, as you have already been told in this hearing there was one raid which was carried on against it and another was going to be carried on but was called off on account of the weather.

Matter Not Pressed

"The State Department objected strongly to carrying on raids against a place which was 17 miles from the Soviet border and which raised very great dangers of involving Soviet forces. This thing came up in September, at which we presented our view, and the matter of bombing was not pressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff. It was discussed later some time in 1951, I believe, and it was unanimously concluded not to do it. . . .

"The view that this is an important supply point, I think, is not borne out by the facts. . . . It was thought that it was more important to interrupt the rail lines in the southernly part which were not near the Soviet border and which would not run the risk of involving the Soviet forces. That has been done since and that rail line is interrupted."

Dispatches in the last 48 hours telling of the bombing of Rashin say that it is an important supply point and a submarine base and that the purpose in bombing it now is to destroy the Chinese build-up of supplies which has been going on throughout the "cease fire" talks.

On June 25 last — just a couple days after Malik made his proposal for a "cease fire" — General Emmett O'Donnell, Jr., commander of the U. S. Far East Air Force Bomber Command from July 8, 1950, to January 10, 1951, was reviewing the incident of Aug. 12, 1950, in his testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee as follows:

"So I scheduled a mission on Racin (Rashin) which was the northernmost town of Korea. . . . The marshalling yard at Racin was the focal point through which most of the supplies coming from Russia had to go down through the East coast to the support of the North Korean troops. . . . The squadrons got up there. . . . They bombed through the overcast and I heard later on that people back home were concerned about our hitting Siberia, but Siberia is 17 miles from Racin, and we don't make that kind of errors.

"And there was no question in my mind that we should have stayed on; as far as the accuracy, or capability of hitting the town—there was no question in the world about hitting it, and we didn't bomb the town either.

"Chairman Russell: I believe another attack on Racin was called off, and a secondary target chosen, was it not?

Needed Authorization

"General O'Donnell: It was planned but we were told that we would not be allowed to bomb Racin without specific authorization. . . . And I presume that authorization had to come from Washington. . . . "

General O'Donnell added that he had adequate forces to carry out the mission.

Senator Wiley then asked if the railroad in Manchuria and the bases had been knocked out whether the Chinese themselves "would have been so incapacitated by lack of war materiel they would have been easier to defeat and more American lives would have been saved, the Air Force General answered: "Yes, sir; I do."

Senator Cain drew the same admission from General O'Donnell confining the question solely to the bombing of Rashin. But the most important comment in the record is from General MacArthur himself in his testimony in which he said:

"I was very anxious to destroy that (Racin). Its usefulness to the enemy was self-evident. Great accumulations, depot accumulations, were made there. It was a great distributing center. They could run — the Soviets could run stuff from Vladivostok right down there. We asked to bomb that (Racin) and we were forbidden."

Why, since Racin was so important in the autumn of 1950, was General MacArthur as a military man told by the Secretary of State, a non-military man, how he should fight the war in Korea? The responsibility for the 80,000 casualties is involved in the answer especially as it turns out now after 12 months delay that the United States Air Force could have been ordered to bomb Racin without involving the risk of war against Russia any more then than in August, 1951.

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH And STEWART ALSOP

Kaesong And San Francisco

WASHINGTON

The right way to understand the troubles that have overtaken the Korean truce talks is to remember that the San Francisco conference on the Japanese peace treaty begins September 4.

Whether or no the Kremlin means to have a Korean ceasefire later on, can be interminably argued—in fact is being interminably argued at the moment by the highest American policy makers. On one point, however, there is no argument whatever. The Kremlin undoubtedly intends to keep the Korean truce talks on ice until the San Francisco meeting opens.

Thus the hope of a Korean ceasefire can be held out as bait to prevent a Japanese peace treaty from being signed. What is more important, the threat of a renewed and widened Korean War can also be used for the same purpose. The recent events at Kaesong, with their horrible touch of tragi-comedy—the transparently faked Napalm bomb, the American investigators red-faced with indignation, the volubly untruthful Communists — are only part of a much larger pattern. The parts in the pattern deserve to be listed.

ITEM: The Soviet press has officially classified the Japanese peace treaty so brilliantly negotiated by John Foster Dulles as "intolerable." This is the magic word reserved for West German rearmament, which unceasing Soviet propaganda has painted as an act of war in the Kremlin's eyes.

Planting Rumors

ITEM: In the short time since the Kremlin astonished the State Department by accepting the invitation to San Francisco, the diplomatic cables have brought in a fine harvest of carefully planted rumors. The usual system for creating an atmosphere is being employed. Satellite diplomats, European businessmen who have dealings with the Soviets, and others of the same kidney, are all peddling the same story, which they always have on the "highest authority." The story is that the Soviets will go to war if the Japanese treaty is signed.

ITEM: A mixture of facts and nonsense about Soviet military preparations is being permitted to leak through the iron curtain. On the one hand, reports appear that the Soviets have brought their divisions in West Germany and Poland from 60 per cent of war strength almost up to war strength. This is true. On the other hand, reports also appear of a great air reinforcement in Eastern Germany.

The process of substituting modern jet aircraft for obsolete types is undoubtedly continuing. Certain of the jet designs now identified, such as a twin engine fighter bomber capable of hitting British targets from German bases, are undoubtedly menacing. But there is nothing novel, as pretended, in this modernization of the Soviet air force in Europe. In short the greatest immediate significance of these reports is their timing.

Put the parts of the pattern together. Remember that the masters of the Kremlin have been forced, against their will, to send Andrei Gromyko and his large delegation to the San Francisco meeting. Remember also that if the Kremlin had not accepted the invitation to San Francisco (thus astonishing the State Department), the conferees would only be gathering there to ratify a treaty draft already approved by all of them. The meaning of the pattern becomes very clear.

Soviet Blackmail

In brief, San Francisco is to be one of the climaxes of the war of nerves. The impression is to be conveyed that those nations signing the Japanese peace treaty are inviting a world war. Since there is no veto in the conference machinery, the naked threat of Soviet military power is to be used as a substitute. Most probably, this will be done indirectly, without resort to any ultimatum.

Yet even the implied intention to renew Korean fighting in deadly earnest if the Japanese peace treaty is signed, is in itself a most powerful weapon of Soviet blackmail. The British and French live in fear that the Korean War will be transformed into a general war in precisely this manner. They agreed to the Dulles draft of the Japanese treaty with marked absence of enthusiasm. What could be more tempting than to exchange abstention from the Japanese treaty for a promise of real peace in Korea?

If either of our major allies succumbs to this temptation, the Western alliance will be broken—for anyone can foresee the effects in Congress of this sort of public desertion of the United States. Fortunately, although certain of the lesser and Asiatic powers may yield to the Soviet threats, the Kremlin is unlikely to attain its grand objective on this occasion. The British and French, after all, do not enjoy blackmail any more than we do. They have committed themselves to the Japanese treaty. And they also understand that the future of the Western alliance is at stake.

Yet even if all goes well at San Francisco, this pattern that is emerging is an instructive foretaste of the even more elaborate and determined Soviet attacks on Western unity that will come later on.

Purge Of A Memory

After the last of the old bolsheviks still alive had been purged in Stalin's Russia some wag remarked: "If Lenin were alive today, he would be dead." Lenin died on January 22, 1924, but he is still too much alive to suit Stalin. So now, it appears, a way has been found to make him deader.

A casual announcement by the Moscow radio, as heard in London, stated that January 22 will no longer be celebrated as a holiday in the Soviet Union. It has been cancelled, according to the Red radio, because of public demand. To loaf and enjoy oneself, Soviet workers have suddenly realized in large numbers, is not the appropriate way to honor the anniversary of the father of the workers' fatherland.

The Moscow radio did not say (though some may infer it) that visits to Lenin's tomb facing Red Square in Moscow will hardly be encouraged from now on, that the repeated embalmings used to keep Lenin's body presentable to the throngs that viewed it through its glass case will be discontinued, or that the term "Marxism-Leninism," now used to describe all Soviet policies, will at the appropriate time be replaced by "Marxism-Stalinism."

But it is safe to deduce that the memory of Lenin is to be permitted to fade, that Communists sensitive to the chill winds that blow under the high ceilings of the Kremlin and down the cell blocks reserved for political offenders will begin to avoid the name of Lenin, and that presently in Russia there is to be no god but Stalin.

The process of Stalin's deification, as many writers have pointed out, has gone to unbelievable lengths in Russia. Small school children memorize verses thanking him as the author of all their blessings. Grownup writers and scientists and artists testify publicly that their work could not have been completed without the ever-present inspiration of Stalin. His gargantuan pictures stare down every street and peer around every corner. Lenin is only a recumbent figure in a tomb.

But that is not good enough. Lenin was not purged. He was never forced to confess that he conspired with Stalin only knows what foul foreign factions to destroy the sacred achievements of Stalin the big father. It would be too risky at the moment to try to blacken his name to rewrite history once more to deny his role as revolutionary leader.

But it is at least possible to secularize a holiday. On each future January 22, those Russians who loafed to honor Lenin will now sweat to anoint Stalin.

Battling Cattle Disease

Hopes that the U. S. import ban on Mexican beef might soon be lifted were dashed by a new outbreak of hoof-and-mouth disease along the gulf coast in Mexico. More than 1,500 diseased steers have been shot and more than 300 workers have been rushed to the area to enforce a quarantine on the infected area.

The new flareup came when U. S. and Mexican officials were confident the dread disease had been stamped out. The disease, first discovered in 1946, has been fought by American and Mexican experts, with this country supplying the funds.

Progress in combatting the disease was slow and laborious because of the opposition of the Mexican cattle owners who objected to the killing of infected animals and frequently clashed with authorities. A strict quarantine has been in effect to prevent importation of Mexican cattle into the U.S. Prompt action by U. S. authorities prevented the epidemic from spreading to large U. S. cattle ranches in the Southwest.

The new outbreak is attributed to lack of cooperation of some Mexican ranchers, and it is feared final success in the drive against the epidemic has been set back for months or years.

The Anopheles, or malaria laden variety, is different. She does things backward—the hind legs serve as the sense organs that direct the insect to her meal ticket.

A Canadian zoologist from the University of Western Ontario had a summer of fun in a Canadian forest with two robot dummies. They were dressed to resemble men and placed 6 feet apart. In the first portion of the experiment they were draped with various types of clothing to find out which colors and fabrics were the least and the most attractive. Only one-tenth to one-fourth as many mosquitoes alighted on the dummy dressed in white as on the one dressed in black. The insects also liked dark red. Trousers made of drill enticed mosquitoes like flies to honey. Next in order were cotton shirts, nylon, crepe, and broadcloth. Satin was the least seductive, particularly the luminescent kind.

The insects preferred the dummy that was moistened with human perspiration; it had twice as much drawing power as the one with clothing that was dry or dampened with water. Garments soaked with water saturated with carbon dioxide had no more effect than the use of plain water. On the other hand, when carbon dioxide was passed thru the dummy's head at a rate and concentration similar to normal expirations, a 50 per cent increase in mosquito pull was recorded. This is interesting because in 1947 we reported on research work done by a few scientists in Jerusalem. They had studied the mosquito problem thoroly and decided that we exhale certain substances which charm the insects. Could it be that carbon dioxide is the material that helps direct mosquitoes to their bait? It must be something because whenever I sit in a boat at dusk in the middle of a lake the skeeters make a beeline for my blood.

Experiments such as those described are done in an attempt to make the world a more comfortable place in which to live. We owe a debt of gratitude to the discoverers of DDT and to those who perfected repellents. Northerners find out of door life more pleasant thru the use of these preparations. This applies also to southerners and inhabitants of the tropics but in addition, life is safer in hot climates. In a certain section of Mexico, for example, where the houses have been sprayed with DDT the incidence of malaria has been reduced 75 to 90 per cent. In other parts of the world this method might not be adequate unless combined with the old plans of draining swamps, spraying water surfaces with oil, and the extensive use of screens and mosquito netting.

VITAMIN B HELPS

G. A. writes: Is there a cure for alcoholic paralysis?

REPLY

Large doses of vitamin B may be beneficial but the outcome depends upon the extent of the nerve damage. If the nerve cells are destroyed completely the condition is beyond help, except that further progress of the paralysis may be stopped if the patient eats good food, takes ample vitamins, and becomes a teetotaler.

DISEASE FROM TICKS

F. W. writes: What is meant by tick fever?

REPLY

Tick fever embraces several diseases, including Rocky mountain spotted fever, tularemia, and relapsing fever. These maladies are acquired through the bite of an infected tick and symptoms may be mistaken for influenza. In Rocky mountain spotted fever the temperature is elevated and the victim encounters chills, headache, a measles-like eruption, and pain in the bones and muscles. There are various forms of tularemia but in the most common variety a sore appears on a finger or hand, followed by swelling of the glands in the armpit as well as chills and fever. Relapsing fever is rare in this country. It also is accompanied by rash and flu-like symptoms. The condition is so-named because of the tendency of the fever to come and go.

Washington Contradictions Make Heads Spin; Important Issues Tell The Story; Beware Of Ready-Made Labels For Political Parties

(Ed Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being by Honorable Alexander Wiley, senior senator from Wisconsin.)

WASHINGTON — Sometimes the actual Washington Merry-Go-Round whirls so fast and reverses directions so often that observers get pretty dizzy and confused just trying to follow it. In fact, the contradictions of certain high-up folks in Washington can really make even an expert's head spin. These contraditions remind you of a lot of Alices in a fantastic blunderland.

Do you think, for example, that the present Democratic Administration is "liberal" and that its Republican opposition is "reactionary"? If so, consider these items which tell a revealing story:

Gas Gouge. You, the consumer, are soon going to have to pay still more for natural gas fuel. How come? Well, you can thank the great "liberal" Democratic party for those high rates. A Democratic president Harry Truman, had soundly vetoed a bill (backed by leading Democrats) which would have indirectly resulted in increasing natural gas rates. Many Republicans like myself supported and applauded the Democratic Presidents' veto.

Later, however, as reported by Drew Pearson and others, the Federal Power Commission (appointed by the same President) completely reversed the President's action and a Democratic-appointed Supreme Court, by exempting independent gas producers from federal rate control. But do you suppose that the President criticized the Federal Power Commission for its dangerous action? No, definitely not. The President said the FPC decision had "no connection" with his previous veto even though it completely reversed the veto).

So here we have a good Democrat, Harry Truman, patting on the back by implication other good Democrats who have completely stabbed one of his own policies in the back. Does that make sense? Of course not! Moreover, the Republicans whom the President has repeatedly attacked as allegedly not being interested in you, the consumer, have been the principal ones who have fought to protect the consumer from these gas rate increases . . . .

Seaway Sabotage. Take another instance. In his recent speech in Detroit, President Truman rightly praised the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway as the most important single project facing this country. Yet, this very same project which would incidentally be self-paying and which has been endorsed by Herbert Hoover, Franklin Roosevelt, George Marshall, etc., has been blocked by some of the President's best friends in the Democratic-Controlled Senate and House of Representatives. On the other hand, many of the leading advocates of the seaway are Republicans. So, here again we have Republicans supporting the President, while Democrats (with some notable and praiseworthy exceptions) are trying to sabotage the President and are working hand-in-glove with selfish, backward-looking railroad, and port, lobbies . . . .

Southwest Steal. The President says he opposes favors for special privilege groups. Yet, some of his leading supporters in the Senate have succeeded once again in passing (over Republicans and some Democratic votes) a fantastic bill, the Central Arizona project, which would pour three-quarters of a billion dollars down the rathole for the benefit of a few Arizona landowners . . . . Some monkey-business . . .!

Tidal Till. In another interesting issue, the President rightly says he will veto any bill which quitclaims federal titled to the oil-rich marginal sea. Many Republicans like myself will support the President in such a veto. Why? because we think (although a good many Republicans disagree) that all Americans are entitled to ownership of the tideland treasures. But who do you suppose is spearheading the effort to destroy federal title? Why, principally, the very same Democratic leadership in the Senate and House which is usually, amazingly enough, trying not to decrease but to increase and expand federal power! Is that contradictory? It certainly is . . . . But, as the old saying goes, "It all depends on whose ox is gored . . . ."

Conclusions. What do these examples prove? Just this:

1. Beware of ready-made labels for any political party. Neither party, be it Republican or Democratic, has a monopoly on virtue. But, certainly, the Republican party (and not just its so-called "liberal wing") has a lot more virtue than its critics have attributed to it.

2. The term "liberal" itself is often a misnomer. It's easy for many Democrats to be "liberal" in spending other people's money and taking other people's rights away. I am against such "liberalism," just as I would be against a "conservatism" or "reactionism" which would try to turn the hands of the clock backward or which would attempt to deny certain progressive steps which the American people insist on in this modern age.

O. K., Drew, thanks for the ride on the Merry-Go-Round. You might call it "the carousel of contradictions."

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

The Japanese Treaty

It would be most unfortunate if, at this time, anything were to happen to lessen public support for the Japanese peace treaty. If American policy in Asia is to be effective, this treaty, together with the various treaties by which the Pacific union is being formed, will not only be a symbol of strength but an indication that the policy of appeasement, continuous since 1943, has really come to an end.

There is a growing sentiment that General Douglas MacArthur, whose labors made such a treaty possible, should attend this conference and speak ot it. This could have been accomplished in one of two ways:

1. To make him a member of the American delegation;

2. To have the conference invite him to speak to it.

The first door has been closed. The President has not invited him to be a member of the American delegation, although he spent several years working on the basis for this treaty.

As for the second method, the Russians surely, and the British probably, will reject him. At any rate, it would surprise everyone, including General MacArthur, if such an invitation were issued.

The State Department went about it in the wrong way. They sounded out the General and and let it leak to the press that they were sounding him out. To do what? To make a speech?

But why make a speech? For whom would he speak? For his country? For his government? For himself?

In a word, they would like to have the advantage of General MacArthur's support of the treaty without giving him credit for his labors or recognizing him in any official capacity.

This kind of indirect dealing he correctly rejected as not fitting and that ended that.

Also, the absence of China, which had fought Japan since 1931, is an error. So far as the United States and the United Nations are concerned, there is only one legally recognized China, namely, Nationalist China situated on Formosa. Failure of this China to be present raises issues that will long plague us. It creates a quarrelsome public opinion in this country.

Yet, it is of the utmost importance, from a strictly American standpoint, that public opinion in the United States should support and uphold the State Department of this treaty. Without it, forces may be let loose in Japan that may imperil our position in the east of Asia even more than it is today, because Japanese public opinion has been keyed to great expectations. Another letdown, after the MacArthur dismissal, might be very damaging. The absence of both MacArthur and China gives the impression that the State Department is still under the British thumb.

The treaty itself could perhaps be improved here and there, but so could many other documents. I think it is just about as good as we can at this moment arrange, and further delay would not be advantageous.

For what is at stake is not only Japan, but the bastion, Japan-Okinawa - Philippines - Formosa-Australia-New Zealand. That line must be held if we are to be in a defensible position. That is one fact that came out of the long 2,000,000-word palaver in the Russell Committee hearings into the dismissal of General MacArthur.

No matter how objectionable it may be to many persons in many countries, the fact remains that because of geography, propinquity and history, Japan must be the pivot of the Pacific union and Japan must be armed.

The fear of an armed Japan is real; so is the fear of an armed Germany. But Russia has made it inevitable that both should be armed and that the United States should make herself responsible for arming her former enemies. Great Britain is equally responsible in Asia because of the ill-conceived British policy of a deal with the Chinese Communists.

Russia might have averted all this had the Kremlin not decided upon empire-building at Yalta. But Stalin's lust for world dominance is unslackable and the United States cannot wait until it stands alone, an island in a Soviet world.

The policy of appeasement (1943-51) was based on the assumption that, in time, the Russians would be smart enough to realize that another general war could undo all their gains achieved since 1938. But that assumption has proved to be an error and a new, positive policy had to be designed and accepted. The Japanese treaty is a central factor in that policy.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — At a time of great delicacy — when the "cease fire" talks are, it is hoped, only temporarily suspended — the United States Bomber Command in Korea has finally been given permission to bomb Rashin which is just 17 miles from the Soviet border.

This is a turn of events so significant that it raises the question as to why General MacArthur was denied this authority originally and why, indeed, fear of Russia's entry into the war, if maximum force were used in Korea, has suddenly disappeared as a reason for bombing the northern bases.

Many people have been under the impression that the row over dismissing General MacArthur had to do only with bombing bases in Manchuria. Rashin is inside Korea.

Many people have assumed also that the military men were running our field operations and not Secretary Acheson of the Department of State. Here is Mr. Acheson's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on June 9 last:

"The question of bombing Racin (Rashin) came up, I believe, in the summer of 1950, or August, 1950, and, as you have already been told in this hearing there was one raid which was carried on against it and another was going to be carried on but was called off on account of the weather.

Matter Not Pressed

"The State Department objected strongly to carrying on raids against a place which was 17 miles from the Soviet border and which raised very great dangers of involving Soviet forces. This thing came up in September, at which we presented our view, and the matter of bombing was not pressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff. It was discussed later some time in 1951, I believe, and it was unanimously concluded not to do it. . . .

"The view that this is an important supply point, I think, is not borne out by the facts. . . . It was thought that it was more important to interrupt the rail lines in the southernly part which were not near the Soviet border and which would not run the risk of involving the Soviet forces. That has been done since and that rail line is interrupted."

Dispatches in the last 48 hours telling of the bombing of Rashin say that it is an important supply point and a submarine base and that the purpose in bombing it now is to destroy the Chinese build-up of supplies which has been going on throughout the "cease fire" talks.

On June 25 last — just a couple days after Malik made his proposal for a "cease fire" — General Emmett O'Donnell, Jr., commander of the U. S. Far East Air Force Bomber Command from July 8, 1950, to January 10, 1951, was reviewing the incident of Aug. 12, 1950, in his testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee as follows:

"So I scheduled a mission on Racin (Rashin) which was the northernmost town of Korea. . . . The marshalling yard at Racin was the focal point through which most of the supplies coming from Russia had to go down through the East coast to the support of the North Korean troops. . . . The squadrons got up there. . . . They bombed through the overcast and I heard later on that people back home were concerned about our hitting Siberia, but Siberia is 17 miles from Racin, and we don't make that kind of errors.

"And there was no question in my mind that we should have stayed on; as far as the accuracy, or capability of hitting the town—there was no question in the world about hitting it, and we didn't bomb the town either.

"Chairman Russell: I believe another attack on Racin was called off, and a secondary target chosen, was it not?

Needed Authorization

"General O'Donnell: It was planned but we were told that we would not be allowed to bomb Racin without specific authorization. . . . And I presume that authorization had to come from Washington. . . . "

General O'Donnell added that he had adequate forces to carry out the mission.

Senator Wiley then asked if the railroad in Manchuria and the bases had been knocked out whether the Chinese themselves "would have been so incapacitated by lack of war materiel they would have been easier to defeat and more American lives would have been saved, the Air Force General answered: "Yes, sir; I do."

Senator Cain drew the same admission from General O'Donnell confining the question solely to the bombing of Rashin. But the most important comment in the record is from General MacArthur himself in his testimony in which he said:

"I was very anxious to destroy that (Racin). Its usefulness to the enemy was self-evident. Great accumulations, depot accumulations, were made there. It was a great distributing center. They could run — the Soviets could run stuff from Vladivostok right down there. We asked to bomb that (Racin) and we were forbidden."

Why, since Racin was so important in the autumn of 1950, was General MacArthur as a military man told by the Secretary of State, a non-military man, how he should fight the war in Korea? The responsibility for the 80,000 casualties is involved in the answer especially as it turns out now after 12 months delay that the United States Air Force could have been ordered to bomb Racin without involving the risk of war against Russia any more then than in August, 1951.

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH And STEWART ALSOP

Kaesong And San Francisco

WASHINGTON

The right way to understand the troubles that have overtaken the Korean truce talks is to remember that the San Francisco conference on the Japanese peace treaty begins September 4.

Whether or no the Kremlin means to have a Korean ceasefire later on, can be interminably argued—in fact is being interminably argued at the moment by the highest American policy makers. On one point, however, there is no argument whatever. The Kremlin undoubtedly intends to keep the Korean truce talks on ice until the San Francisco meeting opens.

Thus the hope of a Korean ceasefire can be held out as bait to prevent a Japanese peace treaty from being signed. What is more important, the threat of a renewed and widened Korean War can also be used for the same purpose. The recent events at Kaesong, with their horrible touch of tragi-comedy—the transparently faked Napalm bomb, the American investigators red-faced with indignation, the volubly untruthful Communists — are only part of a much larger pattern. The parts in the pattern deserve to be listed.

ITEM: The Soviet press has officially classified the Japanese peace treaty so brilliantly negotiated by John Foster Dulles as "intolerable." This is the magic word reserved for West German rearmament, which unceasing Soviet propaganda has painted as an act of war in the Kremlin's eyes.

Planting Rumors

ITEM: In the short time since the Kremlin astonished the State Department by accepting the invitation to San Francisco, the diplomatic cables have brought in a fine harvest of carefully planted rumors. The usual system for creating an atmosphere is being employed. Satellite diplomats, European businessmen who have dealings with the Soviets, and others of the same kidney, are all peddling the same story, which they always have on the "highest authority." The story is that the Soviets will go to war if the Japanese treaty is signed.

ITEM: A mixture of facts and nonsense about Soviet military preparations is being permitted to leak through the iron curtain. On the one hand, reports appear that the Soviets have brought their divisions in West Germany and Poland from 60 per cent of war strength almost up to war strength. This is true. On the other hand, reports also appear of a great air reinforcement in Eastern Germany. The process of substituting modern jet aircraft for obsolete types is undoubtedly continuing. Certain of the jet designs now identified, such as a twin engine fighter bomber capable of hitting British targets from German bases, are undoubtedly menacing. But there is nothing novel, as pretended, in this modernization of the Soviet air force in Europe. In short the greatest immediate significance of these reports is their timing.

Put the parts of the pattern together. Remember that the masters of the Kremlin have been forced, against their will, to send Andrei Gromyko and his large delegation to the San Francisco meeting. Remember also that if the Kremlin had not accepted the invitation to San Francisco (thus astonishing the State Department), the conferees would only be gathering there to ratify a treaty draft already approved by all of them. The meaning of the pattern becomes very clear.

Soviet Blackmail

In brief, San Francisco is to be one of the climaxes of the war of nerves. The impression is to be conveyed that those nations signing the Japanese peace treaty are inviting a world war. Since there is no veto in the conference machinery, the naked threat of Soviet military power is to be used as a substitute. Most probably, this will be done indirectly, without resort to any ultimatum.

Yet even the implied intention to renew Korean fighting in deadly earnest if the Japanese peace treaty is signed, is in itself a most powerful weapon of Soviet blackmail. The British and French live in fear that the Korean War will be transformed into a general war in precisely this manner. They agreed to the Dulles draft of the Japanese treaty with marked absence of enthusiasm. What could be more tempting than to exchange abstention from the Japanese treaty for a promise of real peace in Korea?

If either of our major allies succumbs to this temptation, the Western alliance will be broken—for anyone can foresee the effects in Congress of this sort of public desertion of the United States. Fortunately, although certain of the lesser and Asiatic powers may yield to the Soviet threats, the Kremlin is unlikely to attain its grand objective on this occasion. The British and French, after all, do not enjoy blackmail any more than we do. They have committed themselves to the Japanese treaty. And they also understand that the future of the Western alliance is at stake.

Yet even if all goes well at San Francisco, this pattern that is emerging is an instructive foretaste of the even more elaborate and determined Soviet attacks on Western unity that will come later on.

And the Long Distance telephone network which ties America together has grown even more. In 1941, there was very little coaxial cable in use. Radio relay was still in an experimental stage. Yet today there are 8,000 miles of coaxial cable in service—plus thousands of miles of radio relay. And Long Distance telephone circuits have increased in ten years from about 4,800,000 miles to 20,800,000.

In times like these, telephone lines are defense lines. For they are helping America rush its big production program. It's fortunate this nationwide network has grown so big, so fast.

Pearl Harbor—1941. Korea—1951. Only ten years. But in that time the Bell System's capacity to serve the nation has literally doubled!
And the Long Distance telephone network which ties America together has grown even more. In 1941, there was very little coaxial cable in use. Radio relay was still in an experimental stage. Yet today there are 8,000 miles of coaxial cable in service—plus thousands of miles of radio relay. And Long Distance telephone circuits have increased in ten years from about 4,800,000 miles to 20,800,000.
In times like these, telephone lines are defense lines. For they are helping America rush its big production program. It's fortunate this nationwide network has grown so big, so fast.
To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number.

Korea Blueprint For U. N. Force, Austin Declares

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Ambassador Warren R. Austin today called Korea a blueprint for a United Nations peace force.

He told the 52nd national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars:

"In time, and with the natural growth of international wisdom and practice, a United Nations peace force will be organized."

Austin, U. S. delegate to the U. N., said of Korea:

"A committee on Collective Measures is at work this very hour building on the lessons of this experience. Its work can point the way to collective action against any future aggressor."

Answering Soviet Russian criticism of the Committee on Collective Measures, Austin said:

"It rests within the Soviet Union alone whether a coalition against aggression and a coalition against the Soviet Union shall be one and the same thing."

Austin told the overseas veterans that the U. N. General Assembly has asked its members to maintain within their own armed forces units trained for use as United Nations forces.

State Dept. Okayed Bombing Of Rashin

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The State Department said today it knew in advance and approved the Air Force decision to bomb the supply port of Rashin, North Korea, only about 17 miles from Soviet Siberia.

A department official said it decided the military nature of the target made the bombing necessary despite the risk of a "diplomatic incident" if American planes accidentally crossed over the Soviet frontier.

Thirty-five American B-29 bombers, dropped more than 300 tons of bombs on rail and other military targets at Rashin on Saturday.

25 Sabrejet Fighters Boost Europe Defense

SHEPHERDS GROVE, England, Aug. 27 (AP)—Twenty-five American Sabrejet fighter planes—the type that whipped Red MIG 15s in Korea—landed today to give European defense another shot in its air arm.

The little swept-wing planes peeled off and slipped down on a Royal Air Force airstrip after a leisurely jaunt from Spokane, Wash., that took 15 days. The squadron is assigned to duty with the Third Air Force here.

Britains Air Vice Marshal C. E. N. Guest, welcoming the planes, told the pilots, "the flight demonstrated the ability to reinforce NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization) defenses with a Sabre wing on fairly short notice."

Baltimorean Killed When Scaffold Falls

BALTIMORE, Aug. 27 (AP)—One man was killed and another injured today in a 50-foot fall to the street when scaffolding they were dismantling collapsed.

John Glodek, 45, was dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital. John Smallwood, 31, was treated at the hospital but the extent of his injuries was not determined immediately.

The men, employes of the bridge division of the Bureau of Highways, had been painting the underside of a downtown viaduct.

Brothers Turn Up After Wide Search

PORT BURWELL, Ont., Aug. 27 (AP)—Archie Knoles, 32, and his 19-year-old brother, Wilfred, Straffordsville, Ont., arrived here late today under their own power, after their disappearance last night started an intense air and sea search over Lake Erie.

The search, by 40 boats and three Canadian Air Force planes, was launched last night when the two were not heard from after starting out in a 12-foot plywood boat for Cleveland, Ohio, 95 miles away across the lake.

Police said the pair went to Crystal Beach, near Fort Erie, instead and slept under the boat all night.

Dayton Youth Wins Model Plane Meet

DETROIT, Aug. 27. (AP)—Dick A. Modler, 15-year-old model plane whiz from Dayton, O., today emerged as individual point champion in Plymouth Motor Corporation's fifth international model plane contest here.

Modler, competing in the junior division, piled up a total of 47 points to retain his junior high point trophy. Next highest point scorer in a field of 510 contestants was Senior High Point Champion Herbert L. Davis, of Birmingham, Ala.

Davis, 17, scored 38 points to repeat his high point honors.

Government Restored To Polk County, Tenn.

BENTON, Tenn., Aug. 27 (AP)—Government was restored to little Polk County today after a six-month paralysis caused by political feuding.

Back in firm control was the bipartisan Good Government League which seized the courthouse earlier this year in defiance of legislation restoring the Democrats to power.

The GGL returned its own officials to posts from which they were ousted after the Democrats gained control of the county's seat in the legislature. The action capped a three-year feud between the factions which has been blamed for four deaths.

William Randolph Hearst's Will Admitted To Probate

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27. (AP)—William Randolph Hearst's will, disposing of his far-flung publishing empire, was admitted to probate today in a brief, routine session.

There was no mention of an agreement which reports published over the weekend said gave voting control of Hearst Corporation to his long-time friend, former Actress Marion Davies.

A statement by two special administrators, Randolph Apperson Hearst, one of the publisher's five sons, and Henry S. Mackay, Jr., personal counsel for the publisher, said they were aware of "the so-called agreement" and added:

"This paper is supposed to make Miss Marion Douras (Miss Davies' legal name) the sole voting trustee in control of all the Hearst property. This so-called agreement dated Nov. 5, 1950, was never executed and for this and many other reasons has no more effect than if it never existed."

Mackay declined today to further define "executed." A check of court records confirmed no such agreement has been recorded in Superior Court. Legal sources said that under California law most such instruments are filed in court within a year of being drawn.

Shakeup Planned

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP) — The Daily News says President Truman is planning a wholesale shuffle of his top officials, including some cabinet members.

"Ike" Provisionally On Oregon Ballot

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 27 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was entered provisionally today as a Democratic candidate for prisedent in next May's Oregon presidential primary election.

Republicans are making an attempt to get him on their ballot, too.

State Sen. Thomas R. Mahoney, Portland Democrat, filed petitions containing 1,150 signatures with Dave O'Hara, state elections chief. One thousand signatures are enough to put a candidate on the ballot. His consent is not required.

O'Hara accepted the petitions, although he pointed out that Oregon law requires that a presidential candidate be a member of the party in which he makes the race.

Gen. Eisenhower has not said whether he is a Democrat or a Republican or whether he would be a candidate for prisedent.

part of the International Workers of the World (IWW).

The work stoppages hit all phases of the industry.

The union estimated that 95 per cent of the nation's copper production was affected as the strike hit the big four and independents. Major companies tied up are Anaconda Copper Mining Company, with its big subsidiary, American Brass Company; Phelps Dodge, Kennecott and American Smelting and Refining. A wage and pension increase, involving an overall boost of 30-32 cents per hour was the key issue.

Thousands See Man Plunge To His Death

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP) — Thousands of persons saw a man teeter on a high window ledge of Macy's department store at the height of today's evening rush hour, then plunge nine floors to death in the street.

The body landed on a metal awning, rolled to the edge and dropped seven feet to the sidewalk.

Police said hundreds were endangered by the plunge.

In the victim's clothing were papers issued to John Pilgrim of Hoboken, N. J.

Dodgers Win Little League Playoff Title

Phillies Drop 6-1 Decision At East Side

Second Loss Gives Round Robin Title To Buzzard Nine

Manager Bill Buzzard's Dodgers won the round robin playoff championship title of the Little Baseball League yesterday by defeating the Phillies 6 to 1 at East Side.

The round robin style playoff was used because three divisions were active in the league this year. The Dodgers copped the Dan division, Phillies won the Dapper title and the Senators the Whiz Kid division. Two losses eliminated a team. The Dodgers captured three straight without a defeat while both the Phillies and Senators dropped two contests.

Two three-run rallies in the second and third innings spelled the difference in last night's battle at East Side field. Gene Cave, chunky southpaw, hurled two-hit ball for the winners and never was in danger after the Dodgers piled up a six-run lead in the first two innings.

Regis Fair and Ronnie Bruce paced the Dodgers at the plate with two hits apiece. One of Bruce's base knocks was a two-bagger. Tom Smith and Pinchhitter Kaplon shared the two singles garnered off Cave's slants.

Winters started the contest for Manager Farmer Northcraft's Phillies, who had won 18 straight without a defeat prior to the start of the playoffs. But Winters lasted less than two innings and Smith took over to finish the game.

The Dodgers thus capture the championship which was vacated by the Tigers, last year's titleholders. The box:

Giles Reported Backing Lausche

CINCINNATI, Aug. 27 (AP)—The latest report on the baseball commissionership today again had Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, supporting Gev. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio for the high paying job.

Early last week, Giles, who is listed among five persons under consideration for the $65,000-a-year post, denied he had withdrawn in favor of Lausche.

Since that time, however, the drums have been beating with ever-increasing crescendo from the governor's camp.

Giles added to the hopes of the Lausche supporters today by declining to discuss the latest report.

The newest report had Lausche so well in front for the job that he is demanding a 10-year term as commissioner.

The last commissioner, A. G. (Happy) Chandler, had a seven-year contract.

Representatives of the 16 major league clubs are scheduled to meet in Chicago Sept. 20 to choose a commissioner.

(End Of Season)

The Potomac Valley Cubs and LaVale ended their 1951 County Softball League season deadlocked for second place after each triumphed in final contests yesterday. The playoff for the second slot will get underway Thursday at 6 p. m. at Corriganville.

Potomac Valley put on a rousing finish to score five runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to edge first-place Corriganville 8 to 7 at Triple Lakes. LaVale turned back Stringtown 3 to 2 in a hurling duel at LaVale.

In a third contest played yesterday at Ellerslie, Wellersburg walloped the home team 9 to 3.

The Cubs trailed Corriganville 7 to 3 as the final inning opened but then the roof fell in on Glenn Kauffman, Corriganville pitcher.

Thompson opened the frame with a double and Lease singled him home. After one out, Lucas singled and successive errors put Hounshell and Fred Cecil on base, scoring a second tally and loading the sacks. Then Pete Cecil's one-baser brought home the tying runs to set the stage for Frankenberry's game-winning one-base knock.

LaVale weathered a two-run rally by Stringtown in the seventh to gain its one-run margin. Leasure collected two singles for the winners while Harden had two bingles for the losers.

Giants Sweep Double Bill From Cubs For 16 Straight

Cop First Game 5-4 In 12 Innings; Al Corwin Wins 6 To 3

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—The New York Giants stretched their sensational winning streak to 16 games today as they swept a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs, 5-4, in 12-innings and 6-3 in a second game completed in the dusk at the Polo Grounds.

Larry Jansen went all the way in the opener for the Giants to bag his 17th victory. The Giants pulled it out with two in the 12th after the Cubs had scored a run in their half.

Rookie Righthander Al Corwin posted his fifth victory without a loss in the nightcap. Corwin allowed only six hits including home runs by Hank Sauer and Bob Ramazzotti that accounted for all of Chicago's runs. Sauer homered in the second and Ramazzotti in the ninth with one on.

The Giants piled up a 3-1 lead in two innings and salted the game away when Ed Stanky homered in the sixth and Monte Irvin did the same in the seventh. Box:

Trabert Enlists In Navy; Jolting Davis Cup Hopes

Cincinnati Wonder Wins Tourney Match

FOREST HILLS, Aug. 27 (AP)—The props were knocked squarely from under the American Davis Cup tennis team today when it became known that Tony Trabert, the wonder boy from Cincinnati, had enlisted in the Navy and expected to report for duty on Sept. 24

Trabert, seeded third in the national championships, and considered a certainty to play both singles and doubles for the U. S. team in its attempt to regain the international trophy in Australia in December, disclosed that he had enlisted rather than run the risk of being drafted after he had been dropped by his naval reserve unit in Cincinnati.

Recently turned 21, the husky tennis and basketball star was in the process of eliminating Diehl Mateer Jr., of Villanova, Pa., 6-2, 6-2, 6-0, in a second round match when the word swept around the West Side Tennis Club that he was lost to the cup squad. Tennis officials wore glum expressions the rest of the day.

Frank Sedgman Wins

Frank Sedgman, the big Australian who leads the foreign threat, opened his bid for the singles title by smashing Gilbert Bogley of Warren, O., one of this country's good young players, 6-0, 6-4, 6-2.

Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., who was a finalist last year, scored over Ricardo Balbiers of Chile, 6-0, 6-3, 6-2; Budge Patty of Los Angeles ousted Tony Vincent of New York City, 6-0, 6-2, 6-3; Gardnar Mulloy of Miami downed Henry Bassford Jr., of Brooklyn, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia defeated Charles Devoe of Indianapolis, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, 6-4, to lead the parade of the American stars.

Hamilton Richardson, the touted youngster from Baton Rouge, La., who is seeded ninth, was carried to five tough sets by Larry Huebner, a comparative unknown from Fresno, Calif. Ham finally won it by 5-7, 7-5, 6-4, 3-6, 10-8.

Mervyn Rose Scores

Mervyn Rose, the Australian left-hander, opened with a 6-2, 6-4, 6-1, win over Philippe Neff of Washington, D. C., and Don Candy, his doubles teammate, eliminated August Ganzenmuler Jr., of Sea Cliff, N. Y., 6-0, 6-2, 6-2.

Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., the defending champion, played late in the stadium and proved his usual entertaining self in subduing Garner Anthony of Hawaii, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4. Eddie Moylan of Trenton, N. J., put another dent in the foreign seeding by knocking out Paul Remy of France in a hard five-setter, 3-6, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5, 6-3.

The day's only surprise in the women's division saw Mrs. Baba Lewis of Newtonville, Mass., upset seventh seeded Betty Rosenquest of South Orange, N. J., by the decisive margin of 6-2, 6-1.

Graham Ready For Title Shot

Strength Will Win Challenger Says

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Billy Graham believes his strength in the stretch will enable him to take the welterweight crown from Champion Kid Gavilan in Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

"I came on strong in the second half both times against the Kid before," said the pleasant, articulate New Yorker. "I think the same thing is going to happen Wednesday.

"I've been training nearly a year for this title shot," said Graham at his training camp, "and I think I can lick the guy. I think I licked him the last time but he does things that fool the scorers. His bolos are just a lot of baloney. The way he uses it, they're just a motion."

Graham's complaints about the scoring are not novel. Almost every opponent of the sleek Cuban has complained that the officials' tend to be influenced by the roar of the crowd every time Gavilan fights.

The champion is flashy and very fast with his hands and feet. He usually fights in spurts and showers his foes with punches, many of which land on gloves and arms. Every time he lets loose with a bolo—a punch thrown like a softball pitcher when he throws to the batter—the fans holler even when it lands on a glove.

Sheetz Blanks Outdoor Club

Eagles Cop Opener In Playoff, 7 To 0

Al Sheet won his fifth straight shutout victory as the Fraternal Order of Eagles softballers captured the opening contest in the best-of-three semi-finals of the Rocking Chair League yesterday downing the Outdoor Club 7 to 0 at Stitcher field.

The crafty righthander held the losers to five bingles with Bill Dean the only members of the ODC to collect two. The Eagles ace now has racked up 39 consecutive scoreless innings.

The contest was a 1-0 duel between Sheetz and Morrison until the Eagles put the game away with six runs in the sixth frame. Doyle George with two singles and two-bagger topped the winners' 12-hit attack. Lou Riehl, Sam DeLuca and Sheetz all collected two hits and drove in two runs apiece.

Shorty Brown at third for the ODC and Mulvey in shortfield and Summers on third for the Eagles starred afield.

The other semi-finalists, the Elks and Moose, will clash today at Stitcher field at 6 p. m. while the Eagles and ODC will meet in their second fray Wednesday at the same time. The score:

Rocky Marciano Kayoes Beshore

BOSTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — Rocky Marciano, Brockton's undefeated heavyweight, knocked out rolypoly Freddie Beshore of Harrisburg, Pa., in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-round bout tonight at Boston Garden. A long series of lefts and rights to the head toppled Beshore backwards after 50 seconds in the knockout round. Marciano weighed 187½ and Beshore 196.

While gaining his 37th straight professional victory and his 32nd via the knockout route, Marciano had an exceptional easy time with the lumbering Beshore, who has been beaten by most of the other top-notch heavyweights.

Beshore spent most of his battling time making grimaces at the Brocktonite, who has high hopes of meeting aged Joe Louis in the fall.

During the first three rounds Marciano had great difficulty landing cleanly on Beshore, an ideal target. The latter made Rocky miss frequently merely by keeping his head bobbing. But later in the third session, Marciano, landing about one blow in six, hurt Beshore in the head and body.

As soon as the fourth got underway, Marciano pumped both hands to Beshore's well-stuffed middle and then shifted his two-fisted attack to the head. Beshore took about eight blows before falling backward for the full count.

Westernport Legion Nine Lands Five Players On District Team

Arnone, Raines Chosen To Hurl

Victory Post, Westernport, American Legion junior baseball nine captured five places on the All-Mountain District team selected yesterday in Baltimore. The Westernport team captured the Mountain District League title here before losing to Parkersburg in the quarter finals of the state playoffs.

The runnerup Midland Legion copped three places while Cumberland landed two players on the coveted team. Eight honorable mentions were also selected.

Heading the Victory Post margin was Bobby Raines, slick righthander who pitched the Westernport team to the Mountain District title while capturing the strikeout diadem.

Raines' foremost mound opponent Enardo Arnone of Midland, who hooked up in several brilliant duels with the little strikeout artist, was named the number two pitcher on the all-star aggregation.

Receiving honorable mention were Richards, Midland; Burner, Midland; Dickel, Cumberland; Wengerd, Grantsville; Brodie, Midland; Kirtley, Cumberland; Widdows, Cumberland and Kyle, Westernport.

Bucs Lose 5-0 In First; Win 5-2

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (INS) — Ralph Branca came within three outs of pitching a no-hitter tonight as he blanked the Pirates 5 to 0, but the last-place Bucs came back to whip the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5 to 2, in the second part of a twi-night doubleheader.

An Ebbets Field crowd of 32,561 saw the Brooks' National League lead cut to five games as the New York Giants zoomed to their 16th win in a row via a double triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

A pair of ninth-inning singles ruined Branca's bid to enter the hall of fame.

The night contest was decided as early as the first inning when the Pirates routed starter Erv Palica with a three-run tear. Two singles, two walks and a double by Catcher Clyde McCullough were good for three runs.

McCullough drove in four of his team's runs as he homered in the third with one on.

The Brooks got only three hits off winner Bill Werle but they managed to knock him out of the box in the sixth. Gil Hodges, who singled home the initial Dodger run in the first, followed Jackie Robinson's double with another two-bagger for the second run.

With the bases loaded and one out, Vern Law replaced Werle and got Billy Cox to hit into a double play to end the inning. Law held the Dodgers hitless the rest of the way and was aided by two sparkling catches by Ralph Kiner in left field. Box:

Dodgers Win Little League Playoff Title

Phillies Drop 6-1 Decision At East Side

Second Loss Gives Round Robin Title To Buzzard Nine

Manager Bill Buzzard's Dodgers won the round robin playoff championship title of the Little Baseball League yesterday by defeating the Phillies 6 to 1 at East Side.

The round robin style playoff was used because three divisions were active in the league this year. The Dodgers copped the Dan division, Phillies won the Dapper title and the Senators the Whiz Kid division. Two losses eliminated a team. The Dodgers captured three straight without a defeat while both the Phillies and Senators dropped two contests.

Two three-run rallies in the second and third innings spelled the difference in last night's battle at East Side field. Gene Cave, chunky southpaw, hurled two-hit ball for the winners and never was in danger after the Dodgers piled up a six-run lead in the first two innings.

Regis Fair and Ronnie Bruce paced the Dodgers at the plate with two hits apiece. One of Bruce's base knocks was a two-bagger. Tom Smith and Pinchhitter Kaplon shared the two singles garnered off Cave's slants.

Winters started the contest for Manager Farmer Northcraft's Phillies, who had won 18 straight without a defeat prior to the start of the playoffs. But Winters lasted less than two innings and Smith took over to finish the game.

The Dodgers thus capture the championship which was vacated by the Tigers, last year's titleholders. The box:

Giles Reported Backing Lausche

CINCINNATI, Aug. 27 (AP)—The latest report on the baseball commissionership today again had Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, supporting Gev. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio for the high paying job.

Early last week, Giles, who is listed among five persons under consideration for the $65,000-a-year post, denied he had withdrawn in favor of Lausche.

Since that time, however, the drums have been beating with ever-increasing crescendo from the governor's camp.

Giles added to the hopes of the Lausche supporters today by declining to discuss the latest report.

The newest report had Lausche so well in front for the job that he is demanding a 10-year term as commissioner.

The last commissioner, A. G. (Happy) Chandler, had a seven-year contract.

Representatives of the 16 major league clubs are scheduled to meet in Chicago Sept. 20 to choose a commissioner.

The Potomac Valley Cubs and LaVale ended their 1951 County Softball League season deadlocked for second place after each triumphed in final contests yesterday. The playoff for the second slot will get underway Thursday at 6 p. m. at Corriganville.

Potomac Valley put on a rousing finish to score five runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to edge first-place Corriganville 8 to 7 at Triple Lakes. LaVale turned back Stringtown 3 to 2 in a hurling duel at LaVale.

In a third contest played yesterday at Ellerslie, Wellersburg walloped the home team 9 to 3.

The Cubs trailed Corriganville 7 to 3 as the final inning opened but then the roof fell in on Glenn Kauffman, Corriganville pitcher.

Thompson opened the frame with a double and Lease singled him home. After one out, Lucas singled and successive errors put Hounshell and Fred Cecil on base, scoring a second tally and loading the sacks. Then Pete Cecil's one-baser brought home the tying runs to set the stage for Frankenberry's game-winning one-base knock.

LaVale weathered a two-run rally by Stringtown in the seventh to gain its one-run margin. Leasure collected two singles for the winners while Harden had two bingles for the losers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—The New York Giants stretched their sensational winning streak to 16 games today as they swept a double-header from the Chicago Cubs, 5-4, in 12-innings and 6-3 in a second game completed in the dusk at the Polo Grounds.

Larry Jansen went all the way in the opener for the Giants to bag his 17th victory. The Giants pulled it out with two in the 12th after the Cubs had scored a run in their half.

Rookie Righthander Al Corwin posted his fifth victory without a loss in the nightcap. Corwin allowed only six hits including home runs by Hank Sauer and Bob Ramazzotti that accounted for all of Chicago's runs. Sauer homered in the second and Ramazzotti in the ninth with one on.

The Giants piled up a 3-1 lead in two innings and salted the game away when Ed Stanky homered in the sixth and Monte Irvin did the same in the seventh. Box:

Trabert Enlists In Navy; Jolting Davis Cup Hopes

Cincinnati Wonder Wins Tourney Match

FOREST HILLS, Aug. 27 (AP)—The props were knocked squarely from under the American Davis Cup tennis team today when it became known that Tony Trabert, the wonder boy from Cincinnati, had enlisted in the Navy and expected to report for duty on Sept. 24

Trabert, seeded third in the national championships, and considered a certainty to play both singles and doubles for the U. S. team in its attempt to regain the international trophy in Australia in December, disclosed that he had enlisted rather than run the risk of being drafted after he had been dropped by his naval reserve unit in Cincinnati.

Recently turned 21, the husky tennis and basketball star was in the process of eliminating Diehl Mateer Jr., of Villanova, Pa., 6-2, 6-2, 6-0, in a second round match when the word swept around the West Side Tennis Club that he was lost to the cup squad. Tennis officials wore glum expressions the rest of the day.

Frank Sedgman Wins

Frank Sedgman, the big Australian who leads the foreign threat, opened his bid for the singles title by smashing Gilbert Bogley of Warren, O., one of this country's good young players, 6-0, 6-4, 6-2.

Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., who was a finalist last year, scored over Ricardo Balbiers of Chile, 6-0, 6-3, 6-2; Budge Patty of Los Angeles ousted Tony Vincent of New York City, 6-0, 6-2, 6-3; Gardnar Mulloy of Miami downed Henry Bassford Jr., of Brooklyn, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia defeated Charles Devoe of Indianapolis, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, 6-4, to lead the parade of the American stars.

Hamilton Richardson, the touted youngster from Baton Rouge, La., who is seeded ninth, was carried to five tough sets by Larry Huebner, a comparative unknown from Fresno, Calif. Ham finally won it by 5-7, 7-5, 6-4, 3-6, 10-8.

Mervyn Rose Scores

Mervyn Rose, the Australian left-hander, opened with a 6-2, 6-4, 6-1, win over Philippe Neff of Washington, D. C., and Don Candy, his doubles teammate, eliminated August Ganzenmuler Jr., of Sea Cliff, N. Y., 6-0, 6-2, 6-2.

Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., the defending champion, played late in the stadium and proved his usual entertaining self in subduing Garner Anthony of Hawaii, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4. Eddie Moylan of Trenton, N. J., put another dent in the foreign seeding by knocking out Paul Remy of France in a hard five-setter, 3-6, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5, 6-3.

The day's only surprise in the women's division saw Mrs. Baba Lewis of Newtonville, Mass., upset seventh seeded Betty Rosenquest of South Orange, N. J., by the decisive margin of 6-2, 6-1.

Rocky Marciano Kayoes Beshore

BOSTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — Rocky Marciano, Brockton's undefeated heavyweight, knocked out rolypoly Freddie Beshore of Harrisburg, Pa., in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-round bout tonight at Boston Garden. A long series of lefts and rights to the head toppled Beshore backwards after 50 seconds in the knockout round. Marciano weighed 187½ and Beshore 196.

While gaining his 37th straight professional victory and his 32nd via the knockout route, Marciano had an exceptional easy time with the lumbering Beshore, who has been beaten by most of the other top-notch heavyweights.

Beshore spent most of his battling time making grimaces at the Brocktonite, who has high hopes of meeting aged Joe Louis in the fall.

During the first three rounds Marciano had great difficulty landing cleanly on Beshore, an ideal target. The latter made Rocky miss frequently merely by keeping his head bobbing. But later in the third session, Marciano, landing about one blow in six, hurt Beshore in the head and body.

As soon as the fourth got underway, Marciano pumped both hands to Beshore's well-stuffed middle and then shifted his two-fisted attack to the head. Beshore took about eight blows before falling backward for the full count.

Graham Ready For Title Shot

Strength Will Win Challenger Says

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Billy Graham believes his strength in the stretch will enable him to take the welterweight crown from Champion Kid Gavilan in Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

"I came on strong in the second half both times against the Kid before," said the pleasant, articulate New Yorker. "I think the same thing is going to happen Wednesday.

"I've been training nearly a year for this title shot," said Graham at his training camp, "and I think I can lick the guy. I think I licked him the last time but he does things that fool the scorers. His bolos are just a lot of baloney. The way he uses it, they're just a motion."

Graham's complaints about the scoring are not novel. Almost every opponent of the sleek Cuban has complained that the officials' tend to be influenced by the roar of the crowd every time Gavilan fights.

The champion is flashy and very fast with his hands and feet. He usually fights in spurts and showers his foes with punches, many of which land on gloves and arms. Every time he lets loose with a bolo—a punch thrown like a softball pitcher when he throws to the batter—the fans holler even when it lands on a glove.

Sheetz Blanks Outdoor Club

Eagles Cop Opener In Playoff, 7 To 0

Al Sheet won his fifth straight shutout victory as the Fraternal Order of Eagles softballers captured the opening contest in the best-of-three semi-finals of the Rocking Chair League yesterday downing the Outdoor Club 7 to 0 at Stitcher field.

The contest was a 1-0 duel between Sheetz and Morrison until the Eagles put the game away with six runs in the sixth frame. Doyle George with two singles and two-bagger topped the winners' 12-hit attack. Lou Riehl, Sam DeLuca and Sheetz all collected two hits and drove in two runs apiece.

Shorty Brown at third for the ODC and Mulvey in shortfield and Summers on third for the Eagles starred afield.

The other semi-finalists, the Elks and Moose, will clash today at Stitcher field at 6 p. m. while the Eagles and ODC will meet in their second fray Wednesday at the same time. The score:

Bucs Lose 5-0 In First; Win 5-2

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (INS) — Ralph Branca came within three outs of pitching a no-hitter tonight as he blanked the Pirates 5 to 0, but the last-place Bucs came back to whip the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5 to 2, in the second part of a twi-night doubleheader.

An Ebbets Field crowd of 32,561 saw the Brooks' National League lead cut to five games as the New York Giants zoomed to their 16th win in a row via a double triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

A pair of ninth-inning singles ruined Branca's bid to enter the hall of fame.

The night contest was decided as early as the first inning when the Pirates routed starter Erv Palica with a three-run tear. Two singles, two walks and a double by Catcher Clyde McCullough were good for three runs.

McCullough drove in four of his team's runs as he homered in the third with one on.

The Brooks got only three hits off winner Bill Werle but they managed to knock him out of the box in the sixth. Gil Hodges, who singled home the initial Dodger run in the first, followed Jackie Robinson's double with another two-bagger for the second run.

With the bases loaded and one out, Vern Law replaced Werle and got Billy Cox to hit into a double play to end the inning. Law held the Dodgers hitless the rest of the way and was aided by two sparkling catches by Ralph Kiner in left field. Box:

Bed O'Roses Wins Feature At Saratoga

Daily Double Pays Off $602.50 For $2

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP)—A 40 to 1 shot and a warmly backed 7 to 2 proposition combined to form the second largest daily double payoff—$602.50—of the meeting. Knows Peace, a field horse, took the opener from a large band of 2-year-olds under Keith Stuart, paying $81.60 straight. The second went to Whiskey Sour, $9.20, which drubbed 13 other platers at 7 furlongs. Aboard her was Willie Boland.

Sanford Stud Farm's Fulton, at $3.20, made no mistake in the steeplechase event of about two miles. Evidently much the best, the gelding scored by a dozen lengths in 4:14, with Frank D. Adams never extending him. Patrol was an easy second, while Short Circuit finished third. Five started.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's Querx, ridden by Eric Guerin, got up to beat Noras Bonnet by a head in the fourth, a dash for maiden 2-year-old fillies. She paid $19.30. Third was Semolina.

Vanderbilt's Bed O' Roses came back to the races after an extended absence with a notable triumph in the Gideon Putnam purse, feature of the stakeless program today.

The daughter of Rosemont-Good Thig showed her class, as usual, as she cut the corner on the stretch turn, where the leader went wide, to take the $3,500 overnight event by a short length from Apheim Stable's Early Heath. John W. Nizlek's All At Once was third, a length back, while I. J. Collins' Jerry M took fourth from two others.

Bed O'Roses Wins Feature At Saratoga

Daily Double Pays Off $602.50 For $2

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP)—A 40 to 1 shot and a warmly backed 7 to 2 proposition combined to form the second largest daily double payoff—$602.50—of the meeting. Knows Peace, a field horse, took the opener from a large band of 2-year-olds under Keith Stuart, paying $81.60 straight. The second went to Whiskey Sour, $9.20, which drubbed 13 other platers at 7 furlongs. Aboard her was Willie Boland.

Sanford Stud Farm's Fulton, at $3.20, made no mistake in the steeplechase event of about two miles. Evidently much the best, the gelding scored by a dozen lengths in 4:14, with Frank D. Adams never extending him. Patrol was an easy second, while Short Circuit finished third. Five started.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's Querx, ridden by Eric Guerin, got up to beat Noras Bonnet by a head in the fourth, a dash for maiden 2-year-old fillies. She paid $19.30. Third was Semolina.

Vanderbilt's Bed O' Roses came back to the races after an extended absence with a notable triumph in the Gideon Putnam purse, feature of the stakeless program today.

The daughter of Rosemont-Good Thig showed her class, as usual, as she cut the corner on the stretch turn, where the leader went wide, to take the $3,500 overnight event by a short length from Apheim Stable's Early Heath. John W. Nizlek's All At Once was third, a length back, while I. J. Collins' Jerry M took fourth from two others.

Board Opposes Issuing New Liquor Permits

Requests Await Bridge Completion

BALTIMORE—The State Appeal Board for Alcoholic Beverages Licenses said yesterday it takes a "firm stand" against issuing any new licenses in the Ritchie Highway area where it has jurisdiction.

The board's announcement came in answer to a recent letter from State Comptroller J. Millard Tawes. Tawes urged the board to give careful consideration to granting of new licenses because of traffic hazards expected to arise with the opening of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge and Sandy Point State Park.

He warned particularly about the section between Ritchie Highway and Sandy Point.

The board said yesterday all new applications coming before it will be denied pending completion of the Bay Bridge and "a reasonable opportunity to study the effects along the highway of the increased traffic."

At the same time, the board said it hoped its policy would discourage new applications for alcoholic beverages licenses along Route 50 and would encourage the zoning boards of the various counties to "take the proper preventive measures."

(The board holds either original or appeal jurisdiction in all counties along Route 50 except Talbot and Prince George.)

KEEPING UP WITH

HOLLYWOOD

By DOROTHY MANNERS
(Substituting for Louella Parsons)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 27 (INS)—Tony Curtis, who has been a sort of male Yvonne De Carlo, playing princes in technicolor fantasies at Universal-International, gets a change of pace—and is he glad!

In place of runing around bare-chested with a turban on his good-looking head, Tony dons a football suit and helmet for "All American."

Fred De Cardova will direct So far here is no mention of Piper Laurie, Tony's technicolor pal, as the leading lady—which may mean Tony gets a new setup all round.

• — • — •

Pretty cute idea of Charles Brackett's to glorify America's favorite honeymoon spot in a movie called "Niagara." Stands to reason the Walter Reisch-Richard Breen original is about a couple newly Mr. and Mrs.

As far famed as Niagara is to us—there are millions of people who have never seen this natural wonder—and just so they'll get the full voltage treatment, Brackett will film "Niagara" in technicolor.

• — • — •

Working harmoniously together in a picture must be chemical—like love.

Following a longer tiff than usual on the 20th set the other day, Connie walked off in tears. She came back, of course—and temporarily they're operating under a truce.

Gayest party of the season was hosted by the Walter Langs who rigged up their garden to look like a Paris sidewalk cafe and invited all Ann Sothern's pals to bid her farewell. Ann's off to New York and a stage play.

Mrs. Van Johnson was one of the prettiest belles in a slick, short haircut she got in Rome and wearing a pair of those smart Italian sandals. Had a long talk with Van—one of the nicest guys in this town—for sure.

So many stars showed up for Fieldsie and Walter's party it could have been a "benefit." Gary Cooper was there with Patricia Neal who looked different to me with her brunette hair. "This is the real color," said Pat, "The blonde was a fake."

Having a gay old time for themselves were the Danny Kayes, Ann Sheridan, Mecca Graham, Loretta Young and Tom Lewis, Clifton Webb and his adorable, Maybelle; the Reggie Gardiners, Cesar Romero, Linda and Tyrone Power, the Johnny Greenes, Anna Baxter and John Hodiak, Mousie and William Powell, Mike and Maggie Rennie, Rosalind Russell and Freddie Brisson, Babe Blum and MacDonald Carey.

Hollywood in shorts:

Anatole Litvak and Hildegarde Neff, who cooled for awhile, are rekindling the flame in Cannes.

Red Skelton is at Yosemite resting—the hardest thing he does.

Bob Hope gets $1,000 per minute for his Louisville P. A.—for a fifteen minute act.

Marguerite Piazza on the MGM lot for her screen tests.

Some gift from Gig Young to his wife. He peresented her with the deed to a lot and a contract with an architect for a new home.

Jack Carson rating terrific reviews in Manchester — British industrial town that seldom goes for Hollywood "names" — which bodes well for his Palladium stint.

Frank Loesser working closely with Moss Hart getting "Hans Christian Andersen" ready in rough draft form for Sam Goldwyn's approval when he returns from Honolulu.

Thomas Gomez—that really good actor—gets the king part in "The Merry Widow" and sings for the first time on the screen.

Marie Wilson with Bob Fallon at the Cafe Gala.

Garbo has turned down another script. Every producer in Hollywood is on the verge of waving the white flag where G. G. is concerned.

Mel Ferrer wants Bessie Love to come out of retirement for a play in La Jolla.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Fayette Street Parking To Be Restricted

In an effort to alleviate traffic congestion a new parking system will be put in effect on Fayette Street from Luteman Road to Camden Avenue.

Commissioner of Police John J. Long said parking will be allowed on one side of the street only. Cars may park on one side for a certain period and then will be shifted to the other side for another period. The system is designed to be fair to residents on both sides of the street, Long said.

Signs will be posted with complete instructions for drivers, Long said.

Long requested that residents cooperate and said the system will be placed in operation later this week. The new program will help operation of the street sweeper, keep a passage clear in case of fire and aid movement of traffic generally, Long believes.

Mirror Of Your Mind

By LAWRENCE GOULD, Consulting Psychologist

Is an engagement ring "a girl's birthright"?

Answer: Hardly. The engagement ring as distinct from the wedding ring is relatively recent and the practice of bestowing it is limited to a few countries and to certain social classes. But the average girl who has been brought up to feel that her main task in life is to "get a man" will attach great importance to the opportunity which a ring gives her to show her friends she has been successful, and will make the value of the ring an evidence of how precious she is in her man's eyes. A man ought to realize this, and may rightfully be called thoughtless if he attempts to evade or ignore it.

Are old people better off in institutions?

Answer: No, writes Ruth Laverty of the Peabody Home, New York City, in the Journal of Gerontology. She reports a survey of 30 elderly women, 15 of whom had been admitted to a home for the aged, while the other 15, although qualified for such admission, were maintained in the community with financial and social service aid. Those who received non-resident aid seemed happier and better adjusted, and the cost of their care was a small fraction of that of the care of residents of the Home. Institutions should be for those who require special medical or psychiatric treatment.

Should a child be forced to give up toys?

Answer: No. Unless it is actually harmful, a child never should be forced to give up anything that is a source of pleasure to him, since this both increases its importance for him and intensifies his feeling that you don't want him to be happy and therefore don't really love him. A girl who continues to play with dolls or a boy who clings to his toy soldiers longer than the average is probably having trouble in adjusting to the ways of other children, and this is the problem which you really have to deal with. Don't deprive a child of anything he values without substituting something better.

Crews Spraying PE Rights-Of-Way

Crews from the Potomac Edison Company have started spraying rights-of-way in this area to keep them clear of brush, trees and other plant growth.

A spokesman for the company said that a 2,4-D compound is being employed as a spray. This mixture is well-known in this area for many local farmers use 2,4-D as a weed killer.

These crews will apply the spray to plant growth under power lines so that electric service will not be interrupted by high brush or trees blowing into wires.

Farmers and livestock owners were assured that the 2,4-D will not sterlize the soil. It is non-poisonous to animals and will permit later growth of grass as brush and weeds are eliminated.

Plant growth along the right-of-way will turn brown and will die in approximately one week. The new growth of grass that follows will improve the appearance of the site.

KEEPING UP WITH

HOLLYWOOD

By DOROTHY MANNERS
(Substituting for Louella Parsons)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 27 (INS)—Tony Curtis, who has been a sort of male Yvonne De Carlo, playing princes in technicolor fantasies at Universal-International, gets a change of pace—and is he glad!

In place of runing around bare-chested with a turban on his good-looking head, Tony dons a football suit and helmet for "All American."

Fred De Cardova will direct So far here is no mention of Piper Laurie, Tony's technicolor pal, as the leading lady—which may mean Tony gets a new setup all round.

●—●—●

Pretty cute idea of Charles Brackett's to glorify America's favorite honeymoon spot in a movie called "Niagara." Stands to reason the Walter Reisch-Richard Breen original is about a couple newly Mr. and Mrs.

As far famed as Niagara is to us—there are millions of people who have never seen this natural wonder—and just so they'll get the full voltage treatment, Brackett will film "Niagara" in technicolor.

Richard Widmark and leading lady, Constance Smith, aren't hitting it off making "Red Skies of Montana." Funny thing about this is—Richard is one of the quietest and least temperamental actors in Hollywood. And Constance has the same reputation.

Working harmoniously together in a picture must be chemical—like love.

Following a longer tiff than usual on the 20th set the other day, Connie walked off in tears. She came back, of course—and temporarily they're operating under a truce.

●—●—●

Gayest party of the season was hosted by the Walter Langs who rigged up their garden to look like a Paris sidewalk cafe and invited all Ann Sothern's pals to bid her farewell. Ann's off to New York and a stage play.

Mrs. Van Johnson was one of the prettiest belles in a slick, short haircut she got in Rome and wearing a pair of those smart Italian sandals. Had a long talk with Van—one of the nicest guys in this town—for sure.

So many stars showed up for Fieldsie and Walter's party it could have been a "benefit." Gary Cooper was there with Patricia Neal who looked different to me with her brunette hair. "This is the real color," said Pat, "The blonde was a fake."

Having a gay old time for themselves were the Danny Kayes, Ann Sheridan, Mecca Graham, Loretta Young and Tom Lewis, Clifton Webb and his adorable, Maybelle; the Reggie Gardiners, Cesar Romero, Linda and Tyrone Power, the Johnny Greenes, Anna Baxter and John Hodiak, Mousie and William Powell, Mike and Maggie Rennie, Rosalind Russell and Freddie Brisson, Babe Blum and MacDonald Carey.

Hollywood in shorts:

Anatole Litvak and Hildegarde Neff, who cooled for awhile, are rekindling the flame in Cannes.

Red Skelton is at Yosemite resting—the hardest thing he does.

Bob Hope gets $1,000 per minute for his Louisville P. A.—for a fifteen minute act.

Marguerite Piazza on the MGM lot for her screen tests.

Some gift from Gig Young to his wife. He peresented her with the deed to a lot and a contract with an architect for a new home.

Jack Carson rating terrific reviews in Manchester — British industrial town that seldom goes for Hollywood "names" — which bodes well for his Palladium stint.

Frank Loesser working closely with Moss Hart getting "Hans Christian Andersen" ready in rough draft form for Sam Goldwyn's approval when he returns from Honolulu.

Thomas Gomez—that really good actor—gets the king part in "The Merry Widow" and sings for the first time on the screen.

Marie Wilson with Bob Fallon at the Cafe Gala.

Garbo has turned down another script. Every producer in Hollywood is on the verge of waving the white flag where G. G. is concerned.

Mel Ferrer wants Bessie Love to come out of retirement for a play in La Jolla.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Group Returns From Retreat

Eleven members of the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's Catholic Church returned last night from a weekend retreat at Manresa on the Severn River.

The group included C. Raymond Burkey, John P. Mackey, M. F. Prendergast, Thomas H. Tunney, Joseph A. Madden, Donald Murray, John E. Carroll, John Coyle and William H., Edward J. and Joseph A. Blake.

The trip was made in private cars. The group left here at noon last Friday. The retreat closed with benediction and a papal blessing last night.

Another group from the Society will leave this Friday for Manresa. Norman Fearnow, president of the society, said there are four vacancies open to any member of the parish.

Fayette Street Parking To Be Restricted

In an effort to alleviate traffic congestion a new parking system will be put in effect on Fayette Street from Luteman Road to Camden Avenue.

Commissioner of Police John J. Long said parking will be allowed on one side of the street only. Cars may park on one side for a certain period and then will be shifted to the other side for another period. The system is designed to be fair to residents on both sides of the street, Long said.

Signs will be posted with complete instructions for drivers, Long said.

Long requested that residents cooperate and said the system will be placed in operation later this week. The new program will help operation of the street sweeper, keep a passage clear in case of fire and aid movement of traffic generally, Long believes.

Mirror Of Your Mind

By LAWRENCE GOULD, Consulting Psychologist

Is an engagement ring "a girl's birthright"?

Answer: Hardly. The engagement ring as distinct from the wedding ring is relatively recent and the practice of bestowing it is limited to a few countries and to certain social classes. But the average girl who has been brought up to feel that her main task in life is to "get a man" will attach great importance to the opportunity which a ring gives her to show her friends she has been successful, and will make the value of the ring an evidence of how precious she is in her man's eyes. A man ought to realize this, and may rightfully be called thoughtless if he attempts to evade or ignore it.

Are old people better off in institutions?

Answer: No, writes Ruth Laverty of the Peabody Home, New York City, in the Journal of Gerontology. She reports a survey of 30 elderly women, 15 of whom had been admitted to a home for the aged, while the other 15, although qualified for such admission, were maintained in the community with financial and social service aid. Those who received non-resident aid seemed happier and better adjusted, and the cost of their care was a small fraction of that of the care of residents of the Home. Institutions should be for those who require special medical or psychiatric treatment.

Should a child be forced to give up toys?

Answer: No. Unless it is actually harmful, a child never should be forced to give up anything that is a source of pleasure to him, since this both increases its importance for him and intensifies his feeling that you don't want him to be happy and therefore don't really love him. A girl who continues to play with dolls or a boy who clings to his toy soldiers longer than the average is probably having trouble in adjusting to the ways of other children, and this is the problem which you really have to deal with. Don't deprive a child of anything he values without substituting something better.

Crews Spraying PE Rights-Of-Way

Crews from the Potomac Edison Company have started spraying rights-of-way in this area to keep them clear of brush, trees and other plant growth.

A spokesman for the company said that a 2,4-D compound is being employed as a spray. This mixture is well-known in this area for many local farmers use 2,4-D as a weed killer.

These crews will apply the spray to plant growth under power lines so that electric service will not be interrupted by high brush or trees blowing into wires.

Farmers and livestock owners were assured that the 2,4-D will not sterlize the soil. It is non-poisonous to animals and will permit later growth of grass as brush and weeds are eliminated.

Plant growth along the right-of-way will turn brown and will die in approximately one week. The new growth of grass that follows will improve the appearance of the site.

Assistant Cashier Resigns Position

PIEDMONT, W. Va. — Mrs. Joyce Bell Boggs, has resigned her position as assistant cashier with the Potomac Edison Company here to take a position with Minnich's Service and Flower Shop, Main Street, Keyser, effective September 1.

Mrs. Boggs will be succeeded at the Potomac Edison by Miss Lois Shreve, West Fairview Street.

Miss Wright To Be Bride Of C. W. Johnson

FROSTBURG — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wright, 228 Center Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Lena Viola Wright, to Charles W. Johnson, Mt. Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson. The wedding will be solemnized September 2 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, with Rev. Harold R. Stoudt, pastor, officiating.

Miss Wright, a graduate of Beall High School, class of 1950, is employed in the mailing department of the Kelly Springfield Tire Company. She is also secretary of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Mr. Johnson, a veteran of World War II, with 24 months of service in Italy and Sicily, is a graduate of Allegany High School, Cumberland, and is now employed by the Kelly Springfield Tire Company.

Newly Appointed Teacher Resigns

PETERSBURG, W. Va.—Thomas E. Richards, Jr., who was recently ihired as a member of the English department of Petersburg High School has resigned to accept a position in an Ohio school.

The Grant County Board of Education will meet in special session Tuesday night to fill this vacancy and make any other appointments or reassignments that may be necessary prior to the opening of school September 3.

Teen skin troubles will be avoided if these inner and outer ways of keeping the complexion clear are followed!

SECRETS OF CHARM

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

Just when she wants to return to school looking all tanned and terrific, what's a gal going to do if she finds her complexion plagued by oiliness and blemishes?

Three things, I hope! The three things will clear up the condition before the gang assembles.

The first is to scorn those foods that cause the trouble and to go for those that help your beauty display perfection! You'll never be hungry but you'll be complexion happy, if every day's meals are planned as this one is:

Oily-Skin Diet

Breakfast: Citrus fruit or juice, cereal or boiled egg, toast sparingly buttered, milk. Lunch: Clear soup, sandwich of lean meat with no dressing, fresh fruit or gelatin dessert without cream, buttermilk. Dinner: Broiled or roasted meat, green vegetable, yellow vegetable, green salad without dressing, fruit dessert, plain cake or custard, milk or buttermilk. Between meal snacks: Fruit, lollypop, plain cookies, or milk.

Like the plague, avoid chocolate, nuts, fried foods, creamy foods, spicy foods such as pickles, fat meats and fish such as sardines, and soda pop.

While you're wooing a smooth, clear skin from within, attack the blemishes from without with this second step in the program:

Wash your face very gently four times a day with one of the soaps designed for oily skin. Rinse thoroughly after each washing by filling your cupped hands with tepid water and splashing it over your face until all the soap is gone and your skin squeaks to the touch.

Important Precautions

And here's the third and vitally important part of retrieving skin beauty. Discard anything that might contaminate your skin. Dermatologists say the blemishes are irritated and spread by such things as wash cloths, complexion brushes and powder puffs that are not kept sterile. In lieu of a wash cloth, until your skin clears, each time you wash use a fresh, sterile gauze pad (available at the druggists). And for the rest of your life, use a clean piece of absorbent cotton or a cotton ball when you apply cosmetics.

"What a bore!" did you say? Not for a minute when you remember the joys of having a smooth, clear skin!

Is He a Murderer?

Barry Markham sits in the grim quiet of his cell — and ponders his fate. They call him a murderer. The evidence points to his guilt — points to the fact that he killed Colonel Bell — his wife's father. Is it true then that the Colonel was trying to break up Barry's marriage? Or is it closer to the truth that Chichi was more than a friend to Barry?

Teen skin troubles will be avoided if these inner and outer ways of keeping the complexion clear are followed!

SECRETS OF CHARM

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

Just when she wants to return to school looking all tanned and terrific, what's a gal going to do if she finds her complexion plagued by oiliness and blemishes?

Three things, I hope! The three things will clear up the condition before the gang assembles.

The first is to scorn those foods that cause the trouble and to go for those that help your beauty display perfection! You'll never be hungry but you'll be complexion happy, if every day's meals are planned as this one is:

Oily-Skin Diet

Breakfast: Citrus fruit or juice, cereal or boiled egg, toast sparingly buttered, milk. Lunch: Clear soup, sandwich of lean meat with no dressing, fresh fruit or gelatin dessert without cream, buttermilk. Dinner: Broiled or roasted meat, green vegetable, yellow vegetable, green salad without dressing, fruit dessert, plain cake or custard, milk or buttermilk. Between meal snacks: Fruit, lollypop, plain cookies, or milk.

Like the plague, avoid chocolate, nuts, fried foods, creamy foods, spicy foods such as pickles, fat meats and fish such as sardines, and soda pop.

While you're wooing a smooth, clear skin from within, attack the blemishes from without with this second step in the program:

Wash your face very gently four times a day with one of the soaps designed for oily skin. Rinse thoroughly after each washing by filling your cupped hands with tepid water and splashing it over your face until all the soap is gone and your skin squeaks to the touch.

Important Precautions

And here's the third and vitally important part of retrieving skin beauty. Discard anything that might contaminate your skin. Dermatologists say the blemishes are irritated and spread by such things as wash cloths, complexion brushes and powder puffs that are not kept sterile. In lieu of a wash cloth, until your skin clears, each time you wash use a fresh, sterile gauze pad (available at the druggists). And for the rest of your life, use a clean piece of absorbent cotton or a cotton ball when you apply cosmetics.

"What a bore!" did you say? Not for a minute when you remember the joys of having a smooth, clear skin!

We are taking this means to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the illness and bereavement of our father and brother, Louie Cowatch, Front Street, Westernport.

We also wish to thank those who sent floral tributes and donated the use of their cars for the funeral.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear Wife and Mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Buckalew, who departed from this life three years ago today, August 28, 1948.

Not lost—just gone before.
And in the home not made by hands
The Master will prepare
A place for us, and when He calls,
We'll meet our Mother there.

Card Of Thanks

We are taking this means to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the illness and bereavement of our father and brother, Louis Cowatch, Front Street, Westernport.

We also wish to thank those who sent floral tributes and donated the use of their cars for the funeral.

Sons, Leo and Tony Cowatch and Brothers, Francis, Paul and Julian Cowatch.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear Wife and Mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Buckalew, who departed from this life three years ago today, August 28, 1948.

There is a home not made by hands;
Beyond it's golden door
Awaits the one who is gone away
Not lost—just gone before.
And in the home not made by hands
The Master will prepare
A place for us, and when He calls,
We'll meet our Mother there.

Sadly missed by her Husband and Daughters.

Market, In Slowest Trading In Six Weeks, Slides Lower

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—In the slowest trading in a month and a half, the stock market today slid listlessly lower.

There were one or two apparent efforts to make some progress, but these tries were smothered by indifference.

Losses among leaders seldom went past a little more than a dollar a share. There were scattered small gains except for a few independently strong issues that went ahead on buying based on corporate developments.

The volume of trading came to 1,080,000 shares. That's the lowest since July 12. Friday's total was 1,210,000 shares.

Steels were lower all day.

Automobiles, although showing some activity, didn't get anywhere. Four leaders ended unchanged—General Motors 49¼ (fifth most active stock in the entire list), Chrysler 69, Packard 5, and Studebaker 26½.

Copper companies, now at a standstill because of a nationwide strike of union workers, were mostly lower. Kennecott Copper late in the day with a spurt of individual strength gained 1⅛ at 79⅞. Other coppers were down fractions to two points.

Cerro De Pasco dropped two points from its year's high of Friday to 47⅞.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 20 cents at $95.90 with the industrial component off 20 cents, rails off 60 cents, and utilities up 30 cents.

Utility improvement was largely a reflection of the gain of 1¼ at 40¼ by Western Union.

The market was not very broad with 1,090 individual issues traded of which 335 advanced and 499 declined with 11 new highs and 12 new lows. There were 1,061 issues traded Friday.

Market, In Slowest Trading In Six Weeks, Slides Lower

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—In the slowest trading in a month and a half, the stock market today slid listlessly lower.

There were one or two apparent efforts to make some progress, but these tries were smothered by indifference.

Losses among leaders seldom went past a little more than a dollar a share. There were scattered small gains except for a few independently strong issues that went ahead on buying based on corporate developments.

The volume of trading came to 1,080,000 shares. That's the lowest since July 12. Friday's total was 1,210,000 shares.

Steels were lower all day.

Automobiles, although showing some activity, didn't get anywhere. Four leaders ended unchanged—General Motors 49¼ (fifth most active stock in the entire list), Chrysler 69, Packard 5, and Studebaker 26½.

Copper companies, now at a standstill because of a nationwide strike of union workers, were mostly lower. Kennecott Copper late in the day with a spurt of individual strength gained 1⅛ at 79⅞. Other coppers were down fractions to two points.

Cerro De Pasco dropped two points from its year's high of Friday to 47⅞.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 20 cents at $95.90 with the industrial component off 20 cents, rails off 60 cents, and utilities up 30 cents.

Utility improvement was largely a reflection of the gain of 1¼ at 40¼ by Western Union.

The market was not very broad with 1,090 individual issues traded of which 335 advanced and 499 declined with 11 new highs and 12 new lows. There were 1,061 issues traded Friday.

"The Authority on Authorities"

MAYBE NOT IMPOSSIBLE

WHAT LOOKS like an impossible contract, upon first inspection, may prove not to be impossible at all, but strictly makeable. There have been countless cases of keen declarers who have pulled the fat out of the fire against the most tremendous odds, simply because they figured out what had to be the situation in order for them to succeed, and then played for it. The trick hands that are passed around from player to player are no more unusual than some produced by the ordinary shuffle and deal, and some of the latter afford the same chances for spectacular results.

VFW Post Will Burn Mortgage Thursday Night

3-Day Observance Set At Lonaconing

Lonaconing Veterans of Foreign Wars will begin a three-day celebration tomorrow in connection with the burning of the mortgage on their post home Thursday night.

Members of Alvin C. Neat Post No. 5280 plan a band concert and male beauty contest tomorrow night. The mortgage-burning ceremony will take place Thursday, and a parade is scheduled Friday. Dances will be held each night.

The Arion Band of Frostburg will give a concert on the lawn of the post home at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow. The male beauty contest will follow. The Sad Sacks and the Fat Men's Chorus also will perform.

Eleven contestants will vie for the "queen's" crown. The queen will reign at a dance following the event.

Concert Planned

Thursday night, the Lonaconing City Band will present a concert on the lawn of the home. A mass obligation of new members will be conducted, and formal retreat will be held by members of the 372nd Military Police Escort Guard Company, which meets at the post home.

Marshall Fatkin will be master of ceremonies. Expected to attend are Mayor Virgil Alexander and town councilmen, state VFW officers, past commanders of the post and its auxiliary, and Lonaconing clergymen.

Parade Friday Night

Friday night's parade will form at the VFW home and march to Main Street, then to the post home, where it will disband. Melvin James will be parade marshal.

Prizes of $50 each will be awarded to the best band, drum corps and fire company. Second prize in each class will be $25.

Joseph Humphrey is general chairman for the three-day celebration. Arch Stewart is treasurer, and Pershing Holmes is chairman of the beauty contest.

The concessions committee includes Earl O'Halloran, Harold Doolan, James Burt, Lee Miller, Alex Gardner, Clarence Wilson and John C. Gunter. Members of the publicity committee are Dalton Major, Thomas Park, Harold Moyer and Arch Stewart.

Woman Sues Local Grocer

A $7,000 damage suit was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court against a North Centre Street grocer by a woman who charges that she broke her right arm when she fell over a crate of eggs in the store.

The suit was filed for Mrs. Ruth V. Groves, 457 North Centre Street, by Attorney E. M. Horchler. Named as defendant was D. A. Langer, 505 North Centre Street, trading individually and as D. A. Langer's Grocery Store.

In her declaration, Mrs. Groves said she entered the defendant's store as a customer last October 27. She contends she stumbled against and fell over a crate of eggs which she claims was placed so it protruded into an aisle normally used by customers.

As a result of the fall, Mrs. Groves broke her right arm and lost maximum use of it, she concludes.

City Tax Bills Are Being Prepared

Some 13,000 city tax bills will be mailed by September 17, George E. Davis, city collector, announced yesterday.

Printed forms for the tax bills have been received and work on the bills will get underway as soon as possible he said.

Last year, he noted, 88 per cent of the tax bills were paid by October 14.

Roby Will Head Recreation Board

Clifton Van Roby was elected chairman of the Cumberland Recreation Board at a meeting last night in Central YMCA.

He succeeds John I. Spiker, whose term expired in May.

Members of the board present were Lewyn C. Davis, Albert S. Paye, Edward Diehl, Homer Berry and Mrs. Fuller B. Whitworth, secretary.

DR. J. H. FURBAY

County Teachers Set For General Meeting Sept. 15

Dr. Furbay Will Address Group

Dr. John Harvey Furbay, who will address the approximately 600 Allegany County public school teachers and principals in the Allegany High School auditorium at 10 a. m. Saturday, September 15, is termed one of America's most dynamic interpreters of international life and living.

School Superintendent Charles L. Kopp said yesterday that Dr. Furbay is a doctor of philosophy from Yale University and has many years of teaching to his credit. A fellow of the Royal Geographic Society of London and the Royal Anthropological Institute, he has lived with the peoples of many countries, studying their customs, history and philosophies.

After completing studies at Ohio State University, New York University, Yale and the Sorbonne, he became a university professor in Indiana. While there he directed the excavation of a pre-historic mastodon in 1928. After a year in Europe, followed by a teaching assignment at the College of Emporia, he became president of the College of West Africa in Monrovia, Liberia.

As a specialist in education in Latin America for the United States Offices of Education, he was attached to the United States embassies in Costa Rica and Colombia.

UNESCO Observer

Dr. Furbay was an official observer at the first United Nations meeting in San Francisco in 1945. He also was an official observer at the World Conference of UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) during the past five years in Mexico City, Beirut, Paris and Florence.

In addition to speaking and writing commitments, Dr. Furbay is director of TWA's Global Air World Education, an organization devoted to interpreting our air world responsibilities.

Kopp has suggested that school principals might wish to invite PTA officers and others interested in school programs and problems.

Guard To Hold Autumn Staff Meeting Here

Conference Set September 29-30

The 115th Infantry Regiment, Maryland National Guard, will hold its fall regimental staff meeting at the local armory next month for the first time in its history.

Col. Randolph Millholland, regimental commander, said last night the conference will be held September 29 and 30.

It will include 12 hours of instruction and discussion for members of the regimental staff and for officers of the First, Second and Third Battalions and of special companies.

About 35 officers from all sections of Maryland except Baltimore are expected to attend the sessions.

The quarterly meetings normally are held at Camp Ritchie and at Towson, the home of regimental headquarters.

Colonel Millholland said the regiment departed from its usual practice this year so as to acquaint staff officers with sections of the state other than their own.

The spring meeting was held at Easton and the summer conference was at Salisbury.

Instruction periods will be held on Saturday, September 29, and Sunday, September 30 at the armory. A dinner for officers and their wives probably will be held Saturday, Col. Millholland said.

Saturday's sessions will run from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., and Sunday's, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. On the agenda are tactical and administrative matters, as well as regimental business.

Social Security Payments Jump 140 Per Cent

Hike Attributed To New Law

Social Security payments have increased by about 140 per cent since the enactment of a new law a year ago today, according to James S. Getty, director of the local office.

August payments totaling $147,075,000 went to about 4,150,000 aged retired persons, wives, widows, children and dependent parents. Figures for August 1950 were $61,641,000 for 2,967,055 persons.

Getty pointed out that two principal factors in the new law accounted for these increases.

First, there was the automatic increase in the level of payments to those already on the benefit rolls. It also covered all new claimants in the past year.

The other big reason for the increase is the larger number of people eligible for insurance benefits under the new law.

Persons who had been receiving the average old-age retirement payment of about $26 now receive about $48. Minimum payments of $10 were doubled.

The maximum old-age insurance payment, about $45 a year ago, is now $68.50. Many families surviving an insured wage-earner now receive the top family payment of $150 monthly.

Getty emphasized that money for the payments is not derived from general taxation, but comes from the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund, built up by contributions from workers and their employers.

Union Spurns Appeal To Aid Jailed Reds

Drop In Bail Is Asked By Group

Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America (CIO), officials yesterday reported the union will have "nothing to do" with an appeal for aid toward the defense of five Communist party leaders jailed by the FBI in Baltimore on charges of conspiring to overthrow the government by violence.

The appeal was released by Alice Meyers, Baltimore, and received through the mail yesterday.

She said the statement was "released by me, as wife of one of the defendants (George Meyers). I appeal to you to do whatever you can to help release these five men and women on reasonable bail."

She added, "I appeal to you to aid in their defense and the defense of our Bill of Rights."

A statement by Regina Frankfeld, Dorothy Blumberg, Philip Frankfeld, Meyers and Roy Wood followed in the printed letter.

Included in the appeal was the desire that a "reasonable bail, not to exceed $10,000 each" be set by the court.

It also asked for improved conditions in the Baltimore City jail, "including the right to smoke for women".

Since the FBI crackdown August 7, one of the persons caught in the dragnet has been released. He is Maurice Braverman, an attorney in Communist court suits, who furnished $5,000 bail.

Judge W. Calvin Chestnut lowered the bail of the others from $75,000 to $20,000 on August 16 and indicated he was willing to entertain a petition for a further reduction if they couldn't obtain that much.

Commenting on the appeal, Playford Aldridge, Local 1874 president, said he presumed other labor unions here received similar copies of the bulletin. Meyers was labor secretary of the Communist Party of Maryland before he became head of the state organization.

Aldridge said the TWUA union has expelled all known Communists from membership in Local 1874.

Water System Work Will Get Underway Soon

Chemical Building Plans Completed

Modernization of the chemical building at the city's filtration plant, Lake Gordon may get underway this week.

Robert R. Regester Baltimore, consultant for the city on improvements at Lake Gordon, informed Water Commissioner George H. Tederick yesterday he will be in Cumberland tomorrow.

Regester reported that he expects to bring with him plans needed by George M. Hitchcock, superintendent of the water company, for modernization of the persent chemical building at the dam.

He will also report to Commissioner Tederick on progress of plans for six additional filters.

Filter Plans Progress

Regester yesterday told Commissioner Tederick that plans for the urgently needed filters are progressing and he has been devoting all of his time to the task.

The chemical building work, estimated to cost about $10,000, will enable the city for the first time to treat water with chemicals before it reaches the filters.

Better control of the entire purification process will result from the improved chemical treatment facilities, officials said.

Provides For Future

Regester was authorized on August 6, to prepare bidding, plans for six new filters at the dam. Work is estimated to cost about $150,000.

Increased use of water in the Cumberland area, which this year has exceeded the 12,000,000 gallons a day filtering capacity of the water system, has placed the filter project in the urgent class.

The 18,000,000 gallons a day filtering capacity the new filters will provide will bring the total capacity of the plant to a mark, sufficient, officials estimate, to take care of the domestic and industrial needs of the area for years to come.

Two Residents Are Ordained To Priesthood

Received Into Capuchin Order At Pittsburgh

Rev. Gary James Stakem, O.F.M. Cap., and Rev. Ronald David Lawler, O. F. M. Cap., both of Cumberland, were ordained to the priesthood this morning by the Most Rev. Apollinaris Baumgartner, O. F. M. Cap., D. D., at St. Augustine's Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father Gary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Stakem, live at 414 Fayette Street. Father Ronald is the son of Mrs. Leo T. Lawler of 214 Fayette Street.

Class Of Five

The two local priests were members of a class of five Capuchins elevated to the priesthood in the first ordination ceremony ever held at historic old St. Augustine's. The new priests received the spiritual powers of the priesthood from Bishop Baumgartner, missionary bishop of the Order, who flew here from his post in Guam.

Very Rev. Giles Staab, O. F. M. Cap., Rector of Capuchin College in Washington, D. C., was archdeacon of the ordination service.

Following their prostration on the sanctuary floor of the church during the impressive chanting of the Litany of All Saints, the candidates approached the bishop who placed his hands on the head of each and thus transferred to them the power and grace of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. From this point on the voices of the new priests blended with the voice of the bishop in reciting the ancient prayers of Mass.

Clothed With Vestments

The new priests marched one by one to the foot of the altar to be clothed with the vestments they will henceforth wear at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The hands of each were carefully anointed with holy oil and the ceremony closed with the bishop embracing each new priest and welcoming him into the priesthood.

The Capuchin Seminary Choir of St. Mary's Monastery, Herman, Pa., sang for the ceremonies.

Tax Discount Deadline Near

Cumberland area taxpayers were reminded yesterday by Tax Collector Ernest B. Treat that midnight Friday is the deadline for discounts on county and state taxes.

During August a 3 per cent discount is permitted. Treat's office at the Court House is open from 9 a. m. until noon on Saturday. Beginning Saturday, which is September 1, one-half per cent interest will be added to the county taxes. Interest will be added on state taxes beginning October 1.

Although payments may not be made at Treat's office after 4 p. m. Friday to receive the discount, mailed payments postmarked before midnight Friday will be accepted.

Treat reported yesterday that payments in his office this month have totaled about $35,000. In June they ran to about $1,600,000 and in July aggregated $103,000. About 90 per cent of the anticipated taxes are paid through the office at the Court House. There are two other tax collection districts in the county.

Williams Street Crossing May Be Closed To Traffic

B. & O. Asks City To Approve Proposal Offering Overhead Bridge For Pedestrians

Citing hazards resulting from 17 tracks and heavy switching operations, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has asked the City of Cumberland to close the Williams Street crosing to vehicular traffic. An overhead bridge would be provided for pedestrians.

Details of the plan were disclosed in a letter to the city from Chester T. Williams, superintendent of the Cumberland Division.

The present crossing at Williams Street, due to yard switching and main track movement, presents a hazard to pedestrians and vehicular traffic which no amount of protection provided by the railroad could reduce, Williams said.

Traffic Diminished

Vehicular traffic has diminished in recent months, he added, undoubtedly due to the knowledge of motorists of the hazards existing at the crossing.

Reasons cited in the request for the closing of the crossing to vehicles were:

Closing of the crossing would permit the B and O better utilization of existing facilities and would fit in with the proposed construction of new yard facilities in Cumberland.

Use of the crossing by pedestrians and vehicles is particularly hazardous due to the physical characteristics of the crossing.

When the crossing is closed to vehicular traffic, yard switching movements over the main thoroughfare at Baltimore Street should be somewhat reduced, thus eliminating some of the traffic congestion at that heavily traveled thoroughfare.

Pedestrian Bridge

In consideration of the city closing Williams Street to vehicular traffic, the B and O agrees to erect, subject to City approval, an overhead pedestrian bridge walkway, the plans of which will be furnished for approval of the City when permission is granted to close Williams Street to vehicular traffic.

There was no immediate comment from City officials on the plan broached at a recent meeting between city and railroad officials.

Chemical Building Plans Completed

Modernization of the chemical building at the city's filtration plant, Lake Gordon may get underway this week.

Robert R. Regester Baltimore, consultant for the city on improvements at Lake Gordon, informed Water Commissioner George H. Tederick yesterday he will be in Cumberland tomorrow.

Regester reported that he expects to bring with him plans needed by George M. Hitchcock, superintendent of the water company, for modernization of the persent chemical building at the dam.

He will also report to Commissioner Tederick on progress of plans for six additional filters.

Filter Plans Progress

Regester yesterday told Commissioner Tederick that plans for the urgently needed filters are progressing and he has been devoting all of his time to the task.

The chemical building work, estimated to cost about $10,000, will enable the city for the first time to treat water with chemicals before it reaches the filters.

Better control of the entire purification process will result from the improved chemical treatment facilities, officials said.

Provides For Future

Regester was authorized on August 6, to prepare bidding, plans for six new filters at the dam. Work is estimated to cost about $150,000.

Increased use of water in the Cumberland area, which this year has exceeded the 12,000,000 gallons a day filtering capacity of the water system, has placed the filter project in the urgent class.

The 18,000,000 gallons a day filtering capacity the new filters will provide will bring the total capacity of the plant to a mark, sufficient, officials estimate, to take care of the domestic and industrial needs of the area for years to come.

Fire Officials Will Attend Training Course

Two officials of the Cumberland Fire Department will attend the annual Short Course for Firemen at College Park September 4 to 7, John J. Long, police and fire commissioner, announced last night.

They are Assistant Fire Chief Robert C. Long and Lt. Thomas W. Lindner.

Representatives of virtually every fire fighting unit in Maryland are expected to attend the fire fighting school sponsored by the University of Maryland.

Former Fire Chief J. T. Defibaugh and Former Assistant Chief R. Paul Reid represented the department at the meeting last year.

Assistant Chief Long is also enrolled in the 10-week fire instructors class being conducted at LaVale Fire Hall by Robert C. Byrus, chief of the Fire Extension Service.

Twenty instructors of this area are enrolled in the course which will be completed in November.

Farmer Meeting Letters Planned

Form letters will be prepared this week and mailed to approximately 1,000 farmers in Allegany County informing them of the three meetings planned by the Allegany County Agriculture Mobilization Board next week for explanation of the Department of Agriculture's various programs.

Details on the meetings were developed yesterday morning at a meeting attended by Albert O'Neal, committee chairman; County Agent R. F. McHenry and Soil Conservationist Martin Gordon.

Meetings will be held Wednesday, September 5, at the LaVale Fire Hall, Thursday, September 6, at the Eckhart Squared Circle Club, and Friday, September 7, at Flintstone High School for people in those areas. These meetings, chiefly for explanation, will be followed in each community seven days later by followup sessions for general discussion by interested county residents.

The 12 specific agencies to be discussed in this county and others in Maryland are Agricultural Research Administration, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Cooperative Extension Service, Office of Information, Production and Marketing Administration, Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service, Farm Credit Administration, Farmers Home Administration, Rural Electrification Administration, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation and Commodity Exchange Authority.

Weather

A ten-day dry spell came to a halt yesterday when the Queen City was visited by a slight shower during the early morning hours. The rain was hardly enough to settle the dust. High temperature recorded at Constitution Park weather station was 79, the low 60 and at 8 o'clock last night it was 71. Humidity at 6 p. m. yesterday was 59 per cent, and rainfall was .09 of an inch. Forecast for today is possible scattered showers.

Two Residents Are Ordained To Priesthood

Received Into Capuchin Order At Pittsburgh

Rev. Gary James Stakem, O.F.M. Cap., and Rev. Ronald David Lawler, O. F. M. Cap., both of Cumberland, were ordained to the priesthood this morning by the Most Rev. Apollinaris Baumgartner, O. F. M. Cap., D. D., at St. Augustine's Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father Gary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Stakem, live at 414 Fayette Street. Father Ronald is the son of Mrs. Leo T. Lawler of 214 Fayette Street.

Class Of Five

The two local priests were members of a class of five Capuchins elevated to the priesthood in the first ordination ceremony ever held at historic old St. Augustine's. The new priests received the spiritual powers of the priesthood from Bishop Baumgartner, missionary bishop of the Order, who flew here from his post in Guam.

Very Rev. Giles Staab, O. F. M. Cap., Rector of Capuchin College in Washington, D. C., was archdeacon of the ordination service.

Following their prostration on the sanctuary floor of the church during the impressive chanting of the Litany of All Saints, the candidates approached the bishop who placed his hands on the head of each and thus transferred to them the power and grace of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. From this point on the voices of the new priests blended with the voice of the bishop in reciting the ancient prayers of Mass.

Clothed With Vestments

The new priests marched one by one to the foot of the altar to be clothed with the vestments they will henceforth wear at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The hands of each were carefully anointed with holy oil and the ceremony closed with the bishop embracing each new priest and welcoming him into the priesthood.

The Capuchin Seminary Choir of St. Mary's Monastery, Herman, Pa., sang for the ceremonies.

Tax Discount Deadline Near

Cumberland area taxpayers were reminded yesterday by Tax Collector Ernest B. Treat that midnight Friday is the deadline for discounts on county and state taxes.

During August a 3 per cent discount is permitted. Treat's office at the Court House is open from 9 a. m. until noon on Saturday. Beginning Saturday, which is September 1, one-half per cent interest will be added to the county taxes. Interest will be added on state taxes beginning October 1.

Although payments may not be made at Treat's office after 4 p. m. Friday to receive the discount, mailed payments postmarked before midnight Friday will be accepted.

Treat reported yesterday that payments in his office this month have totaled about $35,000. In June they ran to about $1,600,000 and in July aggregated $103,000. About 90 per cent of the anticipated taxes are paid through the office at the Court House. There are two other tax collection districts in the county.

Lions Will Meet

"The Merchant of Venice" will be presented at the weekly luncheon meeting of Cumberland Lions Club tomorrow at 12:15 p. m. at Central YMCA. The program committee reminds members a surprise is in store.

Williams Street Crossing May Be Closed To Traffic

B. & O. Asks City To Approve Proposal Offering Overhead Bridge For Pedestrians

Citing hazards resulting from 17 tracks and heavy switching operations, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has asked the City of Cumberland to close the Williams Street crosing to vehicular traffic. An overhead bridge would be provided for pedestrians.

Details of the plan were disclosed in a letter to the city from Chester T. Williams, superintendent of the Cumberland Division.

The present crossing at Williams Street, due to yard switching and main track movement, presents a hazard to pedestrians and vehicular traffic which no amount of protection provided by the railroad could reduce, Williams said.

Traffic Diminished

Vehicular traffic has diminished in recent months, he added, undoubtedly due to the knowledge of motorists of the hazards existing at the crossing.

Reasons cited in the request for the closing of the crossing to vehicles were:

Closing of the crossing would permit the B and O better utilization of existing facilities and would fit in with the proposed construction of new yard facilities in Cumberland.

Use of the crossing by pedestrians and vehicles is particularly hazardous due to the physical characteristics of the crossing.

When the crossing is closed to vehicular traffic, yard switching movements over the main thoroughfare at Baltimore Street should be somewhat reduced, thus eliminating some of the traffic congestion at that heavily traveled thoroughfare.

Pedestrian Bridge

In consideration of the city closing Williams Street to vehicular traffic, the B and O agrees to erect, subject to City approval, an overhead pedestrian bridge walkway, the plans of which will be furnished for approval of the City when permission is granted to close Williams Street to vehicular traffic.

There was no immediate comment from City officials on the plan broached at a recent meeting between city and railroad officials.

WSB Calls For End To Copper Strike

Union Wants Government Assurances

58,000 Workers Are Reported Idle

DENVER, Aug. 27 (AP)—The president of striking union workers who stopped the production of defense-vital copper said tonight the strike would not be called off "unless and until" the government presses the companies to accept a government-proposed settlement.

John Clark, president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, made the statement pending receipt of a request from the Wage Stabilization Board that the men return to work.

The WSB was asked today by President Truman to attempt to settle the dispute.

The union said about 58,000 workers in the copper, lead, zinc and silver industries, walked off their jobs today in a wage dispute.Charles E. Wilson, defense mobilization director, told President Truman the strike would "drastically curtail the production of tanks, guns, planes and other military items for the defense program as well as items required from the civilian economy."

Hearing On Wednesday

Clark said his union would send representatives to Washington for a hearing scheduled for 1 p. m. (EST) Wednesday at the wage board's headquarters. But Clark's statement added:

"We cannot, of course, agree to call off our strike unless and until we receive assurances from the government that it will press for acceptance by the companies of its own proposal for settlement of the dispute."

The union said federal mediators had proposed to the strike-bound companies a wage settlement proposing wage increase averaging 16 cents an hour and a pension plan to cost an additional four and one-half cents. The union said this proposal was acceptable to it.

Clark said that when his union representatives appear before the WSB in Washington they will "urge acceptance of the proposal made yesterday by Cyrus Ching, director of the U. S. Conciliation Service for settlement of the dispute between this union and the non-ferrous metals operators."

Union Expelled From CIO

Clark added "we will remind the board that this union has already called upon President Truman to "use his good offices' to obtain acceptance by the metal companies of the Ching proposal, which we accepted almost imediately after it was made.

The mine-mill union was expelled from the CIO last year when the executive board sustained findings that the IMMSWU had Communist leanings. The union once was a

Gromyko Picketed On Arrival In U. S.

Scores of pickets from the American-Hungarian Federation carry placards denouncing communism and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko as they mass near the New York pier where the Queen Elizabeth docketd yesterday with Gromyko aboard. The Soviet diplomat heads a 31-man delegation which is en route to the San Francisco conference on the Japanese peace treaty.

India's Boycott Of Jap Pact May Hit Aid Program

"Repercussions" Feared By Lehman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — India's boycott of the Japanese peace treaty conference may bring about a tougher U. S. policy towards her, and backfire on the U. S. foreign aid programs.

Sen. Lehman (D-Lib-NY), a backer of the air programs, said today he fears there will be "a lot of repercussions."

Key State Department officials said India's denunciation of the proposed treaty seemed to follow the Soviet line and gave support to a Moscow propaganda drive apparently aimed at wrecking the treaty negotiations.

A 32-man delegation, led by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, arrived in New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth today en route to the peace conference. The parley opens Sept. 4 in San Francisco.

No Clue To Soviet Plans

Scowling, Gromyko gave newsmen no clue of Russia's intentions.

In Moscow, the Soviet government newspaper denounced the proposed treaty as an American attempt to make Japan into a U. S. colony and set the Japanese aginst other Asiatic peoples.

American diplomats were bitter in expressing their disappointment at India's attitude. One official attributed it to what he termed a misguided effort by India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru to chart a middle-of-the-road course in the East-West conflict in the hope of emerging as leader of the Asiatic democracies.

India Received U. S. Help

Sen. Lehman's fears about the effect the Indian developments will have on foreign aid were expressed against a background of fund cuts the $8,500,000,000 program already has suffered, and the prospects of more. Debate is to start in the Senate tomorrow on how much money to grant.

Sen. Wherry (R-Neb), Republican floor leader, said in the Senate today that India's actions prove that U. S. shipments abroad do not necessarily win friends.

Dean Says U.S. Now Producing A-Bombs On Industrial Basis

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. (AP)—Gordon Dean, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, said today the United States is now producing atomic bombs on an "industrial rather than on a laboratory basis."

Dean did not elaborate beyond saying that the a-bombs produced today are "greatly improved in design and considerably more powerful" than those used in World War II.

The AEC head made the comment in a Look magazine interview. On the basis of this, the magazine speculated that the United States is now stockpiling 250 atomic bombs a year and said "it is reasonable to guess that this rate will be doubled or tripled in the next two or three years."

Kidnaped Clerk Is Found Slain

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 27 (AP)—The body of an attractive young woman night clerk kidnaped from a "Gold Coast" hotel five days ago was found on a lonely dairy farm road today, her skull shattered by a bullet.

Mrs. Lewana Newman, 23, was last seen alive at 3 a. m. Wednesday behind the desk of the Gould Hotel near Sunny Isles, on the ocean front north of Miami Beach. Missing from the cash drawer was $925.

O. D. Henderson, sheriff's chief deputy, declared she was kidnaped by a bandit and slain. Mute evidence of her struggle with the killer were bloodstains, one shoe, a broken belt buckle and one earring found outside the hotel entrance.

The other shoe and earring were on the body when found. She carried a key to a strong box containing $7,100 in cash and jewels left untouched at the hotel.

A former boy friend of Mrs. Newman, arrested yesterday, was released today after questioning.

Senate Resumes Battle Over Aid Curb Bill Today

Placed On Calendar After Torrid Debate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—What looked like a prospective filibuster was broken up tonight when the Senate formally agreed to take up tomorrow a hotly-disputed bill aimed at choking off the flow of arms to Russia and her satellites.

After several hours of talk over whether it should put the measure on its calendar for immediate consideration, the Senate agreed by a roll-call vote of 32 to 29 to take it up Tuesday.

The Senate then recessed until noon tomorrow, putting an end to what had appeared likely to be a prolonged night session.

The bill which aroused the storm of debate is designed to suspend all American aid for any nation engaging in prohibited trade with iron curtain countries. However the administration would have some discretion in enforcing it.

Malone Talks 92 Minutes

Before the Senate quit for the night, Sen. Malone (R-Nev) had made one 92-minute speech to a handful of senators.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) then demanded a quorum call. After 25 minutes, 49 senators out of the total membership of 90 straggled in.

Malone then began a second speech under Senate rules which permit each member to make two talks on the same subject.

Finally the Democratic and Republican leaders in the Senate reached an agreement to vote tonight on whether the aid bill should be put on the calendar.

That brought an end to tonight's speech making.

GOP Backs Rival Bill

The fight over the bill will be resumed when the Senate meets again.

Its Republican opponents, led by Sens. Gem (R-Mo) and Malone contend the measure is too weak.

The Republicans are rallying behind a rival measure sponsored by Kem and Sen. Wherry (Neb), the Republican floor leader.

What the Republicans are shooting at is a House-passed bill, sponsored by Rep. Battle (D-Ala).

Earlier Malone denounced the bill as a "war bill," asserting it would let Great Britain ship strategic goods to China and Russia "until in a few years, maybe in a few months they have built up to fight a war against us."

Agar Given Jail Term For Drunken Driving

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27 (AP)—Actor John Agar, divorced husband of Shirley Temple, was sentenced today to five months in jail for drunken driving. His ex-wife's name figured in the proceedings.

Agar was convicted on one count recently, then pleaded guilty to a second and applied for probation.

A psychiatrist told the court that Agar's drinking was "a neurotic reaction to a series of unhappy experiences in his first marraige." Attorney Llewellyn Moses asked for leniency because his clinent was emotionally upset.

Corporate Tax Hike Softened By Senate Unit

House Figure Cut To $2,280,000,000

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee voted late today to boost corporation taxes by $2,280,000,000 a year. Committee experts figured this would chop $760,000,000 from new corporation levies voted by the House.

It was the biggest cut the senators have made in the $7,200,000,000 House tax bill. Senate committee reductions now total $1,640,000,000 and the committee is far from through with the measure.

Even without further pruning, the committee version as it now stands would raise only $5,560,000,000 more annually. That's just a little over half the ten billion dollar increase urged by President Truman and Treasury Secretary Snyder to fight inflation and pay-as-you-go for defense.

No Effective Date Set

Chairman George (D-Ga:) said the committee hasn't agreed yet on an effective date for its corporate taxes. The House bill would make new corporate taxes effective last Jan. 1. There is some sentiment in the Senate to pick a later date.

Senate committee comparisons with the House bill are based on an estimate the House plan would raise corporate taxes $3,040,000,000. This was the House figure before adjustments which House experts estimated would make the net gain in their bill only $2,855,000,000. Using the House experts' figures, the Senate committee reduction would amount to $575,000,000 instead of the $760,000,000 announced by Senate calculators.

Decisions Subject To Change

The Senate committee figured its corporate levies would slice $610,000,000 from excess profits taxes and $150,000,000 from corporation income taxes as passed by the House.

Biggest previous reduction voted by the Finance Committee was $438,000,000 from the House plan for hiking personal income taxes, putting the increase at $2,409,000,000. All the decisions are subject to later change when the committee reviews the tax bill as a whole.

War Games End In U. S. Victory

FORT BRAGG, N. C., Aug. 27 (AP)—Exercise Southern Pine, like all good war games, ended today with a complete victory for U. S. defending forces.

They even "killed" the imaginary dictator of the enemy aggressor, Gen. Arturo Aguinaldo.

The two-week Army-Air Force mock war involving more than 100,000 soldiers and airmen, ended at 7:20 a. m. (EST) after an enemy aggressor force had been crushed by the three divisions of the U. S. Seventh Corps. The divisions were the 28th and 43rd Infantry Divisions and the 82nd Airborne Division.

News of the end of the war games spread rapidly through the ranks. There was some shouting among the third ground troops, who had trudged many a mile over the rolling, pine-covered Carolina sandhills.

To many of the troops, the end of the war games meant special passes to their homes. To all of them, it meant a return to their home stations, scattered across the nation, for normal training under more comfortable conditions.

M'Arthur Reportedly Rejected Baseball Job

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Chicago Tribune says tonight it has been informed that Gen. Douglas MacArthur has politely but firmly turned down the job of baseball commissioner.

In a dispatch from Washington, the Tribune quoted a baseball club owner as saying that a committee had spent three hours with MacArthur in his New York hotel suite last week.

The newspaper said its informant asked that his name not be made public but quoted him as reporting that the committee had told MacArthur that he would be elected by an unanimous vote if he would accept.

MacArthur is reported to have told the committee that the "offer was a great honor," but that he "could not accept the job."

Dragging Out West Europe Arms Buildup Could 'Break' U. S., Eisenhower Believes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has told a congressional committee studying the rearming of Western Europe that "the one thing that can break the United Staes and give us nothing in return is to drag this thing out."

"We must go to the limit of our producing capacity and of the power of Europe to absorb our military assistance, and get it done now," the commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization said at his base in Europe.

Senators Release Report

His statement was in a report which a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee released today, after censoring, on its day-to-day hearings in Europe in July. A report on the group's findings was released Aug. 12.

At that time, Eisenhower was quoted as saying that the free world's strength is so great "it is almost ridiculous for us to be talking in terms of fright and hysteria."

Today's hearings report quoted him: .

"The struggle going on in the world is for the minds and hearts of men. It is an ideological struggle. There is every possible way of going about the thing, and open warfare is only one method.

"I honestly believe that if you make Western Europe strong enough, the Russians will just turn somewhere else where the picking is easier because they have got the world over to choose from. x x x

United Europe Called Key

"I believe that—and this may be a bit on the naive side—but I believe that France and Germany are going to continue to grow closer and closer together."

Eisenhower spoke hopefully of the day when all Western Europe might be joined together in a federal union, saying:

"I realize that a lot of my professional associates are going to think that I am completely crazy, but I will tell you that joining Europe together is the key to the whole thing. And if you can help do it with a European army, I am ready to put a lot of work in it."

Police Fear Missing Girl Kidnap Victim

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27 (AP)—"Someone has taken her and is holding her," a grieving mother cried today as fear rose for the safety of her little girl.

While Mrs. Elizabeth Potts sobbed softly, more than 1,000 Cleveland park workers and police kept hunting for her daughter, blonde Beverely Potts, 10. Beverely has been missing since 9 o'clock Friday night.

"I haven't given up hope," said Mrs. Potts, glancing again and again at Beverely's doll house on the dining room table in their west side home.

"But I can't help thinking someone might have pushed her in a culvert or thrown her in the lake."

From the beginning, police had operated on the theory that a sex pervert seized Beverly.

Deputy Inspector James E. McArthur, who assigned half the detective force exclusively to the search for Beverly, said today: "It looks bad."

Beverly's father, Robert Potts, who like his wife is 51, is a stagehand at the Allen Theater.

Holohan Is Buried

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Maj. William V. Holohan, slain behind enemy lines in wartime Italy, was buried today, after nearly seven years.

The Defense Department has accused two fellow-soldiers in the Office of Strategic Services of slaying Holohan for political reasons.

The two, former Lt. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh, and former Sgt. Carlo G. Lodolce of Rochester, N. Y., have denied the slaying.

KIDNAPED, SLAIN—The body of Mrs. Lewana Newman (above), 23, night clerk at a "Gold Coast" hotel at Miami, was found yesterday on a dairy farm road, her skull shattered by a bullet. A sheriff's deputy declared she was kidnaped by a bandit and slain. (AP Wirephoto)

British Brush Off Idea Of American As Iran Oil Boss

Harriman Attends London Conferences

LONDON, Aug. 27 (AP) — British officials today coldly brushed off an idea to settle the Iranian oil dispute by appointing an American to manage the great Abadan refinery.

The suggestion, contained in British news dispatches from Washington, received some prominence here as Presidential Envoy W. Averell Harriman plunged into a round of talks with British leaders on the prospects of a British-Iranian settlement.

There was no evidence to suggest, however, that the idea of having an American take charge at Abadan came up during Harriman's conversations with Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet colleagues.

British officials said they have had no official word from Washington that the United States is thinking of offering such a suggestion as a way out of the deadlock the British and Iranians have developed.

One government official said: "Clearly it's an American kite. But it's a kite which won't fly."

Britain's official policy right now is to keep her foot in the Iranian door.

About 350 picked oilmen are staying on in Abadan—an island off the Iranian mainland where the world's biggest refinery is located — and they will be ready to resume operations as soon as the Tehran government gives the word.

With a big stick behind their back in the form of nearby naval and air forces, the British clearly feel they can out-wait the Iranians.

The immediate cause of the breakdown in the Tehran talks last week was the failure of the British and Iranians to agree on who should manage the Abadan refinery operations.

Demand Allies Admit Neutral Area Bombing

Reinvestigation Of Incident Asked

TOKYO, Tuesday, Aug. 28. (AP)—The Reds today offered to resume the Korean truce talks if the Allied command would admit that one of its warplanes last Wednesday bombed the neutral conference site of Kaesong.

The Reds broke off the stalled talks early Thursday. They charged that an Allied plane tried to "murder" the Communist delegates by dropping explosive bombs and fiery jellied gasoline near their quarters and then strafing the area.

The Communists broadcast their new offer. An Allied liaison officer was scheduled to pick up a message, presumably the offer, at 11:40 a. m. today (8:40 p. m., EST, Monday) at Panmunjom, near Kaesong.

A spokesman at Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters in Tokyo said the Allied commander was ready for any eventuality.

"The Communists can either continue or break off the talks," he said.

"We are ready for anything they choose to do."

The Reds in their offer demanded that the Allies reinvestigate the Kaesong bombing incident.

Ridgway already had rejected their charge as a fake and a fraud.

There was no direct comment from Ridgway on the new offer.

Ridgway's spokesman, Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, said he had no statement because "we want to see what the message actually says before saying anything at all."

U. N. command headquarters, however, was familiar with the version broadcast by Communist radio. Official communications between the Reds and Allies usually are exchanged by liaison officers at Panmunjom, six miles east of the truce town of Kaesong.

A high officer at Ridgway's headquarters pointed out:

"If Gen. Ridgway accedes to enemy demand to reinvestigate that bombing incident, he will have to eat his own words, for he has already declared the whole affair absolutely false. I don't think Ridgway will do it—unless he receives definite instruction from higher up."

Another military authority said "I feel sure now that the Reds began this armistice talk business for the sole purpose of building up their army for a big attack. They were buying time, I think and by now they have had just about all they need."

The statement by North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and Chinese Red Gen. Peng Teh-Huai was broadcast early today by the Peiping radio.

The Red conditions were so harsh that it appeared the future of the truce talks remained critically imperiled, but that the Communists were not yet ready to take responsibility for cancelling them finally.

The message, which portrayed the Red side as totally in the right and the Allies as totally in the wrong, made no mention of two new alleged violations of Kaesong's neutrality on Aug. 23 and Aug. 25 by United Nations planes and "plain-clothesmen."

Heavy Fighting Erupts In Korea

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Tuesday, Aug. 28 (AP) — Heavy fighting erupted Monday on the East-Central Korean warfront. It coincided with a new crisis in the suspended truce talks.

Reds in battalion strength shoved Allied forces back nearly two miles northwest of Yanggu, at the eastern end of strategic Hwachon reservoir. Yanggu is seven miles north of parallel 38.

The battle raged throughout the day. By nightfall, United Nations troops counterattacked to restore their positions.

Northwest of that area, sharp patrol clashes were reported in the Pyonggang region of the erstwhile "iron triangle" of Central Korea. An Allied patrol took a hill in the see-saw fighting and then was forced to pull out by dark.

Stubborn Red resistance was reported south and southeast of Kumsong, in the same general area. The Reds made limited assaults with mortar support. They were driven back.

Eighth Army headquarters reported the Communists attacked in regimental strength on the eastern front, but were hurled back by Allied artillery and fighter bombers. This was in the area west of Kansong.

Offshore, Allied warships blasted Red positions on the hills northwest of Kansong. Other U. N. naval vessels shelled highways along the Northeast Korean coast.

"Human Chain" Pulls Two Men From Flooded Cavern

ABERCRAVE, Wales, Aug. 27 (AP) —A chain of 85 men pulled two explorers to safety tonight from a flooded underground Welsh cave where they had been trapped for three days. The explorers were unhurt.

The two men had been prisoners since Saturday morning deep inside the cavern of Ogof Ffyddu, under the Welsh Mountains near here. A sudden rainstorm sent tons of water down the underground Byfyre River and blocked all exits from the cave, situated in Glamorganshire about 25 miles northeast of Swansea.

A team of deep-sea divers plunged through the stream to reach the explorers. They were spurred on by faint sounds echoing through the cave which indicated the explorers were still alive.

When the explorers—Lewis Railton, 40, and William Little, 30—had been located, the human chain was formed through the swift underground waters. The rescuers grasped the pair and yanked them to safety. They came out dirty and hungry.

Railton and iLttle are speleologists, or cave researchers.

Mrs. Railton had waited outside the cave during the whole rescue operation. Her husband came out first. Several minutes later the rescue crew brought out Little.

The men had found safety in a high chamber deep inside the cavern.

Giant Strides In Producing New Weapons Reported

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — American science, Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said today, is opening "a new doorway of scientific warfare" to reach weapons far more terrible than those employed in World War II.

He reported the United States has made giant strides in the development of guided missiles, pilotless plnes and atomic weapons, declaring, they "are already here."

"Scientific and technological advances, particularly in the field of electronics, are opening a new door of scientific warfare not even imagined in World War II," O'Mahoney said.

He spoke to reporters after a closed door meeting of a Senate Appropriations subcommittee which is studying the Armed Services' $56,000,000,000 money bill. O'Mahoney heads the subcommittee. Details of the new weapons, he said, must remain secret for security reasons.

As O'Mahoney made his report, Sen. McCarran (D-Nev) said he considers war with Russia inevitable.

He made the prediction in commenting on the Senate Judiciary Committee's decision to seek an additional $195,000 to continue its investigation of the nation's internal security through December, 1952.

Miss Shoemaker To Resign From Secretary Post

To Be Succeeded By John R. Wilson

Miss Inez Shoemaker, secretary in the office of the commissioner of Streets and Public Property, offered her resignation yesterday effective September 15.

Miss Shoemaker, 816 Hilltop Drive, will be married in the near future, her letter of resignation to the Mayor and Council said.

Mrs. Lucile W. Roeder, commissioner of streets and public property, said "the resignation is accepted with regret," and the council approved her motion to send Miss Shoemaker a letter expressing appreciation for her years of service.

Miss Shoemaker has held the secretarial post or similar position in the department for 19 years. She was employed in April, 1932.

At the same time, the council approved an order abolishing the position of secretary to the department and city engineer and that of warehouse clerk.

John R. Wilson, who has been warehouse clerk, will be transferred to the department office in City Hall as clerk effective September 1, and will assume most of the duties formerly performed by Miss Shoemaker. His salary will be $228 a month, including all salaries and bonuses previously awarded.

The date of Miss Shoemaker's resignation was based on the fact she has two weeks' vacation due her.

In other action today the council confirmed James F. Twigg, who has completed his probationary period, as billing clerk and secretary in the Water Department office at a salary of $219.50 a month effective September 1.

A proclamation naming the first week of September as "Chemistry Week" was adopted in commemmoration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the American Chemical Society.

Water consumption for the week ending Sunday averaged 13,565,000 gallons daily as compared to 12,487,000 a year ago. The water level at Lake Gordon is ten inches below the crest of the spillway and at Lake Koon four feet below.

Aunts Ask That Missing Soldier Be Declared Dead

An unusual equity suit has been docketed in Allegany County Circuit Court in which two aunts of a World War II soldier are seeking to have him declared officially dead as no word has been received from him since October 31, 1943, while he was serving with the U. S. Army in Italy.

The suit was filed by D. Lindley Sloan, attorney for Caroline Dye and Myrtle May Buchholtz, of Lonaconing, aunts of William Frederick Jones, who enlisted in the Army at the beginning of World War II and was a private in Company H, 141st Infantry.

Associate Judge George Henderson signed an order of publication giving notice to Jones, or whom it may concern, to appear in Circuit Court in person or by solicitor on or before October 15 to show cause why a decree should not be passed as requested by the two complainants.

The order of publication states that Jones was stationed a few miles north of Naples, Italy, on October 31, 1943 and that on that day along with some other soldiers, he was granted a few hours leave. He and the others went to Naples by truck, but when the trucks assembled to take the soldiers back to camp Jones was not there and up to this time his whereabouts have been unknown.

It was further stated that none of his friends, fellow soldiers or family have heard anything from or about him.

The plaintiffs declared they have made diligent inquiry about him and searched for information about him among his fellow soldiers. They have also written him many times at the address given them at the time of his induction into the Army, and at which they were accustomed to finding him.

The aunts say that after his enlistment he took out National Service Life Insurance with his aunt, Myrtle May Buckholtz as beneficiary, and later another policy for $5,000 with his aunt, Caroline Dye, as beneficiary.

The two beneficiaries have been advised by the Adjutant General's Office of the U. S. Army that their claims for insurance could not be considered until at least seven years after Jones had been missing, or had disappeared, and until proceedings had been carried to a civil court and he was officially declared dead by court order.

West Side Group Renews Complaint Over Fly Ash

Urges City Council To Seek Report

The West Side Civic Improvement Association, noting that the fly ash condition on the West Side is "no better", urged the Mayor and Council yesterday to get from the Potomac Edison Company as speedily as possible a report on the operation of its River Plant.

Attorney James Alfred Avirett, representing the group, said a request for the report was made six weeks ago to George M. Hitchcock, smoke abatement engineer.

Details were to be furnished by the company, he said, and Hitchcock was to report.

Mayor Thomas S. Post told Avirett the city is "working on it", and that the report could be expected in "the near future."

Avirett said the "condition on the West Side is no better. Porches and grass are covered with fly ash. On Braddock Road, residents had to close their windows at 1 o'clock in the morning", he said, adding that "tons of dirt" are dropped daily on the area.

The West Side group is one of the leaders in the drive for stricter enforcement of the smoke abatement ordinance.

In detail, Avirett said the association is interested in the following about operation of the River Plant: (1) Average amount of coal burned in each 24 hours; (2) the dry ash content of the coal which is being burned; and (3) the amount of dry fly ash which is captured and hauled away during the 24-hour period.

The council referred to the fire chief, police chief and city engineer for investigation and report an application by the Garland-Norton Petroleum Company to install an underground gasoline storage tank at 208 Cole Street.

Because of the Labor Day holiday, next week's council meeting will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m.

The council approved an order to close offices at 5 p. m. Friday until 9 a. m. Tuesday.

Fall Results In $25,000 Suit

Suit for $25,000 was docketed in Circuit Court yesterday by William E. Coleman against Raymond Parker, Margaret Catherine Radcliffe, Joseph H. Conway, John L. Conway and Ruth Ellen Moore for injuries allegedly received in a fall on a pair of steps leading to the basement of premises at 217 Virginia Avenue.

The declaration, filed by William R. Carscaden attorney for Coleman, states that Parker leased the premises from the other defendants listed in the suit and that Coleman was an employe of Parker at the time of the mishap.

Coleman charges that the steps were unsafe and in a dangerous condition and that his foot caught in a loose metal strip causing him to fall violently down the steps. He states he suffered a fractured skull and injuries about the body.

Coleman also claims he is disabled for life, has suffered much pain and had to undergo hospital and medical expenses due to his injuries.

Police, Firemen Get Only $12 Pay Boost

Police and firemen are not included in the recent $12 a month cost-of-living bonus granted salaried city employes.

The Mayor and Council today rescinded a previous order on the pay boost and approved another to clarify the situation.

Police and firemen received a $12 boost at the 1951 session of the General Assembly. The new order also exempts those whose salaries are fixed by contract, temporary, part-time and seasonal or probationary employes.

The bonus amounts to seven cents an hour for all hourly-paid employes.

The council also approved an order increasing the salary of Mrs. Marguerite T. Findlay, park commissioner, to $135 a month, which represents the cost-of-living bonus.

Purge Of A Memory

After the last of the old bolsheviks still alive had been purged in Stalin's Russia some wag remarked: "If Lenin were alive today, he would be dead." Lenin died on January 22, 1924, but he is still too much alive to suit Stalin. So now, it appears, a way has been found to make him deader.

A casual announcement by the Moscow radio, as heard in London, stated that January 22 will no longer be celebrated as a holiday in the Soviet Union. It has been cancelled, according to the Red radio, because of public demand. To loaf and enjoy oneself, Soviet workers have suddenly realized in large numbers, is not the appropriate way to honor the anniversary of the father of the workers' fatherland.

The Moscow radio did not say (though some may infer it) that visits to Lenin's tomb facing Red Square in Moscow will hardly be encouraged from now on, that the repeated embalmings used to keep Lenin's body presentable to the throngs that viewed it through its glass case will be discontinued, or that the term "Marxism-Leninism," now used to describe all Soviet policies, will at the appropriate time be replaced by "Marxism-Stalinism."

But it is safe to deduce that the memory of Lenin is to be permitted to fade, that Communists sensitive to the chill winds that blow under the high ceilings of the Kremlin and down the cell blocks reserved for political offenders will begin to avoid the name of Lenin, and that presently in Russia there is to be no god but Stalin.

The process of Stalin's deification, as many writers have pointed out, has gone to unbelievable lengths in Russia. Small school children memorize verses thanking him as the author of all their blessings. Grownup writers and scientists and artists testify publicly that their work could not have been completed without the ever-present inspiration of Stalin. His gargantuan pictures stare down every street and peer around every corner. Lenin is only a recumbent figure in a tomb.

But that is not good enough. Lenin was not purged. He was never forced to confess that he conspired with Stalin only knows what foul foreign factions to destroy the sacred achievements of Stalin the big father. It would be too risky at the moment to try to blacken his name to rewrite history once more to deny his role as revolutionary leader.

But it is at least possible to secularize a holiday. On each future January 22, those Russians who loafed to honor Lenin will now sweat to anoint Stalin.

Battling Cattle Disease

Hopes that the U. S. import ban on Mexican beef might soon be lifted were dashed by a new outbreak of hoof-and-mouth disease along the gulf coast in Mexico. More than 1,500 diseased steers have been shot and more than 300 workers have been rushed to the area to enforce a quarantine on the infected area.

The new flareup came when U. S. and Mexican officials were confident the dread disease had been stamped out. The disease, first discovered in 1946, has been fought by American and Mexican experts, with this country supplying the funds.

Progress in combatting the disease was slow and laborious because of the opposition of the Mexican cattle owners who objected to the killing of infected animals and frequently clashed with authorities. A strict quarantine has been in effect to prevent importation of Mexican cattle into the U.S. Prompt action by U. S. authorities prevented the epidemic from spreading to large U. S. cattle ranches in the Southwest.

The new outbreak is attributed to lack of cooperation of some Mexican ranchers, and it is feared final success in the drive against the epidemic has been set back for months or years.

Tightening The Guard

The State Department has now begun a belated campaign to protect United States embassies throughout the world from Communist espionage.

Security measures taken, or about to be taken, include the use of additional Marine guards, the assignment to diplomatic posts of full-time, professional security officers, replacement of alien employes abroad by American citizens, and a thorough screening and constant surveillance of persons employed by embassies as servants and chauffeurs.

These precautions are of such an elementary character a special recommendation for their adoption would seem to have been unnecessary. Yet they are the by-product of a report which a Senate subcommittee made after a tour last year of U. S. embassies in Europe.

Apparently, if these Senators had not gone to Europe, looked the situation over at American embassies and recommended such elementary security measures, the State Department would have taken no action along this line. There's something rotten, and not in Denmark.

13 Inches Off The Floor

A great sigh of relief will go up—from both sexes—in response to the news from Paris that Dior was misrepresented, or misunderstood, or perhaps just mistaken.

Word got abroad that the noted couturier had dictated that skirts would be longer this fall. The heart of many a woman fell even further than the anticipated drop of the hemline. It is a simple matter to shorten a dress when fashion takes an upward trend, but lengthening it is a different matter.

Naturally, the news was of concern to men, too. Not alone because of the prospective change in the scenery. When skirts go down like that, family expenses rise.

Now Dior asserts he never said any such thing. All the daytime and afternoon dresses in his collection are still 13 inches off the floor.

All that worry for nothing. Or was it? If Dior doesn't think of something to turn the little wife's thoughts to a new outfit, who's to guarantee that Manguin, or Dache or some other designing designer won't?

There are 6,000,000 different kinds of insects in the United States, but the statement is subject to some doubt because it is not revealed who counted them.

According to a survey, only two of every three marriages turn out happily. Which is a high average, considering the material Cupid is forced to work with.

What Draws Mosquitoes?

No one likes mosquitoes and we are grateful to scientists for trying to help us out on this problem. One entomologist permitted himself to be bitten by more than 1,000 mosquitoes to find out what organ the insect used to detect his prey.

Apparently the weapon depends upon the type of mosquito. In the kind that carries yellow fever, for example, if both the antennae and the palpi (the small feelers on either side of the mosquito's probe) are removed, the mosquito seldom bites. The Anopheles, or malaria laden variety, is different. She does things backward—the hind legs serve as the sense organs that direct the insect to her meal ticket.

A Canadian zoologist from the University of Western Ontario had a summer of fun in a Canadian forest with two robot dummies. They were dressed to resemble men and placed 6 feet apart. In the first portion of the experiment they were draped with various types of clothing to find out which colors and fabrics were the least and the most attractive. Only one-tenth to one-fourth as many mosquitoes alighted on the dummy dressed in white as on the one dressed in black. The insects also liked dark red. Trousers made of drill enticed mosquitoes like flies to honey. Next in order were cotton shirts, nylon, crepe, and broadcloth. Satin was the least seductive, particularly the luminescent kind.

The insects preferred the dummy that was moistened with human perspiration; it had twice as much drawing power as the one with clothing that was dry or dampened with water. Garments soaked with water saturated with carbon dioxide had no more effect than the use of plain water. On the other hand, when carbon dioxide was passed thru the dummy's head at a rate and concentration similar to normal expirations, a 50 per cent increase in mosquito pull was recorded. This is interesting because in 1947 we reported on research work done by a few scientists in Jerusalem. They had studied the mosquito problem thoroly and decided that we exhale certain substances which charm the insects. Could it be that carbon dioxide is the material that helps direct mosquitoes to their bait? It must be something because whenever I sit in a boat at dusk in the middle of a lake the skeeters make a beeline for my blood.

Experiments such as those described are done in an attempt to make the world a more comfortable place in which to live. We owe a debt of gratitude to the discoverers of DDT and to those who perfected repellents. Northerners find out of door life more pleasant thru the use of these preparations. This applies also to southerners and inhabitants of the tropics but in addition, life is safer in hot climates. In a certain section of Mexico, for example, where the houses have been sprayed with DDT the incidence of malaria has been reduced 75 to 90 per cent. In other parts of the world this method might not be adequate unless combined with the old plans of draining swamps, spraying water surfaces with oil, and the extensive use of screens and mosquito netting.

VITAMIN B HELPS

G. A. writes: Is there a cure for alcoholic paralysis?

REPLY

Large doses of vitamin B may be beneficial but the outcome depends upon the extent of the nerve damage. If the nerve cells are destroyed completely the condition is beyond help, except that further progress of the paralysis may be stopped if the patient eats good food, takes ample vitamins, and becomes a teetotaler.

DISEASE FROM TICKS

F. W. writes: What is meant by tick fever?

REPLY

Tick fever embraces several diseases, including Rocky mountain spotted fever, tularemia, and relapsing fever. These maladies are acquired through the bite of an infected tick and symptoms may be mistaken for influenza. In Rocky mountain spotted fever the temperature is elevated and the victim encounters chills, headache, a measles-like eruption, and pain in the bones and muscles. There are various forms of tularemia but in the most common variety a sore appears on a finger or hand, followed by swelling of the glands in the armpit as well as chills and fever. Relapsing fever is rare in this country. It also is accompanied by rash and flu-like symptoms. The condition is so-named because of the tendency of the fever to come and go.

Washington Contradictions Make Heads Spin; Important Issues Tell The Story; Beware Of Ready-Made Labels For Political Parties

(Ed Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being by Honorable Alexander Wiley, senior senator from Wisconsin.)

WASHINGTON — Sometimes the actual Washington Merry-Go-Round whirls so fast and reverses directions so often that observers get pretty dizzy and confused just trying to follow it. In fact, the contradictions of certain high-up folks in Washington can really make even an expert's head spin. These contradictions remind you of a lot of Alices in a fantastic blunderland.

Do you think, for example, that the present Democratic Administration is "liberal" and that its Republican opposition is "reactionary"? If so, consider these items which tell a revealing story:

Gas Gouge. You, the consumer, are soon going to have to pay still more for natural gas fuel. How come? Well, you can thank the great "liberal" Democratic party for those high rates. A Democratic president Harry Truman, had soundly vetoed a bill (backed by leading Democrats) which would have indirectly resulted in increasing natural gas rates. Many Republicans like myself supported and applauded the Democratic Presidents' veto.

Later, however, as reported by Drew Pearson and others, the Federal Power Commission (appointed by the same President) completely reversed the President's action and a Democratic-appointed Supreme Court, by exempting independent gas producers from federal rate control. But do you suppose that the President criticized the Federal Power Commission for its dangerous action? No, definitely not. The President said the FPC decision had "no connection" with his previous veto even though it completely reversed the veto).

So here we have a good Democrat, Harry Truman, patting on the back by implication other good Democrats who have completely stabbed one of his own policies in the back. Does that make sense? Of course not! Moreover, the Republicans whom the President has repeatedly attacked as allegedly not being interested in you, the consumer, have been the principal ones who have fought to protect the consumer from these gas rate increases . . . .

Seaway Sabotage. Take another instance. In his recent speech in Detroit, President Truman rightly praised the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway as the most important single project facing this country. Yet, this very same project which would incidentally be self-paying and which has been endorsed by Herbert Hoover, Franklin Roosevelt, George Marshall, etc., has been blocked by some of the President's best friends in the Democratic-Controlled Senate and House of Representatives. On the other hand, many of the leading advocates of the seaway are Republicans. So, here again we have Republicans supporting the President, while Democrats (with some notable and praiseworthy exceptions) are trying to sabotage the President and are working hand-in-glove with selfish, backward-looking railroad, and port, lobbies . . . .

Had enough inconsistencies? Here are some more. The merry-go-round spins faster . . . .

Southwest Steal. The President says he opposes favors for special privilege groups. Yet, some of his leading supporters in the Senate have succeeded once again in passing (over Republicans and some Democratic votes) a fantastic bill, the Central Arizona project, which would pour three-quarters of a billion dollars down the rathole for the benefit of a few Arizona landowners . . . . Some monkey-business . . .!

Tidal Till. In another interesting issue, the President rightly says he will veto any bill which quitclaims federal titled to the oil-rich marginal sea. Many Republicans like myself will support the President in such a veto. Why? because we think (although a good many Republicans disagree) that all Americans are entitled to ownership of the tideland treasures. But who do you suppose is spearheading the effort to destroy federal title? Why, principally, the very same Democratic leadership in the Senate and House which is usually, amazingly enough, trying not to decrease but to increase and expand federal power! Is that contradictory? It certainly is . . . . But, as the old saying goes, "It all depends on whose ox is gored . . . ."

Conclusions. What do these examples prove? Just this:

1. Beware of ready-made labels for any political party. Neither party, be it Republican or Democratic, has a monopoly on virtue. But, certainly, the Republican party (and not just its so-called "liberal wing") has a lot more virtue than its critics have attributed to it.

2. The term "liberal" itself is often a misnomer. It's easy for many Democrats to be "liberal" in spending other people's money and taking other people's rights away. I am against such "liberalism," just as I would be against a "conservatism" or "reactionism" which would try to turn the hands of the clock backward or which would attempt to deny certain progressive steps which the American people insist on in this modern age.

O. K., Drew, thanks for the ride on the Merry-Go-Round. You might call it "the carousel of contradictions."

These Days

The Japanese Treaty

It would be most unfortunate if, at this time, anything were to happen to lessen public support for the Japanese peace treaty. If American policy in Asia is to be effective, this treaty, together with the various treaties by which the Pacific union is being formed, will not only be a symbol of strength but an indication that the policy of appeasement, continuous since 1943, has really come to an end.

There is a growing sentiment that General Douglas MacArthur, whose labors made such a treaty possible, should attend this conference and speak ot it. This could have been accomplished in one of two ways:

1. To make him a member of the American delegation;

2. To have the conference invite him to speak to it.

The first door has been closed. The President has not invited him to be a member of the American delegation, although he spent several years working on the basis for this treaty.

As for the second method, the Russians surely, and the British probably, will reject him. At any rate, it would surprise everyone, including General MacArthur, if such an invitation were issued.

The State Department went about it in the wrong way. They sounded out the General and and let it leak to the press that they were sounding him out. To do what? To make a speech?

But why make a speech? For whom would he speak? For his country? For his government? For himself?

In a word, they would like to have the advantage of General MacArthur's support of the treaty without giving him credit for his labors or recognizing him in any official capacity.

This kind of indirect dealing he correctly rejected as not fitting and that ended that.

Also, the absence of China, which had fought Japan since 1931, is an error. So far as the United States and the United Nations are concerned, there is only one legally recognized China, namely, Nationalist China situated on Formosa. Failure of this China to be present raises issues that will long plague us. It creates a quarrelsome public opinion in this country.

Yet, it is of the utmost importance, from a strictly American standpoint, that public opinion in the United States should support and uphold the State Department of this treaty. Without it, forces may be let loose in Japan that may imperil our position in the east of Asia even more than it is today, because Japanese public opinion has been keyed to great expectations. Another letdown, after the MacArthur dismissal, might be very damaging. The absence of both MacArthur and China gives the impression that the State Department is still under the British thumb.

The treaty itself could perhaps be improved here and there, but so could many other documents. I think it is just about as good as we can at this moment arrange, and further delay would not be advantageous.

For what is at stake is not only Japan, but the bastion, Japan-Okinawa - Philippines - Formosa-Australia-New Zealand. That line must be held if we are to be in a defensible position. That is one fact that came out of the long 2,000,000-word palaver in the Russell Committee hearings into the dismissal of General MacArthur.

No matter how objectionable it may be to many persons in many countries, the fact remains that because of geography, propinquity and history, Japan must be the pivot of the Pacific union and Japan must be armed.

The fear of an armed Japan is real; so is the fear of an armed Germany. But Russia has made it inevitable that both should be armed and that the United States should make herself responsible for arming her former enemies. Great Britain is equally responsible in Asia because of the ill-conceived British policy of a deal with the Chinese Communists.

Russia might have averted all this had the Kremlin not decided upon empire-building at Yalta. But Stalin's lust for world dominance is unslackable and the United States cannot wait until it stands alone, an island in a Soviet world.

The policy of appeasement (1943-51) was based on the assumption that, in time, the Russians would be smart enough to realize that another general war could undo all their gains achieved since 1938. But that assumption has proved to be an error and a new, positive policy had to be designed and accepted. The Japanese treaty is a central factor in that policy.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — At a time of great delicacy — when the "cease fire" talks are, it is hoped, only temporarily suspended — the United States Bomber Command in Korea has finally been given permission to bomb Rashin which is just 17 miles from the Soviet border.

This is a turn of events so significant that it raises the question as to why General MacArthur was denied this authority originally and why, indeed, fear of Russia's entry into the war, if maximum force were used in Korea, has suddenly disappeared as a reason for bombing the northern bases.

Many people have been under the impression that the row over dismissing General MacArthur had to do only with bombing bases in Manchuria. Rashin is inside Korea.

Many people have assumed also that the military men were running our field operations and not Secretary Acheson of the Department of State. Here is Mr. Acheson's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on June 9 last:

"The question of bombing Racin (Rashin) came up, I believe, in the summer of 1950, or August, 1950, and, as you have already been told in this hearing there was one raid which was carried on against it and another was going to be carried on but was called off on account of the weather.

Matter Not Pressed

"The State Department objected strongly to carrying on raids against a place which was 17 miles from the Soviet border and which raised very great dangers of involving Soviet forces. This thing came up in September, at which we presented our view, and the matter of bombing was not pressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff. It was discussed later some time in 1951, I believe, and it was unanimously concluded not to do it. . . .

"The view that this is an important supply point, I think, is not borne out by the facts. . . . It was thought that it was more important to interrupt the rail lines in the southernly part which were not near the Soviet border and which would not run the risk of involving the Soviet forces. That has been done since and that rail line is interrupted."

Dispatches in the last 48 hours telling of the bombing of Rashin say that it is an important supply point and a submarine base and that the purpose in bombing it now is to destroy the Chinese build-up of supplies which has been going on throughout the "cease fire" talks.

On June 25 last — just a couple days after Malik made his proposal for a "cease fire" — General Emmett O'Donnell, Jr., commander of the U. S. Far East Air Force Bomber Command from July 8, 1950, to January 10, 1951, was reviewing the incident of Aug. 12, 1950, in his testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee as follows:

"So I scheduled a mission on Racin (Rashin) which was the northernmost town of Korea. . . . The marshalling yard at Racin was the focal point through which most of the supplies coming from Russia had to go down through the East coast to the support of the North Korean troops. . . . The squadrons got up there. . . . They bombed through the overcast and I heard later on that people back home were concerned about our hitting Siberia, but Siberia is 17 miles from Racin, and we don't make that kind of errors.

"And there was no question in my mind that we should have stayed on; as far as the accuracy, or capability of hitting the town—there was no question in the world about hitting it, and we didn't bomb the town either.

"Chairman Russell: I believe another attack on Racin was called off, and a secondary target chosen, was it not?

Needed Authorization

"General O'Donnell: It was planned but we were told that we would not be allowed to bomb Racin without specific authorization. . . . And I presume that authorization had to come from Washington. . . . "

General O'Donnell added that he had adequate forces to carry out the mission.

Senator Wiley then asked if the railroad in Manchuria and the bases had been knocked out whether the Chinese themselves "would have been so incapacitated by lack of war materiel they would have been easier to defeat and more American lives would have been saved, the Air Force General answered: "Yes, sir; I do."

Senator Cain drew the same admission from General O'Donnell confining the question solely to the bombing of Rashin. But the most important comment in the record is from General MacArthur himself in his testimony in which he said:

"I was very anxious to destroy that (Racin). Its usefulness to the enemy was self-evident. Great accumulations, depot accumulations, were made there. It was a great distributing center. They could run — the Soviets could run stuff from Vladivostok right down there. We asked to bomb that (Racin) and we were forbidden."

Why, since Racin was so important in the autumn of 1950, was General MacArthur as a military man told by the Secretary of State, a non-military man, how he should fight the war in Korea? The responsibility for the 80,000 casualties is involved in the answer especially as it turns out now after 12 months delay that the United States Air Force could have been ordered to bomb Racin without involving the risk of war against Russia any more then than in August, 1951.

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH And STEWART ALSOP

Kaesong And San Francisco

WASHINGTON

The right way to understand the troubles that have overtaken the Korean truce talks is to remember that the San Francisco conference on the Japanese peace treaty begins September 4.

Whether or no the Kremlin means to have a Korean ceasefire later on, can be interminably argued—in fact is being interminably argued at the moment by the highest American policy makers. On one point, however, there is no argument whatever. The Kremlin undoubtedly intends to keep the Korean truce talks on ice until the San Francisco meeting opens.

Thus the hope of a Korean ceasefire can be held out as bait to prevent a Japanese peace treaty from being signed. What is more important, the threat of a renewed and widened Korean War can also be used for the same purpose. The recent events at Kaesong, with their horrible touch of tragi-comedy—the transparently faked Napalm bomb, the American investigators red-faced with indignation, the volubly untruthful Communists — are only part of a much larger pattern. The parts in the pattern deserve to be listed.

ITEM: The Soviet press has officially classified the Japanese peace treaty so brilliantly negotiated by John Foster Dulles as "intolerable." This is the magic word reserved for West German rearmament, which unceasing Soviet propaganda has painted as an act of war in the Kremlin's eyes.

Planting Rumors

ITEM: In the short time since the Kremlin astonished the State Department by accepting the invitation to San Francisco, the diplomatic cables have brought in a fine harvest of carefully planted rumors. The usual system for creating an atmosphere is being employed. Satellite diplomats, European businessmen who have dealings with the Soviets, and others of the same kidney, are all peddling the same story, which they always have on the "highest authority." The story is that the Soviets will go to war if the Japanese treaty is signed.

ITEM: A mixture of facts and nonsense about Soviet military preparations is being permitted to leak through the iron curtain. On the one hand, reports appear that the Soviets have brought their divisions in West Germany and Poland from 60 per cent of war strength almost up to war strength. This is true. On the other hand, reports also appear of a great air reinforcement in Eastern Germany. The process of substituting modern jet aircraft for obsolete types is undoubtedly continuing. Certain of the jet designs now identified, such as a twin engine fighter bomber capable of hitting British targets from German bases, are undoubtedly menacing. But there is nothing novel, as pretended, in this modernization of the Soviet air force in Europe. In short the greatest immediate significance of these reports is their timing.

Put the parts of the pattern together. Remember that the masters of the Kremlin have been forced, against their will, to send Andrei Gromyko and his large delegation to the San Francisco meeting. Remember also that if the Kremlin had not accepted the invitation to San Francisco (thus astonishing the State Department), the conferees would only be gathering there to ratify a treaty draft already approved by all of them. The meaning of the pattern becomes very clear.

Soviet Blackmail

In brief, San Francisco is to be one of the climaxes of the war of nerves. The impression is to be conveyed that those nations signing the Japanese peace treaty are inviting a world war. Since there is no veto in the conference machinery, the naked threat of Soviet military power is to be used as a substitute. Most probably, this will be done indirectly, without resort to any ultimatum.

Yet even the implied intention to renew Korean fighting in deadly earnest if the Japanese peace treaty is signed, is in itself a most powerful weapon of Soviet blackmail. The British and French live in fear that the Korean War will be transformed into a general war in precisely this manner. They agreed to the Dulles draft of the Japanese treaty with marked absence of enthusiasm. What could be more tempting than to exchange abstention from the Japanese treaty for a promise of real peace in Korea?

If either of our major allies succumbs to this temptation, the Western alliance will be broken—for anyone can foresee the effects in Congress of this sort of public desertion of the United States. Fortunately, although certain of the lesser and Asiatic powers may yield to the Soviet threats, the Kremlin is unlikely to attain its grand objective on this occasion. The British and French, after all, do not enjoy blackmail any more than we do. They have committed themselves to the Japanese treaty. And they also understand that the future of the Western alliance is at stake.

Yet even if all goes well at San Francisco, this pattern that is emerging is an instructive foretaste of the even more elaborate and determined Soviet attacks on Western unity that will come later on.

Pearl Harbor—1941. Korea—1951. Only ten years. But in that time the Bell System's capacity to serve the nation has literally doubled!
And the Long Distance telephone network which ties America together has grown even more. In 1941, there was very little coaxial cable in use. Radio relay was still in an experimental stage. Yet today there are 8,000 miles of coaxial cable in service—plus thousands of miles of radio relay. And Long Distance telephone circuits have increased in ten years from about 4,800,000 miles to 20,800,000.
In times like these, telephone lines are defense lines. For they are helping America rush its big production program. It's fortunate this nationwide network has grown so big, so fast.
To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number.
Telephone lines are busy with national defense

The wedding ceremony was solemnized at 7:30 p. m., in Park Lake Presbyterian Church with Rev. McCaslin, D. D., officiating. Bouquets of white gladioli, against a background of palms, decorated the church. A program of nuptial music as well as the traditional wedding processional from the opera Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's recessional were played by Mrs. John Rideout.

Miss Elsie McIntosh, Orlando, was the bride's maid of honor and only attendant. John Williams, Cumberland, served as Mr. Cook's best man, while Kenneth Bishop, Cumberland, and Stanley Bishop, Cocoa, Fla., were ushers.

With it she wore matching lace gloves, and cloche with a shoulder length veil, belonging to her mother. Completing her costume, she carried a white Bible with orchid marker.

Her maid of honor wore a light blue point d'esprit gown and gloves, with a dark blue hat and sash. Her bouquet was of bronze chrysanthemums and ivy.

Mrs. L. H. Schneider, the bride's aunt, chose a light blue crepe dinner dress for the wedding, while Mrs. Cook wore a chiffon gown shaded from orchid to mauve.

Mr. Wild entertained with a wedding dinner and reception for his daughter and her bridal party at the Eola Plaza Hotel, Lake Eola, Orlando. The bridal motif was carried out in the floral arrangements and the tiered wedding cake, adorned with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miss Constance Cook, sister of the bridegroom, assisted at the reception.

The bride attended Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind., majoring in dress designing. While there she was a member of the Purduettes, the University Choir, the Concert Choir and the WRH Campus Club.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Allegany High School, class of 1945, where he won the Welcome Home award, the History Medal and was valedictorian. A veteran of two years in the Navy, he received his Bachelor of Science degree from Purdue University, where he was a member of the Dunroamin Club, the Aeromodelers, served as vice president, secretary and treasurer of the latter and was an honor student all semesters. Mr. Cook received his master degree from Indiana University, Bloomington, majoring in business management. A member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, he is employed by the Reo Motors Company, Lansing, Mich.

For their wedding trip to Nassau the bride chose a gray silk jacket dress, with black velvet accessories and her orchid corsage. Upon their return, Mr. Cook and his bride will reside in Lansing.

Korea Blueprint For U. N. Force, Austin Declares

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Ambassador Warren R. Austin today called Korea a blueprint for a United Nations peace force.

He told the 52nd national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars:

"In time, and with the natural growth of international wisdom and practice, a United Nations peace force will be organized."

Austin, U. S. delegate to the U. N., said of Korea:

"A committee on Collective Measures is at work this very hour building on the lessons of this experience. Its work can point the way to collective action against any future aggressor."

Answering Soviet Russian criticism of the Committee on Collective Measures, Austin said:

"It rests within the Soviet Union alone whether a coalition against aggression and a coalition against the Soviet Union shall be one and the same thing."

Austin told the overseas veterans that the U. N. General Assembly has asked its members to maintain within their own armed forces units trained for use as United Nations forces.

State Dept. Okayed Bombing Of Rashin

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The State Department said today it knew in advance and approved the Air Force decision to bomb the supply port of Rashin, North Korea, only about 17 miles from Soviet Siberia.

A department official said it decided the military nature of the target made the bombing necessary despite the risk of a "diplomatic incident" if American planes accidentally crossed over the Soviet frontier.

Thirty-five American B-29 bombers, dropped more than 300 tons of bombs on rail and other military targets at Rashin on Saturday.

25 Sabrejet Fighters Boost Europe Defense

SHEPHERDS GROVE, England, Aug. 27 (AP)—Twenty-five American Sabrejet fighter planes—the type that whipped Red MIG 15s in Korea—landed today to give European defense another shot in its air arm.

The little swept-wing planes peeled off and slipped down on a Royal Air Force airstrip after a leisurely jaunt from Spokane, Wash., that took 15 days. The squadron is assigned to duty with the Third Air Force here.

Britains Air Vice Marshal C. E. N. Guest, welcoming the planes, told the pilots, "the flight demonstrated the ability to reinforce NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization) defenses with a Sabre wing on fairly short notice."

Baltimorean Killed When Scaffold Falls

BALTIMORE, Aug. 27 (AP)—One man was killed and another injured today in a 50-foot fall to the street when scaffolding they were dismantling collapsed.

John Glodek, 45, was dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital. John Smallwood, 31, was treated at the hospital but the extent of his injuries was not determined immediately.

The men, employes of the bridge division of the Bureau of Highways, had been painting the underside of a downtown viaduct.

Brothers Turn Up After Wide Search

PORT BURWELL, Ont., Aug. 27 (AP)—Archie Knoles, 32, and his 19-year-old brother, Wilfred, Straffordsville, Ont., arrived here late today under their own power, after their disappearance last night started an intense air and sea search over Lake Erie.

The search, by 40 boats and three Canadian Air Force planes, was launched last night when the two were not heard from after starting out in a 12-foot plywood boat for Cleveland, Ohio, 95 miles away across the lake.

Police said the pair went to Crystal Beach, near Fort Erie, instead and slept under the boat all night.

Dayton Youth Wins Model Plane Meet

DETROIT, Aug. 27. (AP)—Dick A. Modler, 15-year-old model plane whiz from Dayton, O., today emerged as individual point champion in Plymouth Motor Corporation's fifth international model plane contest here.

Modler, competing in the junior division, piled up a total of 47 points to retain his junior high point trophy. Next highest point scorer in a field of 510 contestants was Senior High Point Champion Herbert L. Davis, of Birmingham, Ala.

Davis, 17, scored 38 points to repeat his high point honors.

Government Restored To Polk County, Tenn.

BENTON, Tenn., Aug. 27 (AP)—Government was restored to little Polk County today after a six-month paralysis caused by political feuding.

Back in firm control was the bipartisan Good Government League which seized the courthouse earlier this year in defiance of legislation restoring the Democrats to power.

The GGL returned its own officials to posts from which they were ousted after the Democrats gained control of the county's seat in the legislature. The action capped a three-year feud between the factions which has been blamed for four deaths.

William Randolph Hearst's Will Admitted To Probate

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27. (AP)—William Randolph Hearst's will, disposing of his far-flung publishing empire, was admitted to probate today in a brief, routine session.

There was no mention of an agreement which reports published over the weekend said gave voting control of Hearst Corporation to his long-time friend, former Actress Marion Davies.

A statement by two special administrators, Randolph Apperson Hearst, one of the publisher's five sons, and Henry S. Mackay, Jr., personal counsel for the publisher, said they were aware of "the so-called agreement" and added:

"This paper is supposed to make Miss Marion Douras (Miss Davies' legal name) the sole voting trustee in control of all the Hearst property. This so-called agreement dated Nov. 5, 1950, was never executed and for this and many other reasons has no more effect than if it never existed."

Mackay declined today to further define "executed." A check of court records confirmed no such agreement has been recorded in Superior Court. Legal sources said that under California law most such instruments are filed in court within a year of being drawn.

Shakeup Planned

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP) — The Daily News says President Truman is planning a wholesale shuffle of his top officials, including some cabinet members.

"Ike" Provisionally On Oregon Ballot

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 27 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was entered provisionally today as a Democratic candidate for prisedent in next May's Oregon presidential primary election.

Republicans are making an attempt to get him on their ballot, too.

State Sen. Thomas R. Mahoney, Portland Democrat, filed petitions containing 1,150 signatures with Dave O'Hara, state elections chief. One thousand signatures are enough to put a candidate on the ballot. His consent is not required.

O'Hara accepted the petitions, although he pointed out that Oregon law requires that a presidential candidate be a member of the party in which he makes the race.

Gen. Eisenhower has not said whether he is a Democrat or a Republican or whether he would be a candidate for prisedent.

part of the International Workers of the World (IWW).

The work stoppages hit all phases of the industry.

The union estimated that 95 per cent of the nation's copper production was affected as the strike hit the big four and independents. Major companies tied up are Anaconda Copper Mining Company, with its big subsidiary, American Brass Company; Phelps Dodge, Kennecott and American Smelting and Refining. A wage and pension increase, involving an overall boost of 30-32 cents per hour was the key issue.

Thousands See Man Plunge To His Death

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP) — Thousands of persons saw a man teeter on a high window ledge of Macy's department store at the height of today's evening rush hour, then plunge nine floors to death in the street.

The body landed on a metal awning, rolled to the edge and dropped seven feet to the sidewalk.

Police said hundreds were endangered by the plunge.

In the victim's clothing were papers issued to John Pilgrim of Hoboken, N. J.

Dodgers Win Little League Playoff Title

Phillies Drop 6-1 Decision At East Side

Second Loss Gives Round Robin Title To Buzzard Nine

Manager Bill Buzzard's Dodgers won the round robin playoff championship title of the Little Baseball League yesterday by defeating the Phillies 6 to 1 at East Side.

The round robin style playoff was used because three divisions were active in the league this year. The Dodgers copped the Dan division, Phillies won the Dapper title and the Senators the Whiz Kid division. Two losses eliminated a team. The Dodgers captured three straight without a defeat while both the Phillies and Senators dropped two contests.

Two three-run rallies in the second and third innings spelled the difference in last night's battle at East Side field. Gene Cave, chunky southpaw, hurled two-hit ball for the winners and never was in danger after the Dodgers piled up a six-run lead in the first two innings.

Regis Fair and Ronnie Bruce paced the Dodgers at the plate with two hits apiece. One of Bruce's base knocks was a two-bagger. Tom Smith and Pinchhitter Kaplon shared the two singles garnered off Cave's slants.

Winters started the contest for Manager Farmer Northcraft's Phillies, who had won 18 straight without a defeat prior to the start of the playoffs. But Winters lasted less than two innings and Smith took over to finish the game.

The Dodgers thus capture the championship which was vacated by the Tigers, last year's titleholders. The box:

Giles Reported Backing Lausche

CINCINNATI, Aug. 27 (AP)—The latest report on the baseball commissionership today again had Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, supporting Gev. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio for the high paying job.

Early last week, Giles, who is listed among five persons under consideration for the $65,000-a-year post, denied he had withdrawn in favor of Lausche.

Since that time, however, the drums have been beating with ever-increasing crescendo from the governor's camp.

Giles added to the hopes of the Lausche supporters today by declining to discuss the latest report.

The newest report had Lausche so well in front for the job that he is demanding a 10-year term as commissioner.

The last commissioner, A. G. (Happy) Chandler, had a seven-year contract.

Representatives of the 16 major league clubs are scheduled to meet in Chicago Sept. 20 to choose a commissioner.

In a third contest played yesterday at Ellerslie, Wellersburg walloped the home team 9 to 3.

The Cubs trailed Corriganville 7 to 3 as the final inning opened but then the roof fell in on Glenn Kauffman, Corriganville pitcher.

Thompson opened the frame with a double and Lease singled him home. After one out, Lucas singled and successive errors put Hounshell and Fred Cecil on base, scoring a second tally and loading the sacks. Then Pete Cecil's one-baser brought home the tying runs to set the stage for Frankenberry's game-winning one-base knock.

LaVale weathered a two-run rally by Stringtown in the seventh to gain its one-run margin. Leasure collected two singles for the winners while Harden had two bingles for the losers.

Trabert Enlists In Navy; Jolting Davis Cup Hopes

Cincinnati Wonder Wins Tourney Match

FOREST HILLS, Aug. 27 (AP)—The props were knocked squarely from under the American Davis Cup tennis team today when it became known that Tony Trabert, the wonder boy from Cincinnati, had enlisted in the Navy and expected to report for duty on Sept. 24

Trabert, seeded third in the national championships, and considered a certainty to play both singles and doubles for the U. S. team in its attempt to regain the international trophy in Australia in December, disclosed that he had enlisted rather than run the risk of being drafted after he had been dropped by his naval reserve unit in Cincinnati.

Recently turned 21, the husky tennis and basketball star was in the process of eliminating Diehl Mateer Jr., of Villanova, Pa., 6-2, 6-2, 6-0, in a second round match when the word swept around the West Side Tennis Club that he was lost to the cup squad. Tennis officials wore glum expressions the rest of the day.

Frank Sedgman Wins

Frank Sedgman, the big Australian who leads the foreign threat, opened his bid for the singles title by smashing Gilbert Bogley of Warren, O., one of this country's good young players, 6-0, 6-4, 6-2.

Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., who was a finalist last year, scored over Ricardo Balbiers of Chile, 6-0, 6-3, 6-2; Budge Patty of Los Angeles ousted Tony Vincent of New York City, 6-0, 6-2, 6-3; Gardnar Mulloy of Miami downed Henry Bassford Jr., of Brooklyn, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2, and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia defeated Charles Devoe of Indianapolis, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, 6-4, to lead the parade of the American stars.

Hamilton Richardson, the touted youngster from Baton Rouge, La., who is seeded ninth, was carried to five tough sets by Larry Huebner, a comparative unknown from Fresno, Calif. Ham finally won it by 5-7, 7-5, 6-4, 3-6, 10-8.

Mervyn Rose Scores

Mervyn Rose, the Australian lefthander, opened with a 6-2, 6-4, 6-1, win over Philippe Neff of Washington, D. C., and Don Candy, his doubles teammate, eliminated August Ganzenmuler Jr., of Sea Cliff, N. Y., 6-0, 6-2, 6-2.

Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., the defending champion, played late in the stadium and proved his usual entertaining self in subduing Garner Anthony of Hawaii, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4. Eddie Moylan of Trenton, N. J., put another dent in the foreign seeding by knocking out Paul Remy of France in a hard five-setter, 3-6, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5, 6-3.

The day's only surprise in the women's division saw Mrs. Baba Lewis of Newtonville, Mass., upset seventh seeded Betty Rosenquest of South Orange, N. J., by the decisive margin of 6-2, 6-1.

Rocky Marciano Kayoes Beshore

BOSTON, Aug. 27 (AP) — Rocky Marciano, Brockton's undefeated heavyweight, knocked out rolypoly Freddie Beshore of Harrisburg, Pa., in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-round bout tonight at Boston Garden. A long series of lefts and rights to the head toppled Beshore backwards after 50 seconds in the knockout round. Marciano weighed 187½ and Beshore 196.

While gaining his 37th straight professional victory and his 32nd via the knockout route, Marciano had an exceptional easy time with the lumbering Beshore, who has been beaten by most of the other top-notch heavyweights.

Beshore spent most of his battling time making grimaces at the Brocktonite, who has high hopes of meeting aged Joe Louis in the fall.

During the first three rounds Marciano had great difficulty landing cleanly on Beshore, an ideal target. The latter made Rocky miss frequently merely by keeping his head bobbing. But later in the third session, Marciano, landing about one blow in six, hurt Beshore in the head and body.

As soon as the fourth got underway, Marciano pumped both hands to Beshore's well-stuffed middle and then shifted his two-fisted attack to the head. Beshore took about eight blows before falling backward for the full count.

Dodgers Split With Pirates And Lose Ground In NL Race

Bucs Lose 5-0 In First; Win 5-2

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (INS) — Ralph Branca came within three outs of pitching a no-hitter tonight as he blanked the Pirates 5 to 0, but the last-place Bucs came back to whip the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5 to 2, in the second part of a twi-night doubleheader.

An Ebbets Field crowd of 32,561 saw the Brooks' National League lead cut to five games as the New York Giants zoomed to their 16th win in a row via a double triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

A pair of ninth-inning singles ruined Branca's bid to enter the hall of fame.

The night contest was decided as early as the first inning when the Pirates routed starter Erv Palica with a three-run tear. Two singles, two walks and a double by Catcher Clyde McCullough were good for three runs.

McCullough drove in four of his team's runs as he homered in the third with one on.

The Brooks got only three hits off winner Bill Werle but they managed to knock him out of the box in the sixth. Gil Hodges, who singled home the initial Dodger run in the first, followed Jackie Robinson's double with another two-bagger for the second run.

With the bases loaded and one out, Vern Law replaced Werle and got Billy Cox to hit into a double play to end the inning. Law held the Dodgers hitless the rest of the way and was aided by two sparkling catches by Ralph Kiner in left field. Box:

Graham Ready For Title Shot

Strength Will Win Challenger Says

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Billy Graham believes his strength in the stretch will enable him to take the welterweight crown from Champion Kid Gavilan in Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

"I came on strong in the second half both times against the Kid before," said the pleasant, articulate New Yorker. "I think the same thing is going to happen Wednesday.

"I've been training nearly a year for this title shot," said Graham at his training camp. "and I think I can lick the guy. I think I licked him the last time but he does things that fool the scorers. His bolos are just a lot of baloney. The way he uses it, they're just a motion."

Graham's complaints about the scoring are not novel. Almost every opponent of the sleek Cuban has complained that the officials' tend to be influenced by the roar of the crowd every time Gavilan fights.

The champion is flashy and very fast with his hands and feet. He usually fights in spurts and showers his foes with punches, many of which land on gloves and arms. Every time he lets loose with a bolo—a punch thrown like a softball pitcher when he throws to the batter—the fans holler even when it lands on a glove.

Sheetz Blanks Outdoor Club

Eagles Cop Opener In Playoff, 7 To 0

Al Sheet won his fifth straight shutout victory as the Fraternal Order of Eagles softballers captured the opening contest in the best-of-three semi-finals of the Rocking Chair League yesterday downing the Outdoor Club 7 to 0 at Stitcher field.

The crafty righthander held the losers to five bingles with Bill Dean the only members of the ODC to collect two. The Eagles ace now has racked up 39 consecutive scoreless innings.

The contest was a 1-0 duel between Sheetz and Morrison until the Eagles put the game away with six runs in the sixth frame. Doyle George with two singles and two-bagger topped the winners' 12-hit attack. Lou Riehl, Sam DeLuca and Sheetz all collected two hits and drove in two runs apiece.

Shorty Brown at third for the ODC and Mulvey in shortfield and Summers on third for the Eagles starred afield.

The other semi-finalists, the Elks and Moose, will clash today at Stitcher field at 6 p. m. while the Eagles and ODC will meet in their second fray Wednesday at the same time. The score:

Bed O'Roses Wins Feature At Saratoga

Daily Double Pays Off $602.50 For $2

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP)—A 40 to 1 shot and a warmly backed 7 to 2 proposition combined to form the second largest daily double payoff—$602.50—of the meeting. Knows Peace, a field horse, took the opener from a large band of 2-year-olds under Keith Stuart, paying $81.60 straight. The second went to Whiskey Sour, $9.20, which drubbed 13 other platers at 7 furlongs. Aboard her was Willie Boland.

Sanford Stud Farm's Fulton, at $3.20, made no mistake in the steeplechase event of about two miles. Evidently much the best, the gelding scored by a dozen lengths in 4:14, with Frank D. Adams never extending him. Patrol was an easy second, while Short Circuit finished third. Five started.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's Querx, ridden by Eric Guerin, got up to beat Noras Bonnet by a head in the fourth, a dash for maiden 2-year-old fillies. She paid $19.30. Third was Semolina.

Vanderbilt's Bed O' Roses came back to the races after an extended absence with a notable triumph in the Gideon Putnam purse, feature of the stakeless program today.

The daughter of Rosemont-Good Thig showed her class, as usual, as she cut the corner on the stretch turn, where the leader went wide, to take the $3,500 overnight event by a short length from Apheim Stable's Early Heath. John W. Nizlek's All At Once was third, a length back, while I. J. Collins' Jerry M took fourth from two others.

Board Opposes Issuing New Liquor Permits

Requests Await Bridge Completion

BALTIMORE—The State Appeal Board for Alcoholic Beverages Licenses said yesterday it takes a "firm stand" against issuing any new licenses in the Ritchie Highway area where it has jurisdiction.

The board's announcement came in answer to a recent letter from State Comptroller J. Millard Tawes. Tawes urged the board to give careful consideration to granting of new licenses because of traffic hazards expected to arise with the opening of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge and Sandy Point State Park.

He warned particularly about the section between Ritchie Highway and Sandy Point.

The board said yesterday all new applications coming before it will be denied pending completion of the Bay Bridge and "a reasonable opportunity to study the effects along the highway of the increased traffic."

At the same time, the board said it hoped its policy would discourage new applications for alcoholic beverages licenses along Route 50 and would encourage the zoning boards of the various counties to "take the proper preventive measures."

(The board holds either original or appeal jurisdiction in all counties along Route 50 except Talbot and Prince George.)

KEEPING UP WITH

HOLLYWOOD

By DOROTHY MANNERS
(Substituting for Louella Parsons)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 27 (INS)—Tony Curtis, who has been a sort of male Yvonne De Carlo, playing princes in technicolor fantasies at Universal-International, gets a change of pace—and is he glad!

In place of runing around bare-chested with a turban on his good-looking head, Tony dons a football suit and helmet for "All American."

Fred De Cardova will direct So far here is no mention of Piper Laurie, Tony's technicolor pal, as the leading lady—which may mean Tony gets a new setup all round.

• — • — •

Pretty cute idea of Charles Brackett's to glorify America's favorite honeymoon spot in a movie called "Niagara." Stands to reason the Walter Reisch-Richard Breen original is about a couple newly Mr. and Mrs.

As far famed as Niagara is to us—there are millions of people who have never seen this natural wonder—and just so they'll get the full voltage treatment, Brackett will film "Niagara" in technicolor.

• — • — •

Richard Widmark and leading lady, Constance Smith, aren't hitting it off making "Red Skies of Montana." Funny thing about this is—Richard is one of the quietest and least temperamental actors in Hollywood. And Constance has the same reputation.

Working harmoniously together in a picture must be chemical—like love.

Following a longer tiff than usual on the 20th set the other day, Connie walked off in tears. She came back, of course—and temporarily they're operating under a truce.

• — • — •

Gayest party of the season was hosted by the Walter Langs who rigged up their garden to look like a Paris sidewalk cafe and invited all Ann Sothern's pals to bid her farewell. Ann's off to New York and a stage play.

Mrs. Van Johnson was one of the prettiest belles in a slick, short haircut she got in Rome and wearing a pair of those smart Italian sandals. Had a long talk with Van—one of the nicest guys in this town—for sure.

So many stars showed up for Fieldsie and Walter's party it could have been a "benefit." Gary Cooper was there with Patricia Neal who looked different to me with her brunette hair. "This is the real color," said Pat, "The blonde was a fake."

Having a gay old time for themselves were the Danny Kayes, Ann Sheridan, Mecca Graham, Loretta Young and Tom Lewis, Clifton Webb and his adorable, Maybelle; the Reggie Gardiners, Cesar Romero, Linda and Tyrone Power, the Johnny Greenes, Anna Baxter and John Hodiak, Mousie and William Powell, Mike and Maggie Rennie, Rosalind Russell and Freddie Brisson, Babe Blum and MacDonald Carey.

Hollywood in shorts:

Anatole Litvak and Hildegarde Neff, who cooled for awhile, are rekindling the flame in Cannes.

Red Skelton is at Yosemite resting—the hardest thing he does.

Bob Hope gets $1,000 per minute for his Louisville P. A.—for a fifteen minute act.

Marguerite Piazza on the MGM lot for her screen tests.

Some gift from Gig Young to his wife. He peresented her with the deed to a lot and a contract with an architect for a new home.

Jack Carson rating terrific reviews in Manchester — British industrial town that seldom goes for Hollywood "names" — which bodes well for his Palladium stint.

Frank Loesser working closely with Moss Hart getting "Hans Christian Andersen" ready in rough draft form for Sam Goldwyn's approval when he returns from Honolulu.

Thomas Gomez—that really good actor—gets the king part in "The Merry Widow" and sings for the first time on the screen.

Marie Wilson with Bob Fallon at the Cafe Gala.

Garbo has turned down another script. Every producer in Hollywood is on the verge of waving the white flag where G. G. is concerned.

Mel Ferrer wants Bessie Love to come out of retirement for a play in La Jolla.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Group Returns From Retreat

Eleven members of the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's Catholic Church returned last night from a weekend retreat at Manresa on the Severn River.

The group included C. Raymond Burkey, John P. Mackey, M. F. Prendergast, Thomas H. Tunney, Joseph A. Madden, Donald Murray, John E. Carroll, John Coyle and William H., Edward J. and Joseph A. Blake.

The trip was made in private cars. The group left here at noon last Friday. The retreat closed with benediction and a papal blessing last night.

Another group from the Society will leave this Friday for Manresa. Norman Fearnow, president of the society, said there are four vacancies open to any member of the parish.

Fayette Street Parking To Be Restricted

In an effort to alleviate traffic congestion a new parking system will be put in effect on Fayette Street from Luteman Road to Camden Avenue.

Commissioner of Police John J. Long said parking will be allowed on one side of the street only. Cars may park on one side for a certain period and then will be shifted to the other side for another period. The system is designed to be fair to residents on both sides of the street, Long said.

Signs will be posted with complete instructions for drivers, Long said.

Long requested that residents cooperate and said the system will be placed in operation later this week. The new program will help operation of the street sweeper, keep a passage clear in case of fire and aid movement of traffic generally, Long believes.

Mirror Of Your Mind

By LAWRENCE GOULD, Consulting Psychologist

Is an engagement ring "a girl's birthright"?

Answer: Hardly. The engagement ring as distinct from the wedding ring is relatively recent and the practice of bestowing it is limited to a few countries and to certain social classes. But the average girl who has been brought up to feel that her main task in life is to "get a man" will attach great importance to the opportunity which a ring gives her to show her friends she has been successful, and will make the value of the ring an evidence of how precious she is in her man's eyes. A man ought to realize this, and may rightfully be called thoughtless if he attempts to evade or ignore it.

Are old people better off in institutions?

Answer: No, writes Ruth Laverty of the Peabody Home, New York City, in the Journal of Gerontology. She reports a survey of 30 elderly women, 15 of whom had been admitted to a home for the aged, while the other 15, although qualified for such admission, were maintained in the community with financial and social service aid. Those who received non-resident aid seemed happier and better adjusted, and the cost of their care was a small fraction of that of the care of residents of the Home. Institutions should be for those who require special medical or psychiatric treatment.

Should a child be forced to give up toys?

Answer: No. Unless it is actually harmful, a child never should be forced to give up anything that is a source of pleasure to him, since this both increases its importance for him and intensifies his feeling that you don't want him to be happy and therefore don't really love him. A girl who continues to play with dolls or a boy who clings to his toy soldiers longer than the average is probably having trouble in adjusting to the ways of other children, and this is the problem which you really have to deal with. Don't deprive a child of anything he values without substituting something better.

Crews Spraying PE Rights-Of-Way

Crews from the Potomac Edison Company have started spraying rights-of-way in this area to keep them clear of brush, trees and other plant growth.

A spokesman for the company said that a 2,4-D compound is being employed as a spray. This mixture is well-known in this area for many local farmers use 2,4-D as a weed killer.

These crews will apply the spray to plant growth under power lines so that electric service will not be interrupted by high brush or trees blowing into wires.

Farmers and livestock owners were assured that the 2,4-D will not sterlize the soil. It is non-poisonous to animals and will permit later growth of grass as brush and weeds are eliminated.

Plant growth along the right-of-way will turn brown and will die in approximately one week. The new growth of grass that follows will improve the appearance of the site.

Assistant Cashier Resigns Position

PIEDMONT, W. Va. — Mrs. Joyce Bell Boggs, has resigned her position as assistant cashier with the Potomac Edison Company here to take a position with Minnich's Service and Flower Shop, Main Street, Keyser, effective September 1.

The wedding will be solemnized September 2 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, with Rev. Harold R. Stoudt, pastor, officiating.

Miss Wright, a graduate of Beall High School, class of 1950, is employed in the mailing department of the Kelly Springfield Tire Company. She is also secretary of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Teen skin troubles will be avoided if these inner and outer ways of keeping the complexion clear are followed!

SECRETS OF CHARM

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

Just when she wants to return to school looking all tanned and terrific, what's a gal going to do if she finds her complexion plagued by oiliness and blemishes?

Three things, I hope! The three things will clear up the condition before the gang assembles.

The first is to scorn those foods that cause the trouble and to go for those that help your beauty display perfection! You'll never be hungry but you'll be complexion happy, if every day's meals are planned as this one is:

Oily-Skin Diet

Breakfast: Citrus fruit or juice, cereal or boiled egg, toast sparingly buttered, milk. Lunch: Clear soup, sandwich of lean meat with no dressing, fresh fruit or gelatin dessert without cream, buttermilk. Dinner: Broiled or roasted meat, green vegetable, yellow vegetable, green salad without dressing, fruit dessert, plain cake or custard, milk or buttermilk. Between meal snacks: Fruit, lollypop, plain cookies, or milk.

Like the plague, avoid chocolate, nuts, fried foods, creamy foods, spicy foods such as pickles, fat meats and fish such as sardines, and soda pop.

While you're wooing a smooth, clear skin from within, attack the blemishes from without with this second step in the program:

Wash your face very gently four times a day with one of the soaps designed for oily skin. Rinse thoroughly after each washing by filling your cupped hands with tepid water and splashing it over your face until all the soap is gone and your skin squeaks to the touch.

Important Precautions

And here's the third and vitally important part of retrieving skin beauty. Discard anything that might contaminate your skin. Dermatologists say the blemishes are irritated and spread by such things as wash cloths, complexion brushes and powder puffs that are not kept sterile. In lieu of a wash cloth, until your skin clears, each time you wash use a fresh, sterile gauze pad (available at the druggists). And for the rest of your life, use a clean piece of absorbent cotton or a cotton ball when you apply cosmetics.

"What a bore!" did you say? Not for a minute when you remember the joys of having a smooth, clear skin!

Is He a Murderer?

Barry Markham sits in the grim quiet of his cell — and ponders his fate. They call him a murderer. The evidence points to his guilt — points to the fact that he killed Colonel Bell — his wife's father. Is it true then that the Colonel was trying to break up Barry's marriage? Or is it closer to the truth that Chichi was more than a friend to Barry?

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: THE TRUE USE OF SPEECH IS NOT SO MUCH TO EXPRESS OUR WANTS, AS TO CONCEAL THEM—GOLDSMITH.

Card Of Thanks

We are taking this means to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness extended to us during the illness and bereavement of our father and brother, Louie Cowatch, Front Street, Westernport.

We also wish to thank those who sent floral tributes and donated the use of their cars for the funeral.

Sons, Leo and Tony Cowatch and Brothers, Francis, Paul and Julian Cowatch.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear Wife and Mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Buckalew, who departed from this life three years ago today, August 28, 1948.

There is a home not made by hands;
Beyond it's golden door
Awaits the one who is gone away
Not lost—just gone before.
And in the home not made by hands
The Master will prepare
A place for us, and when He calls,
We'll meet our Mother there.
Sadly missed by her Husband and Daughters.

The bill states that the parties hereto were married on January 23rd, 1945, in Shoemaker, California, and that one child was born of the said marriage; and that the defendant on or about the 7th day of January, 1950, without just cause or reason deserted and abandoned the plaintiff and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such desertion and abandonment has been continuous and uninterrupted for more than 18 months, and is deliberate and final and without any reasonable hope of reconciliation; and that the plaintiff is a resident of Allegany County, Maryland, and that the defendant is a resident of Cokeburg, Pa.

Market, In Slowest Trading In Six Weeks, Slides Lower

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—In the slowest trading in a month and a half, the stock market today slid listlessly lower.

There were one or two apparent efforts to make some progress, but these tries were smothered by indifference.

Losses among leaders seldom went past a little more than a dollar a share. There were scattered small gains except for a few independently strong issues that went ahead on buying based on corporate developments.

The volume of trading came to 1,080,000 shares. That's the lowest since July 12. Friday's total was 1,210,000 shares.

Steels were lower all day.

Automobiles, although showing some activity, didn't get anywhere. Four leaders ended unchanged—General Motors 49¼ (fifth most active stock in the entire list), Chrysler 69, Packard 5, and Studebaker 26½.

Copper companies, now at a standstill because of a nationwide strike of union workers, were mostly lower. Kennecott Copper late in the day with a spurt of individual strength gained 1⅛ at 79⅞. Other coppers were down fractions to two points.

Cerro De Pasco dropped two points from its year's high of Friday to 47⅞.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 20 cents at $95.90 with the industrial component off 20 cents, rails off 60 cents, and utilities up 30 cents.

Utility improvement was largely a reflection of the gain of 1¼ at 40¼ by Western Union.

The market was not very broad with 1,090 individual issues traded of which 335 advanced and 499 declined with 11 new highs and 12 new lows. There were 1,061 issues traded Friday.

Woman Sues Local Grocer

A $7,000 damage suit was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court against a North Centre Street grocer by a woman who charges that she broke her right arm when she fell over a crate of eggs in the store.

The suit was filed for Mrs. Ruth V. Groves, 457 North Centre Street, by Attorney E. M. Horchler. Named as defendant was D. A. Langer, 505 North Centre Street, trading individually and as D. A. Langer's Grocery Store.

In her declaration, Mrs. Groves said she entered the defendant's store as a customer last October 27. She contends she stumbled against and fell over a crate of eggs which she claims was placed so it protruded into an aisle normally used by customers.

As a result of the fall, Mrs. Groves broke her right arm and lost maximum use of it, she concludes.

Guard To Hold Autumn Staff Meeting Here

Conference Set September 29-30

The 115th Infantry Regiment, Maryland National Guard, will hold its fall regimental staff meeting at the local armory next month for the first time in its history.

Col. Randolph Millholland, regimental commander, said last night the conference will be held September 29 and 30.

It will include 12 hours of instruction and discussion for members of the regimental staff and for officers of the First, Second and Third Battalions and of special companies.

About 35 officers from all sections of Maryland except Baltimore are expected to attend the sessions.

The quarterly meetings normally are held at Camp Ritchie and at Towson, the home of regimental headquarters.

Colonel Millholland said the regiment departed from its usual practice this year so as to acquaint staff officers with sections of the state other than their own.

The spring meeting was held at Easton and the summer conference was at Salisbury.

Instruction periods will be held on Saturday, September 29, and Sunday, September 30 at the armory. A dinner for officers and their wives probably will be held Saturday, Col. Millholland said.

Saturday's sessions will run from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., and Sunday's, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. On the agenda are tactical and administrative matters, as well as regimental business.

Social Security Payments Jump 140 Per Cent

Hike Attributed To New Law

Social Security payments have increased by about 140 per cent since the enactment of a new law a year ago today, according to James S. Getty, director of the local office.

August payments totaling $147,075,000 went to about 4,150,000 aged retired persons, wives, widows, children and dependent parents. Figures for August 1950 were $61,641,000 for 2,967,055 persons.

Getty pointed out that two principal factors in the new law accounted for these increases.

First, there was the automatic increase in the level of payments to those already on the benefit rolls. It also covered all new claimants in the past year.

The other big reason for the increase is the larger number of people eligible for insurance benefits under the new law.

Persons who had been receiving the average old-age retirement payment of about $26 now receive about $48. Minimum payments of $10 were doubled.

The maximum old-age insurance payment, about $45 a year ago, is now $68.50. Many families surviving an insured wage-earner now receive the top family payment of $150 monthly.

Getty emphasized that money for the payments is not derived from general taxation, but comes from the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund, built up by contributions from workers and their employers.

Union Spurns Appeal To Aid Jailed Reds

Drop In Bail Is Asked By Group

Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America (CIO), officials yesterday reported the union will have "nothing to do" with an appeal for aid toward the defense of five Communist party leaders jailed by the FBI in Baltimore on charges of conspiring to overthrow the government by violence.

The appeal was released by Alice Meyers, Baltimore, and received through the mail yesterday.

She said the statement was "released by me, as wife of one of the defendants (George Meyers). I appeal to you to do whatever you can to help release these five men and women on reasonable bail."

She added, "I appeal to you to aid in their defense and the defense of our Bill of Rights."

A statement by Regina Frankfeld, Dorothy Blumberg, Philip Frankfeld, Meyers and Roy Wood followed in the printed letter.

Included in the appeal was the desire that a "reasonable bail, not to exceed $10,000 each" be set by the court.

It also asked for improved conditions in the Baltimore City jail, "including the right to smoke for women".

Since the FBI crackdown August 7, one of the persons caught in the dragnet has been released. He is Maurice Braverman, an attorney in Communist court suits, who furnished $5,000 bail.

Judge W. Calvin Chestnut lowered the bail of the others from $75,000 to $20,000 on August 16 and indicated he was willing to entertain a petition for a further reduction if they couldn't obtain that much.

Commenting on the appeal, Playford Aldridge, Local 1874 president, said he presumed other labor unions here received similar copies of the bulletin. Meyers was labor secretary of the Communist Party of Maryland before he became head of the state organization.

Aldridge said the TWUA union has expelled all known Communists from membership in Local 1874.

Water System Work Will Get Underway Soon

Chemical Building Plans Completed

Modernization of the chemical building at the city's filtration plant, Lake Gordon may get underway this week.

Robert R. Regester Baltimore, consultant for the city on improvements at Lake Gordon, informed Water Commissioner George H. Tederick yesterday he will be in Cumberland tomorrow.

Regester reported that he expects to bring with him plans needed by George M. Hitchcock, superintendent of the water company, for modernization of the persent chemical building at the dam.

He will also report to Commissioner Tederick on progress of plans for six additional filters.

Filter Plans Progress

Regester yesterday told Commissioner Tederick that plans for the urgently needed filters are progressing and he has been devoting all of his time to the task.

The chemical building work, estimated to cost about $10,000, will enable the city for the first time to treat water with chemicals before it reaches the filters.

Better control of the entire purification process will result from the improved chemical treatment facilities, officials said.

Provides For Future

Regester was authorized on August 6, to prepare bidding, plans for six new filters at the dam. Work is estimated to cost about $150,000.

Increased use of water in the Cumberland area, which this year has exceeded the 12,000,000 gallons a day filtering capacity of the water system, has placed the filter project in the urgent class.

The 18,000,000 gallons a day filtering capacity the new filters will provide will bring the total capacity of the plant to a mark, sufficient, officials estimate, to take care of the domestic and industrial needs of the area for years to come.

Two Residents Are Ordained To Priesthood

Received Into Capuchin Order At Pittsburgh

Rev. Gary James Stakem, O.F.M. Cap., and Rev. Ronald David Lawler, O. F. M. Cap., both of Cumberland, were ordained to the priesthood this morning by the Most Rev. Apollinaris Baumgartner, O. F. M. Cap., D. D., at St. Augustine's Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Father Gary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Stakem, live at 414 Fayette Street. Father Ronald is the son of Mrs. Leo T. Lawler of 214 Fayette Street.

Class Of Five

The two local priests were members of a class of five Capuchins elevated to the priesthood in the first ordination ceremony ever held at historic old St. Augustine's. The new priests received the spiritual powers of the priesthood from Bishop Baumgartner, missionary bishop of the Order, who flew here from his post in Guam.

Very Rev. Giles Staab, O. F. M. Cap., Rector of Capuchin College in Washington, D. C., was archdeacon of the ordination service.

Following their prostration on the sanctuary floor of the church during the impressive chanting of the Litany of All Saints, the candidates approached the bishop who placed his hands on the head of each and thus transferred to them the power and grace of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. From this point on the voices of the new priests blended with the voice of the bishop in reciting the ancient prayers of Mass.

Clothed With Vestments

The new priests marched one by one to the foot of the altar to be clothed with the vestments they will henceforth wear at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The hands of each were carefully anointed with holy oil and the ceremony closed with the bishop embracing each new priest and welcoming him into the priesthood.

The Capuchin Seminary Choir of St. Mary's Monastery, Herman, Pa., sang for the ceremonies.

Tax Discount Deadline Near

Cumberland area taxpayers were reminded yesterday by Tax Collector Ernest B. Treat that midnight Friday is the deadline for discounts on county and state taxes.

During August a 3 per cent discount is permitted. Treat's office at the Court House is open from 9 a. m. until noon on Saturday. Beginning Saturday, which is September 1, one-half per cent interest will be added to the county taxes. Interest will be added on state taxes beginning October 1.

Although payments may not be made at Treat's office after 4 p. m. Friday to receive the discount, mailed payments postmarked before midnight Friday will be accepted.

Treat reported yesterday that payments in his office this month have totaled about $35,000. In June they ran to about $1,600,000 and in July aggregated $103,000. About 90 per cent of the anticipated taxes are paid through the office at the Court House. There are two other tax collection districts in the county.

Williams Street Crossing May Be Closed To Traffic

B. & O. Asks City To Approve Proposal Offering Overhead Bridge For Pedestrians

Citing hazards resulting from 17 tracks and heavy switching operations, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has asked the City of Cumberland to close the Williams Street crosing to vehicular traffic. An overhead bridge would be provided for pedestrians.

Details of the plan were disclosed in a letter to the city from Chester T. Williams, superintendent of the Cumberland Division.

The present crossing at Williams Street, due to yard switching and main track movement, presents a hazard to pedestrians and vehicular traffic which no amount of protection provided by the railroad could reduce, Williams said.

Traffic Diminished

Vehicular traffic has diminished in recent months, he added, undoubtedly due to the knowledge of motorists of the hazards existing at the crossing.

Reasons cited in the request for the closing of the crossing to vehicles were:

Closing of the crossing would permit the B and O better utilization of existing facilities and would fit in with the proposed construction of new yard facilities in Cumberland.

Use of the crossing by pedestrians and vehicles is particularly hazardous due to the physical characteristics of the crossing.

When the crossing is closed to vehicular traffic, yard switching movements over the main thoroughfare at Baltimore Street should be somewhat reduced, thus eliminating some of the traffic congestion at that heavily traveled thoroughfare.

Pedestrian Bridge

In consideration of the city closing Williams Street to vehicular traffic, the B and O agrees to erect, subject to City approval, an overhead pedestrian bridge walkway, the plans of which will be furnished for approval of the City when permission is granted to close Williams Street to vehicular traffic.

There was no immediate comment from City officials on the plan broached at a recent meeting between city and railroad officials.
